The grand old republican party again wants recruits to save the nation.

"Lack of circulating medium," howl the populists. Of course there is lack of circulating medium. Everyone knows that. If capitalists keep their money locked in vaults on account of their fear to invest it, how can it circulate?

Republicans claim that promised free trade is responsible for the existing financial depression. Populists claim it is lack of a circulating medium. Financial depression is a lack of circulating medium. They ascribe an effect instead of a cause. Prominent republicans long ago ciphered it out that a financial depression would follow close on the heels of a democratic victory. Harrison prophesied it and gave his reasons for it in his message reprinted in Thursday's CHRONICLE. The Oregonian prophesied it last November, and it has been fulfilled in detail. In both cases the reasons given were cogent and impossible to avoid, and it has only taken a few months' time to demonstrate them as correct as a theorem in geometry.

Theory and practice are quite different, it is needless to repeat. Populists claim that they would be very economical if they were in power and doubtless believe it. But here is some practice. A comparison is presented of two administrations, the one republican under Governor Moody, and the other populist under Pennoyer. Pennoyer could have vetoed any one of the items named:

Sal. for private sec. to governor.....	Moody $2,400	Pennoyer $3,600
Incidental fund.....	18,000	28,000
Insane and idiotic fund.....	185,000	276,000
Penitentiary fund.....	54,800	99,850
Total.....	$252,100	$467,750
Balance in favor of Moody administration,	$175,650.

Wasco county has a republican majority of 200 to 300. Notwithstanding this the democrats for years have been electing their sheriff and clerk, the two best offices on the county ticket. There is little encouragement for local republicans in such a condition of affairs, and democracy is proportionally strengthened by it. Scratching tickets has been the cause. The county convention this year has selected the best men it could find to represent the ticket, hoping for a straight republican vote. If it does not get that vote it never can. We urge that the ticket be supported unanimously by all republicans and any others who may have changed their party affiliations. Remember that principles are being voted for, not merely men.

A set of men, with no experience in public affairs, with false opinions of government, with crude ideas, with a lack of proper mental development, of oblique vision and distorted opinions on such subjects as national banks and railroads, want us to entrust the keeping of the country at this critical time, with them. These are the populists. They regard all others with suspicion, and their principal avocation is denouncing and condemning. They are full of theories, which do not need practice to overturn them. They have already been proven false. Their idea that the government can create money by affixing the government stamp to an oblong bit of paper is repudiated by any man of ordinary intelligence. Government loans to individuals on land security is only another fruitful source of unsatisfied mortgages. Borrowing should be discouraged, no matter what the terms. An industrious and economical man has no need to borrow. He creates wealth for himself. The populists are tyros in finance, in law, in diplomacy and in government, but they want to overturn all existing conditions, establish a new Arcadia and run things according to their own original ideas. Does anyone doubt they would soon make the United States the laughing stock of the world?

Electric Bitters.

This remedy is becoming so well known and so popular as to need no special mention. All who use Electric Bitters sing the same song of praise.—A purer medicine does not exist and it is guaranteed to do all that is claimed. Electric Bitters will cure all diseases of the liver and kidneys, will remove pimples, boils, salt rheum and other affections caused by impure blood.—Will drive malaria from the system and prevent as well as cure all malarial fevers.—For cure of headache, constipation and indigestion try Electric Bitters. Entire satisfaction guaranteed, or money refunded.—Price 50c and $1 per bottle at Snipes & Kinerly's.

A THOUSAND Denver women attended a recent meeting of the Woman's Political club to consider "What Colorado Women Can Do for Colorado."

Sing a song of common sense,
 A mind that's full of fry,
 A man who knows a thing or two
 And shows it in his eye—
 'Who's well aware the medicine
 That's best for you and me
 Is always Dr. Pierce's Medical Discovery.

You can escape just about one-half the ills that flesh is heir to, by being ready for them. When you feel dull, languid, "out of sorts" generally—then you may know that some of them are coming. Don't let them get any further. Brace the system up with Dr. Pierce's Golden Medical Discovery. That prevents as well as cures: It invigorates the liver and kidneys, purifies and enriches the blood, sharpens the appetite, improves digestion and restores health and vigor.

Dr. S. F. Scott, Blue Ridge, Harrison Co., Mo., says: "For whooping cough Chamberlain's Cough Remedy is excellent." By using it freely the disease is deprived of all dangerous consequences. There is no danger in giving the Remedy to babies, as it contains nothing injurious. 50 cent bottles for sale by Blakeley & Houghton, druggists.

Keep your eye on this proposition We will give free to every new cash subscriber to the WEEKLY CHRONICLE a year's subscription to the great New York Weekly Tribune. This offer will be open until the first of July. Don't forget it—You get THE CHRONICLE for one year for $1.50 and the Tribune as a premium. Old subscribers can have both papers by paying up arrears and renewing subscription at $1.75.

A DIVERSION FROM POLITICS.

right through from twenty to twenty-five miles, as the case may be, without feeding his team. He may water once. He has a lunch for himself, which he can eat while his team is struggling up some hill. When he gets to town, with his horses steaming, he has to stand from one to three hours, according to the throng, before he can get unloaded. The horses are then tied in an open shed and fed all they can eat, and the poor, hungry animals gorge themselves unmercifully. The next morning when the owner gets around he finds one of his horses dead in the stall. The carcass is hauled out to the nearest dumping place. There is no inquest held; the authorities take no notice of it. The man bewails his hard luck and people sympathize with him, and the next term of court you will find this same man sitting as a juror, when he should be in the penitentiary.

If the nobility and usefulness of the rising generation, if they were even taught to consider that the horse is composed of flesh and blood, bones, muscles and nerves; that he can see, hear, taste, smell and feel; that they receive their nutriment by the food they consume; that they exercise all their powers for the benefit of mankind, and are entirely at the mercy of their drivers, I say if these truths could be instilled into the minds of the young, I think we would be making rapid progress toward a higher stage of civilization.

Now, Mr. Editor, if you kindly publish these remarks, in my next I will show the horse as he should be; at least from the standpoint of an

The Best Medicine.

J. O. WILSON, Contractor and Builder, Sulphur Springs, Texas, thus speaks of Ayer's Pills:

"Ayer's Pills are the best medicine I ever tried; and, in my judgment, no better general remedy could be devised. I have used them in my family and recommended them to my friends and employees for more than twenty years. To my certain knowledge, many cases of the following complaints have been completely and by the use of Ayer's Pills alone: Third day chills, dumb ague, bilious fever, sick headache, rheumatism, flux, dyspepsia, constipation, and hard colic. I know that a moderate use of Ayer's Pills, continued for a few days or weeks, as the nature of the complaint required, would be found an absolute cure for the disorders I have named above."

Permanently Cured

"I have been selling medicine for eight years, and I can safely say that Ayer's Pills give better satisfaction than any other Pill I ever sold."—J. J. Perry, Spottsylvania C. H., Va.
