vices equal to his compensation, what service is he rendering the state by spending five or six weeks in the field booming himself, while drawing the salary that pays him for being in his office at Salem? His Coxey army sentiments disgrace his station-for he poses as their apologist and abettor. His official position lends strength to that unworthy cause, which is now growing to be a public menace. Considering all these facts it is high time Pennover was retired to private life. His example is not fitting to place before the youth of the land. The governor's chair should not be filled by a crank, a demagogue and a disturber of national peace.

The Coxey wildcat is beginning to how its claws.

There are 9,000 saloons in New York, and 175,267 democrats-twenty demorats to each saloon.

There seems to be a ponderous tidal wave sweeping over Kentucky, in which Willie Breckinridge will be totally engulfed. The people are determined that Kentucky shall not be disgraced again.

It would be in better keeping if Governor Pennoyer would attend strictly to the business of the office to which he is elected, instead of drawing governor's salary while he is making political stump speeches. If the governor will give our farmers a dollar a bushel for their wheat, instead of filling the Coxey sympathizers' heads with bosh, he will be attending to something better.

NATURE'S PYROTECHNICS. The West Indies Is the Place to See Them at Their Best.

The phenomenon known as lightning, followed by a rolling, reverberating report, recognized as thunder, is common to a wide zone of the earth, but it is not generally known that there are localities where the vivid flashes and the deafening peals are incessant. The most notable of these continuous lightning districts, says the Pittsburgh Dispatch, is on the eastern coast of the island of San Domingo, a leading member of the group of the West Indies. It is not meant that the lightning is here continuous the year round, but that, with the commencement of the rainy season, comes this zigzag feature of electric illumination, which is then continuous day and night for weeks. The storm center is not continuously local, but shifts over a considerable area, and, as thunder is seldom heard over a greater distance than eight miles, and the lightning in the night will illuminate so as to be seen thirty miles, there may be days in some localities where the twinkle on the sky is in a continuous succession while the rolling reports are absent. Then again come days and nights when the electric artillery is piercing in its detonations; and especially is this the case when two separate local cloud centers join, as it were, in an electric duel, and, as sometimes occurs, a third participant appears to add to the elemental warfare. Then there is a blazing sky with blinding vividness and stunning peals that seem to pin the listener to the earth. Long before the cchoes can die away come others, until the auricular mech anism seems hammered into chaos of the Latest Discoveries of Hy-Few gienic Science Are Yet Utilized.

RECKLESS WASTE OF LIFE.

An interesting and to a certain extent instructive statement has just appeared showing what a reckless was of life is going on among us all the time, says Demorest's Magazine. The number of deaths from causes preventable by means now well known to science is shown to constitute almost the entire death list of one of the leading cities of the country, where, after a death rate of 697. there were only twenty-five deaths recorded from old age. Seventeen of these deaths occured from typhoid fever, a disease which should never exist in a civilized country. In the French and German conntry. In the French and German armies, where a modern system of treatment prevails, only one typhoid patient in fifty dies. Pulmonary diseases carry off 249 per-sons on this list, and yet it is asserted that even in cases where children inherit a tendency to consumption there is no need for it to develop if proper precautions are taken in time regarding exercise, breathing and habits. Stomach troubles claim 155 more victims, and are attributable entirely to carelessness in eating and drinking-a proper regulation of diet, as it is claimed, being all that would be necessary to prevent every one of them. This reduces the death rate from a little over 19 to about 6 per cent., and, with the natural addition to the length of those lives reported to have been lost through old age, would probably bring up the average sum of human years to 175 or even higher.

The fact is that few of the latest discoveries of science are utilized to benefit humanity. People seldom call upon the doctors until their condition has become chronic, and then; to save expense, they rarely undergo thorough treatment. Then, again, we go on eating and drinking what we know is the last thing we should think of putting into our stomachs, in utter disregard of the laws of diet. We habitually drink water that is often as certain a poison as strychnine or alcohol; we live under sanitary conditions which render perfect health an impossibility, and, lastly, we load our lives with burdens which, while assisting in no way to our betterment, sap the very roots of our existence and make life a melancholy pilgrimage. Who shall rear a temple to the goddess Hygea and make Methuselah's as common as roses in June?

ZUNI DANCERS.

Plantation Darkies Are Nowhere in Com parison.

"The Zuni Indians are the original wing and buck dancers," said George Sherman, a Denver man, to a reporter for the Fort Worth Gazette. seen the genuine plantation negroes in Louisiana and Mississippi and the minstrel article, but they are simply not in it with the Zunis. 1 went to Tueson, A. T., several years ago, one spring, and we visited a pueblo near where there are many Zuni Indians. A fellow with us asked if we had ever seen 'em dance. We said we hadn't, and he said we'd missed a treat, for they took the cake for fancy foot movements. He spoke to the old alcalde of the settlement, and he called two men. They were fine-looking men, not very tall but sinewy, supple and well made. Without any preliminaries, they set to, and of all the high jumping, side leaping, heel-and-toe work, sliding, shuffling, I ever saw, that dancing was the best. They were light on their feet,

PENNOYER'S SUCCESSES.

Pennoyer's greatest successes are his stump speeches. He can lead around by the nose almost any mixed crowd, by force of illusory statements calculated to please the impecunious, and the toiling masses who have little time to think. His Albina speech was no ex-ception. The truth is Pennoyer is the biggest demacorne in the state and Sold by Druggists, 75c. biggest demagogue, in the state, and were the men he best likes to harangue deprived of their votes, he would have no use for them. Whenever he measures his intelligence against statesmen on matters of national policy he invariably suffers by the contest. His free silver sentiments have time and again been proven fatuous. Both the republican and democratic parties concede that its effect would bring disaster, and no public men of note will seriously urge its adoption, unless from the same demagogic motives that influence Sylis his references to the alleged lavishness of the last legislature. The inconsistency of his acts with his platform utterances have been shown up time and again by the press all over the state, but it does not affect his set speech in the least, and with the embellishcontinues to create cheap but effective popularity with those classes who con-Pennoyer could have vetoed any approst itements. He aftacks Judge Lord for drawing more than his constitutional dues, and charges Mr. Galloway with not rendering services equal to his compensation, but besides failing to prove these statements, with gingular blindness, he does not recognize that he is more vulnerable on these very points than the geotlemen he attacks. It is well known that Gov. Pennoyer spaces out his salary with sums not legally provided, and as for not rendering ser-UCC, Nurserymee, Portland, Or. dawtjy25.

Dr. S. F. Scott, Blue Ridge, Harrison Co., Mo., says: "For whooping cough Chamberlain's Cough Remedy is excellent." By using it freely the disease is deprived of all dangerous consequences. There is no danger in giving the Remedy to babies, as it contains nothing injur ions. 50 cent bottles for sale by Blakeley & Houghton, druggists.

They whirled away from each other with a pretty heel-tap movement, spun around at the same time, touching the tips of their toes turned a back somersault and came down like feathers, keeping in perfect time. The only accompaniment they had was a rude sort of tom-tom and the whistling of a boy. They danced for three-quarters of an hour and weren't broken down.
