JUNE JUNGLINGS.

Leaves From the Notebook of Chronicle Reporters.

Fresh bread Wednesday morning at A. Kellar's.
C. F. Stephens is moving back to his old stand today.
Sam Thurman has sold his fish wheel to the Winans Bros.
At 1:30 the vote was very light, showing 180 in the Second and 65 in the First wards.
Salmon are being sold to the cannery at 2 1/2 cents per pound. The run is excellent.
County Clerk Crossen administered the oath of office to Justice Davis this morning.
The steamer Regulator will land at the foot of Washington street until the water recedes enough to let her use the wharf.
Friendship lodge, K. of P., will hold its regular meeting this evening for the election of officers. A full attendance is desired.
The telegraph lines being down it was impossible to get any report from Portland concerning the weather or water east of us.
Deputy Sheriff Hailey arrived from Umatilla this afternoon bringing with him four prisoners on their way to the penitentiary.
A rattlesnake, the owner of twelve rattles, was found in the Baldwin opera house in cleaning it up Saturday. It was dead, drown-ded.
The Dalles City took down fifty tons of fish from Cascades Saturday. The company talk of putting on an extra boat to accommodate this trade.
As the water goes down the portage at Cascades becomes much easier, and tonight it is expected the Regulator will bring up a large amount of freight.
There was a bit of a discussion on the streets today between Jim Crate and a Mr. Alva. Words led to blows, and blows to bruises, but no serious damage was done.
The sidewalks are being cleared, but rocks will not be removed until the water goes down enough that they can be put on the grade below the D. P. & A. N. Co.'s wharf.
The river was about as rough today as it ever gets. The waves were big enough to do credit to the Pacific. With such a swell a few days ago, considerably damage would inevitably have followed.

The place where the Oregon rolled a few days ago is now dry and decidedly dusty. The strong west wind blowing today is playing the dickens with the slickens, but it is conducive to health, so we have concluded to let her blow.

At 3 o'clock the vote in the Second ward was 225, and in the First 94. Unless there is a rush just before the close of the polls, the total vote will not be more than 550. It may reach 700, but 600 will probably be nearer the mark.

Joe Riley was brought up from the Locks Saturday night, by Constable Trans, to serve out a sentence of sixty days in the county jail. He was convicted of stealing a watch, and when arrested it was rolled up in a newspaper and in his hat.

The fishermen between here and Celilo are fairly in it now, and are catching whole lots of salmon with dip nets. The Winans Bros. expect to push this branch of the business, and hope to recon their losses, besides putting some money to their credit. We hope they may for they deserve to win.

The polls opened this morning at 9 o'clock. In the First ward C. M. Fouts, J. F. Snedaker and Geo. A. Liebe are judges, H. H. Smith and E. P. Fitzgerald clerks. In the Second ward C. L. Phillips, J. L. Story and John Cates judges, I. I. Burget and C. E. Bayard clerks. There being four candidates for marshal in the field and two for recorder, their friends put some life into the election and a pretty full vote will be polled.

Real Estate Movements.

The following deeds were filed for record this morning:
James H. Hickman and wife to Martha A. Stearns, sw 1/4, nw 1/4, ne 1/4 of sec. 13, tp 1 north, r 12 east; consideration $8.
Same date, same property, I. A. Burke, trustee, to J. H. Hickman and wife; same consideration.
Same date, same property Jules E. Sabin to I. A. Burke; same consideration.
Same date, United States to R. D. Patcher, se 1/4 of sec. 26, tp 4 south, r 13 east.

A Doused Glim.

The old Wasco Sun office is the worst looking wreck left from the flood. Everything was covered with water, and is now covered with mud. The cases floated around, dumping type in all directions. The presses are rusty, the cases with type level full of mud. The rollers are melted on the presses, the stock of legal blanks soaked. Tables have lost their legs, unlocked forms their shape. It is a sea of pi—mud—pie. Unless the presses are cleaned at once they will be good for old iron only.

When Baby was sick, we gave her Castoria.
When she was a Child, she cried for Castoria.
When she became Miss, she clung to Castoria.
When she had Children, she gave them Castoria.

Great reduction in the price of granite-ware. See our center window. Prices marked in plain figures.

Pennoyer's Letter.

Canby Post, G. A. R., of Hood River, having requested Governor Pennoyer to change the date of his speaking on political questions on that day at that place. The governor sent the following characteristic reply:

"The resolution of your post was duly received and considered. Although the Savior of mankind, while on earth, allowed on the holy Sabbath the pulling of an ox or an ass out of a pit, yet your post objects to any effort on Decoration Day such as the pulling out of the pit of financial disaster the starving men, women and children of our unfortunate country. I, however, cancel my appointment at Hood River pursuant to your request.

SYLVESTER PENNOYER."

Hawthorne in Jail.

Sunday afternoon five Indian policemen from the Warm Springs Agency, arrived here, bringing young Hawthorne with them. The latter was in a hack propped up on a mattress, and two of the Indians were riding with him, the other two being on horseback. As they drove up to the jail a crowd of men and boys trotted along beside the wagon to get a good look at the young criminal. He is at present locked up in jail, being held on the charge of killing Hayes. Just what will become of him is hard to say, though it is probable the federal courts will take charge of his case in the killing of Karpolis. He is wounded in the side, a flesh wound only and will be all right in a week or so.

Of Hearts Attuned.

Marriage license was issued Saturday to William Penn Carter and Mrs. Evelyne Mills.
The parties both live near Dufur and we are told the wedding will take place next Sunday. The snows of eighty-four winters and the suns of an equal number of summers, have bleached the groom's hair, and whitened his whiskers, while the blushing bride that is to be, has experienced the joyous springtime and the dreamy autumns for sixty-six times in circumference. Yet they are not too old to love.

"Love rules the court, the camp, the grove,
And men below and saints above,
For love is heaven, and heaven is love."

Killed a Bear.

J. O. Eastman killed a large cinnamon bear at his place Friday evening last. The bear was first seen by Mr. Eastman's little boy, Roy, near the barn. Bruin was casting longing glances toward a calf staked near the barn and paid little attention to Mr. Eastman when he came with a gun, but leisurely retreated some distance towards the brush until he found an ant hill and proceeded to gather the ants. Mr. Eastman waited for him to turn his head again in the direction of the calf and then gave him a shot through the heart.—Glacier.

Boils, abscesses, tumors and even cancers, are the result of a natural effort of the system to expel the poisons which the liver and kidneys have failed to remove. Ayer's Sarsaparilla stimulates all the organs to a proper performance of their functions.

PERSONAL MENTION.

Mr. Russell Sewall of Portland spent yesterday in the city.

Messrs. Frank Rogers and E. G. Slocum, merchants of Heppner, are in the city.

Mr. Glenn, Miss Grace Glenn and Ed Williams were among the passengers on the Regulator this morning.

Dr. and Mrs. J. F. Snedaker returned yesterday from a week's visit at the Gilhousen ranch, near Deschutes.

Mrs. J. E. Barnett was a passenger on the Regulator this morning. She goes to Eugene to attend the meeting of the grand lodge of Good Templars, representing the Juvenile Temple of this place.

Mr. Jamison, superintendent of construction for the Western Union, spent Sunday here and went east this morning to look after the repairs from Arlington to Umatilla, that part of the line at present causing much trouble. The line from here to Arlington is in working order, Mr. Balfe Johnson having just returned with a crew of five men from repairing it.

BORN.

In this city, Monday, June 18th, to the wife of P. A. Johnson, a daughter.

EDGAR FAWCETT, the poet, playwright and novelist, is a bachelor forty years of age. He likes society, the theater and the opera. He is of medium height, dresses in the latest style, is English in appearance and keeps his own carriage.

SHE—"What a fitting token of married love is the wedding ring!" He—"It is. A ring has no end, and it also has no beginning. It is absolutely without variety, and much easier put on than taken off."—Harlem Life.

A WONDERFUL nugget of tin has been discovered in the mines of North Dundas, Tasmania. It is estimated to weigh 5,400 pounds. The assay of a small piece shows that the large mass of ore contains 67 per cent. of metallic tin.

COVERS for cups and glasses used in a sick room can be made of cardboard and covered with a crochet cover of either white silk, wool or cotton, as preferred, a small loop being put in the middle of the top to lift it by.

PNEUMATIC tires three and a half inches in diameter are used upon some of the jaunting cars of Dublin, Ireland.

HERCULES, from the Greek, was the glory of Hera or Juno.
