

DEFENSE TO FOLLOW.

The Prosecution in the Trial of the Coxeyites Has Closed.

THERE IS NO SIGN OF THE END.

The Trial Bids Fair to Continue Indefinitely at Its Present Rate of Progress.

WASHINGTON, May 5.—The constitutional case of the United States against J. S. Coxey, Carl Browne and Christopher Columbus Jones, for invading the capitol grounds with a banner and treading on the grass, was continued in the police court today, and bids fair to continue indefinitely at its present rate of progress. After much informal thrashing around and battling over insignificant points, the prosecution was finished. The defense offered an unsuccessful demurrer to the sufficiency of the evidence, and when it takes up its case on Monday it will have on hand several members of congress in the capacity of witnesses. Senator Allen was not there today, but his congressional quota of the defense was filled by Representative Hudson, of Kansas, who assisted Life Pence. Once during the day the fiery Colorado man attacked Judge Miller's course of procedure, but afterward disclaimed any intention to reflect on the impartiality of the judge. Mrs. Coxey was in court with Miss Mamie Coxey, the "goddess of peace," and Jesse Coxey, the walking symbol of the blue and gray Congress was represented by Hainer of Nebraska, Bland of Missouri, Waugh of Indiana, Sibley of Pennsylvania, Meredith of Virginia and Kem of Nebraska.

R. H. McDONALD INDICTED.

His Bail Has Been Fixed at One Hundred Thousand Dollars.

SAN FRANCISCO, May 5.—R. H. McDonald, jr., vice-president of the People's Home Savings bank and of the Pacific bank, was this afternoon indicted by the grand jury for felony and embezzlement. The specific accusation has not been made public, but it is well known that the charge against him arises from the mismanagement of the People's Home Savings bank. Judge Hebbard fixed the bail at $100,000, and issued a bench warrant for McDonald's arrest. It has not been served at a late hour this afternoon. McDonald, however, had been advised of the action of the grand jury and began preparations to secure bail. He refused to say anything for publication. It is known that the indictment is a direct consequence of the recent investigation made by the state's attorney-general, Hart, into the affairs of the bank. He appeared before the grand jury this morning. The indictment charges McDonald with felony in having, June 23, 1893, while president of the Pacific bank, embezzled $20,000 of the bank's funds. McDonald was arrested tonight and placed in jail. So far he has not furnished the necessary $10,000 bail.

Chase Not Guilty.

SPOKANE, Wash., May 5.—After being out nearly 70 hours, the jury in the Chase rape case brought in a verdict of not guilty. Up to the last minute it had stood continuously eight for acquittal and four for conviction. Defendant Herman L. Chase is one of the most prominent men in the state. He is a nephew of ex-Secretary Salmon P. Chase, and both he and his wife are connected with some of the best eastern families. For two years he served as receiver of the Spokane National bank. He was accused by his servant girl, Marie Nelson, of rape under the most brutal circumstances. The prominence of the family and the active interest taken in the case by a league of more than 100 prominent Spokane women have made the case one of the most sensational in the history of the state. The trial has cost the county nearly $6,000.

Desperate Fight With Strikers.

BERLIN, May 5.—The colliers in the mining district round Falkenau, not far from Marburg, struck several days ago because their numerous grievances concerning the administration of mines were not remedied. Yesterday the strikers routed in and near Falkenau. They refused to disperse when a force of 50 police faced them, and eventually they threw stones and clods of earth at the officers. The police charged several times. As the strikers fought back stubbornly the police then fired two volleys from revolvers. Three strikers were killed and 15 wounded. After the mob retreated the military were summoned by telegraph and they will occupy the district, as further disturbances are feared.

Some 300 strikers at Freeburg, in the Breisgau, south of Baden, attacked 75 scabs, who had been brought from Basel. A fight with revolvers and clubs followed. After several on each side had been injured, the police separated the two parties and arrested 15 strikers.

EX-MINISTER JAY DEAD.

He Was Prominent in Founding the Republican Party.

NEW YORK, May 5.—John Jay, ex-United States minister in Austria, died at the Hotel Savoie today. His death was due to a general break-up of the system, and the effects of an accident of two years ago. John Jay was born in New York city, June 23, 1817. After his admission to the bar, he became well known by his active opposition to slavery. He was secretary of the Irish relief committee of 1847. In 1854 he organized the meetings at the Broadway tabernacle that resulted in the state convention at Saratoga on August 10, and in the dissolution of the whig and the formation of the republican party at Syracuse, September 27, 1855. In 1866 he was sent as minister to Austria. He resigned and returned to the United States in 1877, and has been prominent in many large public movements since that time.

They May Wear Fuzzies.

CHICAGO, May 5.—At today's meeting of the deaconess' conference, the costume committee recommended black gowns, with gathered or plaited skirts, bishop's sleeves and round waists. Then the report went on suggesting turndown collars and white cuffs, that the hair be worn "plain," and no jewelry be worn solely for ornament. The girls with frizzled hair, with montagues and other pretty fixings in the way of hair, wanted to know why they should plaster their locks down flat, and thought it would be horrid. Dr. North, of New York, sprang to the defense of "fuzzy hair," as he termed it, and said it was one of his greatest delights to look upon a crowd of deaconesses with fuzzy hair. The gallant doctor won the day, and the resolution was voted down.

The Cost to the Government.

WASHINGTON, May 5.—The Coxey movement in the northwest is putting the government to heavy expense. The treasury department has submitted to the house an estimate of the prospective deficiency of $50,000 for United States marshals. Attorney-General Olney says the expense in Washington is $1,000 a day.

Secretary Herbert Has Started West.

WASHINGTON, May 5.—Secretary Herbert started today on his trip to inspect the Mare Island navy yard and the naval station on Puget sound, Washington. With the secretary were his daughters, his niece, Miss Edith Buell, and his naval aide, Lieutenant Reed. The party will visit the Yellowstone Park.

Obituary.

Communicated.

Mrs. Mary Humbert, wife of Isaac Humbert of Dufur, departed this life in Portland April 30th. She has for some months been a sufferer with that dread and deadly disease, cancer of the womb, and went to Portland to have one of those operations performed wherein the science of modern surgery takes the one chance and death holds unto himself the other ninety and nine. The operation was performed at the Good Samaritan Hospital by Dr. Dietrich of Dufur, assisted by a number of the leading surgeons of Oregon. The patient rallied and lived five days, when, despite the attendance of the best medical skill of the coast, other complications arose, which in her weak state it was impossible for medical science to control.

Mrs. Humbert was a native of North Carolina, 53 years and 20 days of age, and was married in Dade county, Missouri, thirty-two years ago. They removed to Wasco county in 1855. She leaves two married daughters, Mrs. Hugh Jordan of this place and Mrs. S. S. Montgomery of Missouri; also one married son, Harden Humbert, living in Missouri. There is one daughter, Emma, and a son, Charles, living in the Dufur home to comfort the inconsolable husband and father, who, after a third of a century of happy married life, is bereft of a loved and loving companion.

Mrs. Humbert was one of those true Christian women whose life work is devoted to making a home happy, and who dying leaves a community better for having had her quiet teaching and excellent example. On the eve of going to Portland she wrote a letter and placed it in a convenient place for her daughter, Emma. In it was recorded the last wishes and advice of a Christian mother, knowing that the shadow of death was upon her, pride shown in every line at the result of her life work accomplished. No regrets for the past; no fears for the future; naught but a perfect confidence that an "all-wise God doeth all things well."

Mrs. Humbert was at her own request buried in East Portland cemetery.

POLITICAL ANIMOSITY.

An Instance of Its Outcropping Among the English.

At a recent reception held by the prince of Wales Mr. Gladstone was loudly hissed by the Tories present. The incident, a gross departure from the respect due to a host and to a fellow-guest, illustrates the bitterness of the personal animosities created by English politics. Another British statesman, the late Lord Beaconsfield, often encountered in private life the virulent hostility of his political opponents.

One day, while residing at his country house, Hughenden manor, he was walking on the terrace, dressed in the easy coat and old slouched hat which he always affected when among farmers. The gate opened, and two women, strong Gladstonians, entered the grounds.

Supposing him to be a keeper or gardener or something of that sort, they inquired if he would show them over the place, which he at once undertook to do. While they were walking about they overwhelmed him with questions as to the habits of the master of the manor, and one of them finally said:

"Do you think you could manage to get us a sight of the old beast himself?"

"Madam," said Lord Beaconsfield, "the old beast has the honor to wait upon you now."
