MAY MINORS.

Leaves From the Notebook of Chronicle Reporters.

The salmon run is very light so far, contrary to expectations.

Co. G of the commonwealth army passed through The Dalles this afternoon.

We are informed that all taxes remaining unpaid on the 26th inst. will be advertised on that date.

Mr. R. B. Horr, associate editor of the New York Tribune, is in Portland and will speak tonight at the Marquam.

Dr. Ross, dentist, of Portland, will remain in Dufur until June 1st. Those requiring first-class work should call on him.

Covert and McCalvey, joint partners in a farm near the city, are devoting their energies this year to the production of barley. Those wanting seed should send in their orders early.

Mr. Wm. Cantrell of Dufur brought in 8,200 pounds of choice potatoes this morning, which found ready sale. They were raised by Mr. A. J. Dufur, jr., and are without a spot or blemish—a valuable tuber for this time of the year.

There will be a general business meeting at the Christian church Thursday night, May 10th, at 7:30 o'clock. All the members are requested to be present, as business of an important nature is to be transacted. By order of the elders.

Mr. J. A. Wagner of 8-Mile last year brought in the smallest hen's egg on record, the tiny ovum being not over three-fourths of an inch in diameter, and today he brought in the largest egg, by way of diversity. Both are on exhibition at THE CHRONICLE office.

Company C passed through The Dalles this morning, making five companies altogether which have left Portland, leaving seven companies to come. A lieutenant of Co. L has been stationed here to assist the companies past The Dalles as they arrive. They will all assemble again at Kansas City.

Keep it well in mind that R. B. Horr speaks in The Dalles on the 25th. It will be the chance of a lifetime, and we already hear of preparations being made to come by people living a great distance away. The Statesman says: "The republican managers must get some men of genius and ability out on the trail of Governor Pennoyer. Horr will pull a goodly portion of the feathers out of the Jaybird's tail."

Misses Laura Thompson, Mabel Sterling, Ella Cooper, Della Watson, Ida Omeg, Mabel Omeg, Susanna Ward, Ida Everhardt, Anna Frazier, Emma Vogt, Norah Turner, Nellie Hudson, Sternvise, Mrs. Cameron, Waldo Brigham and Asa Stogsdill are being examined at the court house today by the superintendent of public schools.

Messrs. T. L. Ward and W. G. Kerns have bought out the interest of Lute Burham in the city stables and the barn, livery, horses and carriages of R. E. Hood on Second street and will consolidate the two interests. They will be associated in the livery business with Mr. Joseph Robertson, under the probable firm-name of Kerns, Ward & Robertson. The new firm takes possession tomorrow.

There will be a meeting this (Wednesday) evening, April 9th, at 8 o'clock, in the hall over the CHRONICLE, of the business men of The Dalles, to devise ways and means to improve and make passable the roads leading to The Dalles. Mr. J. H. Sherar, who has just been over the roads, will be present and give his views. The necessity of being present is urged upon all who are interested in the prosperity of The Dalles. The meeting is of vital importance to every business man and property owner in the city. Let no one fail to be present.

Mr. Eugene Gordon, of Butte Mont., has accepted the position made vacant by the resignation of Mr. S. P. Briggs at Pease & Mays, and has already entered upon his duties. Mr. Gordon is a native of Vermont, but is recently from Butte, where for eight years he has been chief clerk in the Gravelle dry goods house, a large establishment employing about thirty clerks. He was compelled to resign his place and leave Butte, on account of ill health, induced by the sulphurous fumes and vapor of the smelting works at that point. A position awaits him at any time he may choose to take it with his late employers, but it is not likely he will place his health in jeopardy by again returning to Butte.

Reserve Tuesday Evening.

Plans should be made early by our citizens to spend next Tuesday evening at the opera house, where it to be presented the thrilling drama of "Enlisted for the War" by the Home Dramatic Club, which, when in former years delighted Dalles audiences on very many occasions. The plot is founded on incidents connected with the late war. The demands of the play for good acting are tally met by those in the cast, and will prove a revelation to many who have never before attended home theatricals. The proceeds are for charity, and those who attend will serve a double purpose—that of assisting a worthy cause and ministering to their own pleasure at the same time.

CORRESPONDENCE.

Neighborhood News Contributed by Local Writers.

VICTOR.

Mrs. Abraham of Portland is visiting Mrs. H. Kelly.

We have been having windy weather for the past few days, but hope it is about at an end.

Mr. Rice has come out to look at some beef cattle owned by J. Abbott of Wapinitia, with the intention of buying them.

Our schools are going in full blast, the Fairview being the largest. There are nearly forty pupils enrolled. Mr. Ghoram is teacher.

Born, to the wife of Mr. Asa Stogsdill, on the 24th, an eleven-pound boy. Asa will now be building an addition on his farm, as he has a new plow hand.

Church at the Fairview schoolhouse last Sunday. Rev. Ghoram was the speaker, and Rev. Hudson of Wamic also delivered a sermon to a large and appreciative audience the same day at 11 and 2 o'clock in the Kelly church.

There is to be a picnic given by the republican club of Wapinitia on the 12th of May. Everybody is expecting a good time, as all are to bring their baskets, and the Wild West band will be present with their fine music. Just think of all the eatables, such as pies, cakes, tarts, and everybody is cordially invited.

A horse with a saddle and about forty feet of rope dragging came down the road at a lively gait and was caught at the church and sent back up the road by Mr. Rice to find the owner. The horse evidently belonged to some traveler, as it had a roll of blankets tied behind the saddle. Have not heard whether any one was hurt by it or not.

The four-months-old baby of Mr. and Mrs. Alexander died at the home of its grandparent, M. Confer, of this place, on Saturday night, April 28th, with spasms. The bereaved parents and relatives have the sympathy of their many friends. The funeral services were held on Sunday in the Kelly church and the child was buried in the cemetery near by.

SARAH JANE.

ENDERSBY.

The weather is rather cold, with the wind blowing a gale every day, which is rather hard on those of our citizens that are under the influence of la grippe.

Farmers are about through seeding. Planting will now be the order of the day. You see we can plant potatoes and talk politics at the same time.

The Ellis republican club will meet at the Endersby hall, where they hold their meetings, on Friday night, the 11th, at 7 o'clock. We will also have a big time on Saturday evening, the 19th, at 7:30 o'clock. Mr. John Michell of The Dalles will be the principal speaker of the evening. We bespeak for him a full house, as there are very few better posted on the issues of the day than Michell. An invitation is extended to all to be present. Don't miss the evening, the 19th, and regret it all your life. W. J. D., Pres. of the Club.

Collehan's Statements Questioned.

IN CAMP, PORTLAND, May 8, 1894.

EDITOR CHRONICLE—A copy of your paper of yesterday, containing an interview with Mr. Thos. Collehan, has just been handed me, and contains so many misstatements that I deem it my duty to correct them. First, Mr. Collehan is not a staff officer of the regiment, having resigned the office of major previous to leaving the camp. Second, Mr. Scheffler has not deceived the men in any respect; everything promised by him and the committee has been carried out to the full extent, as every man who joined the regiment (except a few who joined for what was in it) will testify. Third, The collections have not been more than enough to feed the men in camp and give a small sum to each company as they took the road—all told less than $700. Fourth, Company H did not draw lots to determine the order in which the companies should go out, but by general consent that company was granted the privilege of "striking the road" first, whilst the order of the remainder was determined by lot. In conclusion, I wish to emphasize the fact that Mr. Collehan is authorized to speak only for himself and the few men whom he has seduced from Co. H, and not for all the regiment.

Col. Commanding.

Another Frost.

Last night was very cold, and frost was general over this section. There is no doubt it has done considerable damage, though reports vary as to its severity.

Rev. O. D. Taylor reports that he observed no particular damage to fruits on Mill creek.

At 5-Mile the fruit is all killed, and the vegetation bitten down to the ground. At 9 o'clock the fruit on trees had blackened. The same reports come from 8-Mile and 15-Mile, and there is apprehension that the wheat is injured.

In some localities the night was so cold that the surface of the ground froze. It was colder generally on the creek bottoms than the ridges.

In the city water froze in the hose in some places. The frost, also, struck in spots, more or less severe.

School Entertainment.

The Dalles public school will close Friday, May 25th, and the pupils will give a public entertainment at the Baldwin opera house on the evening following, Saturday, the 26th. The program will consist of recitations, songs, Japanese fan drill, Mother Goose drill, and a short cantata. An admission fee of 10 and 15 cents will be charged, to pay expenses incident to the entertainment. Before the close of the term, the primary pupils will be given an entertainment at the school.

PERSONAL MENTION.

Mr. H. Fuldwider of St. Louis, Mo., arrived in the city last night and is the guest of Mr. G. V. Bolton.

Mr. James McMillan of Wasco, Sherman county, is in the city. He reports a large acreage of wheat, which is now in uniformly good condition, and is hopeful of a good price for it in the fall.
