A DEMOCRATIC EGG.

Now bring out the old democratic Shanghai and let him crawl. Let his feathered harem cackle until the barnyard rings with the glad sound.

Let the old speckled dominick strut, and set, and set and strut. She has won a victory over stultified democracy.

Now then, gentlemen of the unconstitutional congress, make it unanimous. Wool is all there is left. Take your stiches off that, and give it a chance.

Take a tumble to yourselves, you snuff botchers. Let the McKinley bill alone. Uncouple! Jar loose! Break away! Snoo! Seat!!

HIGH-TONED COXEYITES.

Under the above caption our contemporary, the Portland Telegram, says:

"A lot of New Yorkers who have more money than they know what to do with are going to build a grand summer hotel eleven miles out at sea. It is to cost $4,000,000, and when it is completed it will be the grand summer rendezvous for the Wall-street Coxeyites who spend their time in idleness, because they live on the earnings of others.

"And yet when we come to look at it in its true light, such a misappropriation of capital at a time like the present is scarcely less of a curse than Coxeyism. If that amount of money were turned into legitimate channels what an amount of good it could do. If it could be used in starting up manufacturing, or in establishing new business enterprises, what a blessing it would be. But it is to be worse than wasted. This perversion of capital is merely Coxeyism in its holiday garb. The principle is the same. It means idleness, luxurious idleness, and the recognition of one man's right to be supported by another man's labor."

The editor certainly wrote the above article while the devil was calling for copy, and put no thought in the subject. If the building such an hotel is not a new industry, what is it? The exceedingly rich are doing the best thing for their fellowmen when they spend their money. The building of such an hotel, if practicable, would just as certainly furnish employment to labor as the starting of any other industry. It matters not through what channels wealth is distributed, so that it is distributed. People who can afford to build a $4,000,000 hotel in the middle of the ocean, and do it, may be foolish, but they are more beneficial to the country than their brethren who have the money and camp on it. The extravagances of the rich are the means by which the necessities of the poor are satisfied. Four million dollars spent in the manner indicated, for labor and material would help whole lots of people.

The democratic party is dead. It died by the hands of assassins, and those assassins were its leaders, its chosen ones, to whom was delegated the authority to carry out its doctrines. Instead of so doing they cornered their old mother in the lobbies of congress and immolated her upon the altars of their selfish interests. The corpse lies in the house of its children, but they know it not. Betrayed first; done to the death afterwards. It died at a ripe old age, and it died miserably. Gorman, Brice, Irby—trinity of infamy, imbued their hands in its blood, and are yet engaged in preaching its funeral sermon. Blessed old corpse, the embalmers art was all in vain to preserve in death its well known features, but the country may rest assured that the carcass will be kept. It is sugar cured.

Sometime the fact will be demonstrated that the country adjacent to The Dalles is the finest grape growing region in the Northwest. We have the soil, the climate and the sunshine, such as cannot be found west of the Cascades. Our vineyards should supply the country east of us just as we already supply it with small fruits. The fine vineyard set by Mr. Balfour at Lyle, will be in bearing in another year or two, and the result of that experiment will, we are sure, induce others to develop the industry. Some of the finest table grapes we ever tasted were grown near here, and besides this every condition necessary to the raising of fine grapes exists. A few years will see our hills vine-clad and the luscious clusters purpling in the sun.

Some people find fault because it takes all day to go to Portland by boat, and complain because this method of travel is no better than it was forty years ago. This latter statement is undoubtedly true. It does take all day to go to Portland, and always will do so, even when the locks are completed. However it is the best that can be done now, and is certainly preferable to going by way of the Union Pacific. Those who prefer the latter route, are at liberty to travel it.

I have two little grand children who are teething this hot summer weather and are troubled with bowel complaint. I give them Chamberlain's Colic, Cholera and Diarrhoea Remedy and it acts like a charm. I earnestly recommend it for children with bowel troubles. I was myself taken with a severe attack of bloody flux, with cramps and pains in my stomach, one-third of a bottle of this remedy cured me. Within twenty-four hours I was out of bed and doing my housework. Mrs. W. L. Dunagan, Bon-aqua, Hickman Co., Tenn. For sale by Blakeley & Houghton druggists.

It now leads all other publications in Wasco, Sherman, Gilliam, a large part of Crook, Morrow and Grant counties, as well as Klickitat and other regions north of The Dalles, hence it is the best medium for advertisers in the Inland Empire.

The DAILY CHRONICLE is published every evening in the week Sundays excepted at $6.00 per annum. The WEEKLY CHRONICLE on Fridays of each week at $1.50 per annum.

THE DALLES

Wasco County, - - - Oregon. The Gate City of the Inland Empire is situated at the head of navigation on the Middle Columbia, and is a thriving, prosperous city.

ITS TERRITORY. It is the supply city for an extensive and rich agricultural and grazing country, its trade reaching as far south as Summer Lake, a distance of over two hundred miles.

The Largest Wool Market. The rich grazing country along the eastern slope of the Cascades furnishes pasture for thousands of sheep, the wool from which finds market here.

The Dalles is the largest original wool shipping point in America, about 5,000,000 pounds being shipped last year.

ITS PRODUCTS. The salmon fisheries are the finest on the Columbia, yielding this year a revenue of thousands of dollars, which will be more than doubled in the near future.

The products of the beautiful Klickitat valley find market here, and the country south and east has this year filled the warehouses, and all available storage places to overflowing with their products.

ITS WEALTH. It is the richest city of its size on the coast and its money is scattered over and is being used to develop more farming country than is tributary to any other city in Eastern Oregon.

Its situation is unsurpassed. Its climate delightful. Its possibilities incalculable. Its resources unlimited. And on these corner stones she stands.

THE CELEBRATED COLUMBIA BREWERY, AUGUST BUCHLER, Prop'r.
