FRIDAY, JUNE 1, 1894

REPUBLICAN STATE TICKET

For Congress, Second District, W. R. ELLIS, of Heppner. For Governor, W. P. LORD, of Salem.

COUNTY TICKET

For Sheriff, THOS. J. DRIVER, of Wamic. For County Clerk, A. M. KELSAY, of the Dalles.

AN OBJECT LESSON.

The Dalles realizes now as it never did before the advantages of river communication. If it were not for the D. P. & A. N. Co.'s boats we would be out of the world.

STAND TOGETHER.

Next Monday is election day and our weekly of today will be the last issue to reach our subscribers in the county before that time.

A government with a signal service bureau ought to be able to give some information to the people, but it does not do it. Now when every community along the Columbia and its tributaries are anxious to know what the weather bureau knows, information can't be had.

weather last spring, the crops last fall and the forecast for the day, are not worth what they cost.

The Dalles can stand any loss she may be called upon to suffer with greater fortitude and resignation than she could bear the destruction of the canal at the cascades.

THE MARKETS.

FRIDAY, June 1.—The market is completely paralyzed on account of the deluge, caused by the unprecedented rise of the Columbia, which has now submerged the business portion of the city.

The movement of live stock is suspended as all transportation by rail east and west is cut off.

On the Other Side.

Under the organic act of this state, and that of Washington, both states are given concurrent jurisdiction over the Columbia river to mean high water mark.

I have two little grand children who are teething this hot summer weather and are troubled with bowel complaint. I give them Chamberlain's Colic, Cholera and Diarrhoea Remedy and it acts like a charm.

Keep your eye on this proposition We will give free to every new cash subscriber to the WEEKLY CHRONICLE a year's subscription to the great New York Weekly Tribune.

When Baby was sick, we gave her Castoria. When she was a Child, she cried for Castoria. When she became Miss, she clung to Castoria. When she had Children, she gave them Castoria.

Sometime ago I was troubled with an attack of rheumatism. I used Chamberlain's Pain Balm and was completely cured. I have since advised many of my friends and customers to try the remedy and all speak highly of it.

DANGEROUS COASTING.

A Funny Incident of a Trip Down a Norway Mountain.

The Norwegian kjoelke are queer little carriages about six feet long, made for the descent of snow-clad mountains. They rarely exceed a foot in width, and are raised some eight or ten inches on runners.

As he rushed madly on, his little kjoelke, before he knew what had happened, whipped up the lady, and there she was sitting in front of him.
