TELEGRAPHIC NEWS.

There Was No Trouble.

LEXINGTON, Ky., June 11.—About 6000 strangers were here today to hear W. L. Owens and Evan Settle, the candidates for congress, in opposition to Colonel Breckinridge. They spoke in the opera house to a crowd only measured by the walls. Owens made several allusions to Colonel Breckinridge, but made no new attack. He said, however, that he stood by every word uttered in his famous Parish speech, when he attacked Breckinridge bitterly. He said if anybody took offense at what he had said he wanted that person to come to him like a man, and not sneak off behind that long-eared, long-haired, irresponsible, crazy brute, Charles C. Moore. Moore published in his prohibition paper several columns last week against Owens, and this allusion is a reflection on Breckinridge, who is said by Owens men to have furnished Moore the information. Settle and Owens spoke again tonight at the court house.

Sultan of Morocco Dead.

LONDON, June 11.—Advices received here report that the sultan of Morocco, Muley Hassan, died June 7 and that the army has proclaimed his son, Muley Abdul Aziz, his successor. The advices further say that the sultan suffered from fever for four days previous to his death, and that he died while giving orders. Some time before his death he began vomiting and continued to suffer in this manner when he expired. It is added the symptoms of his disease point to poisoning. The death occurred at Tadmira, between Morocco and Casa Blanca. Measures have been taken to prevent the anticipated disorder at Tangier. Abdul, who has been acknowledged as sultan, is collecting forces to go to Fez. Little or no opposition to his ascension to his throne is expected there.

Latest Returns Read in the Senate.

WASHINGTON, June 11.—Senator Dolph in his discussion of the tariff, took occasion to read the latest dispatch showing the results of the Oregon election, and said the people of that state had given their condemnation to the democratic and populist tariff bill. Lindsay of Kentucky inquired if the predilections of the large majority in the legislature on the senatorship were all right. Dolph replied that the senatorship in Oregon would take care of itself, and that he called attention to the Oregon election for the purpose of showing the trend of opinion in the great West.

Resuming Work.

CRIPPLE CREEK, June 11.—Ever since the deputies left the field today, the merchants have been preparing to resume business. The Summit, the Ravine, the Eclipse No. 1, and the Independence mining companies began putting men at work today, and tomorrow the Victor, the Buena Vista, the Ahaconda, the Senobia and the Anna Lee will open up, and within a week it is expected every mine in the district will be in operation. It is said some of them will find it necessary to use pumps for a time to clear out the mines.

Cripple Creek Situation.

CRIPPLE CREEK, Colo., June 11.—The deputies left here for Colorado Springs in accordance with an agreement between General Brooks and Sheriff Bowers. The militia will remain in the vicinity of the mines to preserve peace. The agreement made between General Brooks and Sheriff Bowers is not approved in all respects by Governor Waite. He wired Adjutant-General Tarsney today that troops must not be used as guards. The miners' arms will be restored to them, and not over 20 will be arrested.

Still They Go Out.

GALESBURG, Ill., June 11.—Sixty miners, employed at the Taylor Brothers' mines, at Watauga, struck today for a raise of half a cent per bushel. The mine-owners say they will not grant the request.

The Populists of Kansas.

TOPEKA, Kas., June 11.—Many delegates to the people's party state convention are here. There is much opposition to the re-nomination of the state officers. It is not certain about Governor Lewelling.

Silver Will Be Discussed.

LINCOLN, Neb., June 11.—The League of Nebraska republican clubs will convene here tomorrow. The policy of the party in the state campaign will be the issue. Silver will be a factor in the debate. Representative Grosvenor, of Ohio, will be present and address the convention.

Kidnaped Workmen Found.

UNIONTOWNS, Pa., June 11.—At noon today a posse of deputy sheriffs found the four captive workmen whose kidnaping led to the battle at Lemont yesterday. They were in the camp of strikers, near Kyle, and their release was effected without conflict.

Dufur Doings.

The weather! We hear them complain of the weather. How we are having too much rain here altogether. Maybe that webfoot is taking a change. And forced her way here, or we are deranged. Look for more on the roof before we complain. As perhaps down there they haven't missed any rain.

Flood, rain, cloudbursts, frost and election have been the general topics of the day.

Rev. Jenkins preached Sunday evening to a large crowd.

Mr. A. J. Brigham has gone to Portland to be on the U. S. grand jury, where he will be absent for several weeks.

Miss Mell Swift from Wamic is visiting her aunt, Mrs. Wm. Cantrell.

The graduating exercises of the Dufur high school came off Friday evening, June 8th, with great success. The floral decorations were the finest that Dufur has ever seen. The entire rostrum was a miniature paradise. Two large flower-stands stood on each side of the aisle, and were completely covered with house-plants that were full of bright blossoms. On the top of each stand was a large calla lily in full bloom. Wreaths, stars, crosses, anchors, baskets, huge bouquets and stands of flowers were tastefully arranged on all sides, while the beautiful stars and stripes were daintily draped and intermixed. Mrs. Kitty Johnston and Mrs. Lois Balch, who did the decorating, deserve special mention and great praise for their dainty taste and skill in arrangement.

The music was of the finest, and consisted of anthems, choruses and glees provided by the Dufur choir. Of those we would like to give special attention and who deserves unlimited praise was Miss Anna Dufur, the leading soprano. The songs were all very difficult, especially for soprano, but she carried her part beautifully and without a falter. She has a well-trained, sweet voice with large volume. She has the faculty of knowing how to control it to the benefit of her listeners. The others did their parts well, especially Daisy Dufur.

Miss Anna Frazier gave the welcome address, which was well delivered. Miss Omah Smith did well in reading her piece, "Forms and Shadows." Miss Nellie Hudson in her essay "Around the World," and Miss Hattie Strinweis in hers of "Coming and Going" did credit to themselves. Mr. Waldo Brigham delivered the valedictory with his usual clearness of voice and distinctness. Prof. Frazier then addressed the class with some very beautiful and touching remarks that will be remembered and treasured by all the class. Mr. W. H. H. Dufur gave a very nice little address, such as he well knows how to give, on the presentation of the diplomas.

The class consisted of Anna Frazier, Omah Smith, Nelly Hudson, Hattie Strinweis, Edith Peabody and Waldo Brigham, all of whom will remember that evening as a bright dream.

A CARDINAL'S SIMPLE LIFE.

Outward Pomp is But the Covering of Unostentatious Austerity.

The private life of a prince of the church is always a subject of wonder to the curious. They are astounded at its simplicity, and almost disappointed at what they would term its unromantic character. The cardinal's palace, whether its exterior be of princely appearance or not, is certainly very plain within. His apartments are not adorned with luxurious profusion, and usually contain only such articles of furniture as the demands of his work require.

I remember a visit to the rooms of the late Cardinal Simeoni, in the Propaganda palace, and was struck by the absence of everything suggesting a life of ease, writes Rev. P. A. Cunningham in Donahoe's Magazine. The three or four ante-chambers contained but a few chairs for the accommodation of those awaiting an audience. There was nothing remarkable in any one of them. The reception room itself is even more plain, a small apartment containing a long table with the usual covering of green cloth, a dozen common chairs for the use of the secretaries, a crucifix and a few pictures. The only object of absolute worth in the whole suite of apartments was the grand old man himself, simple as a child, yet holding in his hand the religious government of over twenty-five million people.

Rising at an early hour, the cardinal's first duties are immediately to God. Morning prayer, mass and meditation precede the slight breakfast of black coffee, with one or two rolls. His morning is occupied with the routine of business, and it is only in the evening that he can find the few hours of leisure for society.

In the social circle, sufficiently large at Rome, the cardinal appears most to advantage. It is then, in the brilliant play of learning and wit, that he is forced to display those charming qualities that must endow him for his high position.

The outward pomp, however, which etiquette requires of him, is but the covering of a simple, unostentatious life; and if at the end of the day he may be seen walking out upon the Pincian hill, like other people, and taking a little rest and recreation, we cannot deny that he has earned it well.

A POLICEMAN was taking a little boy to the station-house recently. The child was very small, very dirty, but not at all frightened; he carried a little red nail and a fire-shovel in his hand. "Poor little fellow!" exclaimed a lady. "His mother will miss him and find him when she wants the shovel," was the policeman's remark.

A PRIZE of $5,000 is offered by Count Orloff Davidoff for the discovery of a remedy "perfectly certain to cure or to protect horned beasts against cattle plague." The award of the prize is in the hands of the curator of the Imperial Institute of Experimental Medicine of St. Petersburg, and the competition is open to the whole world.

Rose culture is increasing in Bulgaria to such an extent that many of the peasants have abandoned grain culture to raise roses. This is brought about by the increase in the price of the perfume, attar of roses, a syndicate in Turkey having bought up the bulk of all there was in the market and then raised the price.

MANY plants are sensitive to other influences than light. Some will close their leaves on being carried in a cart. The jolting seems to disturb their equilibrium, though after a time they become apparently unconscious of and insensible to it.

Deafness Cannot be Cured

By local applications, as they cannot reach the diseased portion of the ear. There is only one way to cure Deafness, and that is by constitutional remedies. Deafness is caused by an inflamed condition of the mucous lining of the Eustachian Tube. When this tube gets inflamed you have a rumbling sound or imperfect hearing, and when it is entirely closed Deafness is the result, and unless the inflammation can be taken out and this tube restored to its normal condition, hearing will be destroyed forever; nine cases out of ten are caused by catarrh, which is nothing but an inflamed condition of the mucous surfaces.

We will give One Hundred Dollars for any case of Deafness (caused by catarrh) that cannot be cured by Hall's Catarrh Cure. Send for circular, free.

How sad to our hearts are some scenes of our childhood. As our recollections present them to view: The use of the switch that was brought from the wildwood. And various punishments most of us knew. But saddest of all is the thought of the pill box. That mother brought out then she thought we were ill. O! the griping, the aching, the twisting and torment. Wrapped up in the horrible old-fashioned pill. But that's all done away with. To regulate the stomach, liver and bowels Dr. Pierce's Pellets excel. You'll experience no pain, no discomfort, no bad results. Children take them as readily as peppermint drops.

Persons who sympathize with the afflicted will rejoice with D. E. Carr of 1235 Harrison street, Kansas City. He is an old sufferer from inflammatory rheumatism, but has not heretofore been troubled in this climate. Last winter he went up into Wisconsin, and in consequence has had another attack. "It came upon me very acute and severe," he said. "My joints swelled and became inflamed; sore to touch or almost to look at. Upon the urgent request of my mother-in-law I tried Chamberlain's Pain Balm to reduce the swelling and ease the pain, and to my agreeable surprise, it did both. I have used three fifty-cent bottles and believe it to be the finest thing for rheumatism, pains and swellings extant. For sale by Blakeley & Houghton, druggists.

The total amount of Peter's pence collected for the pope's jubilee is about $150,000. It is shortly to be presented to the pope.

Sometimes ago I was troubled with an attack of rheumatism. I used Chamberlain's Pain Balm and was completely cured. I have since advised many of my friends and customers to try the remedy and all speak highly of it. Simon Goldbaum, San Luis Rey, Cal. For sale by Blakeley & Houghton, druggists.
