A. A. URQUHART. MEMORIAL SUNDAY.

A. A. Jayne of Arlington, is as worthy and as well qualified for the office to which he aspires as could be desired; he is in every respect a well equipped $1.50 lawyer; studied his profession in the city of Chicago with able lawyers and

The experience of the past has shown that this office is best filled by young men of capacity, energy and good legal training. Aside from our good legal training. Aside from our wish to see the entire republican ticket elected, we have no hesitancy in saying that the best interests of the public will be served by the election of Mr. Jayne.

Cougressman Ellis is far from being the idle and irresponsible person in congress his enemies would have the public work for Oregon, has proven himself a right on the tariff, and his financial behalf.

Breckinridge is working like a beaver to be re-elected to congress, but it hardly seems possible that he will succeed. He has been both Dr. Jekyll and Mr. Hyde, but the trans-mogrification should cease and he should die in the latter character.

THE CHURCHES.

At the Congregational church there will be morning worship at 11 a.m., with Sunday school immediately following and Y. P. S. C. E. at 6:30. No evening service. Rev. W. G. Waddle, of New Athens, O., delegate to the general assembly of the United Presbyterian church, now in session at Albany, will preach in the morning. All persons not worshipping elsewhere are cordially invited to these services.

Deafness Cannot be Cured By local applications, as they cannot reach the diseased portion of the ear. There is only one way to cure Deafness, and that is by constitutional remedies. Deafness is caused by an inflamed concity of Chicago with able lawyers and has been engaged in active practice in this state for many years. Mr. Jayne has few superiors as a public speaker; he has a quick and logical mind, and in the trial of a case brings to his work the energy and industry which many older practitioners lock. It is true that he is younger by nearly twenty years than his competitor, but lacks only four years

Tomorrow memorial services will be held in every city, village and hamlet in the land. It is the prelude to decoration day. The old boys in blue will assemble at their posts and march to church to listen again' to services held in tender remembrance of the noble dead. The unknown dead on southern battle fields, whose stiffened corpses found hurried and unceremonious burial, each year awaken in the hearts of their survivors, yet tenderer recollections. Beneath the magnolia and the cypress, cut down in the flower of youth, the pride of many a northern household sleeps, his grave unknown to those whose hearts broke when he returned pot unto them. They fell where duty called. The old man and the young; he who left both wife and little ones, the music of whose voices shall find no echo in his ears for-pulses beat with youthful force, and who all gentle under saddle. forgot the weight of years at duty's call; the youth, beardless, but brave, his mother's kiss yet fresh upon his lipsall side by side here found a resting place. Over them the flowers of southern plants their petals fling; soft zephyrs kiss the grass that waves above their graves, and from the whispering trees at night the mocking bird his varied notes pours forth. There sleep our dead. Yet there tomorrow, where but a few short years ago the rattle of musketry and boom of cannon told of deadly strife, the peaceful church bell will call to prayer, and those with whom they fought will shed for them a tear.

Thrice blessed, peaceful Sabbath day, foretaste of time yet to come, when on the other shore, no longer uniformed in blue or gray; no longer moved to discord and to strife, but robed in spotless draperies of white, hand clasped in hand, together they shall tread, with joyous feet, the glorious fields of paradise.

OPINION OF ALL WHO THE KNOW HIM.

The republicans of Wasco county are laboring earnestly with the end in view of electing every nominee on the county and legislative ticket; and the prospects that they will succeed in this undertaking are very flattering. While this is as marked in plain figures. it should be, it is well to bear in mind that the seventh judicial district elects
