Kelly and his Army.

EVANSVILLE, Ind., June 16.-Kelley's 1,100 'wealers left here about midnight go, but refused, as it would not carry him to a city big enough to work. He iaid he intended to stay until he received $700. Today the matter was compromised by payment to Captain Douglass Jones, of the steamer Rosedale, of $700 to transport the army to Leavenworth, Ind., with the promise that for an additional $125 he would carry them to Louisville. The army had nothing to eat, and most of them left camp and went through the city begging from door to door.

How sad to our hearts are some scenes of our childhood,
As our recollections present them to view:
The use of the switch that was brought from the wildwood,
And various punishments most of us knew.
But saddest of all is the thought of the pill box,
