MOST ON CARNOT

The Anarchist Gloats Over Assassination.

THE BE-WHISKERED ANIMAL

Two Murderers Examined, Santon and Prendergast—the latter Condemned to Die of Old Age.

Herr Johann Most.

NEW YORK, June 26.—The anarchists of this city met last night in Faulkhaber's hall. "Socialism and Anarchism" was to have been the subject of the evening, but little else was spoken of but the exalted "bravery" of the "martyr" who assassinated Carnot. The leader of communistic anarchists in this city, Herr Johann Most, was located yesterday in a saloon on Park row, where he was eating his lunch. He said:

"What do I think of Carnot's death? Well, I think the hog should have been stuck long ago. You don't see any mourning band around my hat, do you? Well, neither would you if the whole brood of autocratic hogs were butchered, all in a heap. They ought to be given their quietus in droves of 40 and 50. Not that Carnot was any particular luminous mark to aim at. He was not exactly what one would call a despot, but the big overbearing pig scrawled his name to every document that steeped honest folks deeper and deeper into slavery. It was just right, it was glorious, to extinguish his life. The czar's time will come yet. It costs about $4,000,000 a year to hedge that hog's life around with safeguards, but with all the precautions he finds every day some such pleasant souvenir as a death's head painted on his bedcurtain, or a dagger stuck into his countenance, or a miniature bomb lying under his bed. He's the hog with the biggest grunt, and some day he'll have to go like your Carnots and your other beasts. Herr Dowe's bullet-proof coat of mail may not avail him. He'll be reached, though he sit entrenched within a tower of steel a thousand feet in thickness. As for your brood of reporters, I want to say," continued Herr Most, in a crescendo voice, as he rose from the table, having finished his meal, "you are not your own masters. I know you are the slaves of the big combines that send you hither and thither to do this and that. Today you're sent to interview anarchists, the next day a hog of a so-called statesman, and the third day you report the execution of some other murderer. But mark you, though you are slaves, I give you warning that if you do not treat us with greater fairness than you have been doing—slave or no slave—you will some day come into contact with the knife's edge, and in a way that will not please you."

Most also spoke of the manner in which weapons and dynamite ought to be used to prove most effective. He had published an editorial in the Freiheit, which was translated for a morning paper. In it he treats of the superiority of some weapons over others in dispatching rulers and the bourgeois. He gives prominence to the knife. When asked concerning the coincidence between his having advocated the use of the knife and its employment by the Italian who murdered Carnot. Most said: "You don't mean to say that my advice was so quickly acted upon?"

Calus Zimmerman, editor of the Flaming Torch, said Carnot richly deserved his fate. Continuing, he said: "He had been asked to pardon Vaillant, and he treated the committee like so many dogs. The committee wished to show that Vaillant's trial was unfair, and that he was not guilty, but Carnot showed the committee to the door, and the martyred Vaillant was executed. Carnot could have saved him with one stroke of his pen."

An Accident to Edison.
NEW YORK, June 26.—Despite the most stringent efforts to conceal the facts, the details of a somewhat serious accident to Thomas A. Edison have just come to light. Mr. Edison on Friday evening last was sitting on the porch of his boarding house at Ogden, when in some unaccountable way his chair gave way and he was thrown backward on the porch, striking himself heavily. He is rather a heavy man and it gave him a great shock. Friends at once ran to his assistance, but he picked himself up and said that he felt no pain or inconvenience. Saturday night he went home feeling sore and stiff, but thought little of the matter. On Sunday he became worse and suffered a great deal of pain. His family physician was called in, and thought but little of the matter, but prescribed for him. Yesterday Mr. Edison was worse and unable to leave the house. The physicians are puzzled. No bones are broken. It is feared that some internal injury may have been sustained.

An Offer to Settle.

PUNXSUTAWNEY, June 26.—The officials of the Rochester & Pittsburg Coal & Iron Company have offered a settlement at 40 cents net, and the Adrian miners will hold a secret meeting tonight to consider the proposition. Agent Allison says he will advise the men to accept nothing less than 45 cents. The Berwind and White companies started their mines at Anita today with fifty new men, under the protection of the coal and iron police. Trouble at these mines is looked for.

A Reign of Terror.

COLORADO SPRINGS, June 25.—A reign of terror prevails here. Rumors of contemplated raids on account of the Tarsney outrage, fill the air. The jail and public buildings are strongly guarded at night. Sheriff Bowers received a letter warning him that if he did not arrest Tarsney's assailants the town would be burned. W. H. Brooks, a Cripple Creek mineowner, who was the first to require nine hours for a day's work, has been warned that he will receive the same treatment given Tarsney.

Against Margins.

SAN FRANCISCO, June 26.—In the case of Wetmore vs. Barrett & Co., stock brokers, to recover money on a stock account, which was decided in favor of the plaintiff in the superior court and appealed to the supreme court, the latter court today affirmed the judgment of the lower court. This case relates to the legality of margin dealings in stocks, and is of such importance that the defendants may appeal to the United States supreme court to test the constitutionality of the law.

The Assassin Examined.

LYONS, June 26.—Assassin Santo, before an examining magistrate today, declared himself an anarchist. He said he acted upon his own initiative. He has not been in any conspiracy. Nevertheless it has been ascertained that when Santo stopped at Vienne and Montpelier he had several conferences with persons suspected of being in league with the anarchists. The police have already arrested three persons at Vienne believed to have been engaged in the conspiracy.

Prendergast's Hearing.

CHICAGO, June 26.—Judge Payne today rendered a decision in the Prendergast insanity hearing, which will have an important bearing on the case. In deciding a point raised by the counsel, the judge said he would instruct the jury that the defense must prove that the assassin has become insane since his last trial, otherwise the former verdict must stand, even though Prendergast was found insane at the present time.

Hondurians Fear an Invasion.

NEW YORK, June 26.—The Herald's Panama dispatch says: The correspondent at Tegucigalpa, Honduras, sends word that the officials of that country are excited, owing to a report that ex-President Vasquez is fitting out a revolutionary expedition in New Orleans and means to descend upon the north coast of the republic.

Human Hair from China.

Eight thousand pounds of human hair, valued at $1,500, appear in the trade returns of Canton, and it could be wished that it did not, says the English consul there, for as the majority comes from the heads of beggars, criminals and mad persons it is not pleasant to think of its being worn by the ladies at home, even although it goes through long processes of purification before it is made up into wigs, chignons, waterfalls, etc.

RUSSIAN Turkestan is suffering from a scarcity of food, caused, in part, by the ravages of locusts in certain districts, the unfavorable season last year, and still more by the "cotton fever" which led farmers to neglect other crops for cotton.

A. M. WILLIAMS & CO.

Persons who sympathize with the afflicted will rejoice with D. E. Carr of 1235 Harrison street, Kansas City. He is an old sufferer from inflammatory rheumatism, but has not heretofore been troubled in this climate. Last winter he went up into Wisconsin, and in consequence has had another attack. "It came upon me very acute and severe," he said. "My joints swelled and became inflamed; sore to touch or almost to look at. Upon the urgent request of my mother-in-law I tried Chamberlain's Pain Balm to reduce the swelling and ease the pain, and to my agreeable surprise, it did both. I have used three fifty-cent bottles and believe it to be the finest thing for rheumatism, pains and swellings extant. For sale by Blakeley & Houghton, druggists.

AN Oxford library has a manuscript containing the whole Bible. It is written on a piece of parchment so thin and the writing is so minute that the whole, when rolled up, is neatly packed away in the shell of a common walnut.

La Grippe.

During the prevalence of the gripe the past seasons it was a noticeable fact that those who depended upon Dr. King's New Discovery, not only had a speedy recovery, but escaped all of the troublesome after effects of the malady. This remedy seems to have a peculiar power in effecting rapid cures not only in cases of la grippe, but in all diseases of throat, chest and lungs, and has cured cases of asthma and hay fever of long standing. Try it and be convinced. It won't disappoint. Free trial bottles at Snipes & Kinerly's drug store.

Deafness Cannot be Cured

By local applications, as they cannot reach the diseased portion of the ear. There is only one way to cure Deafness, and that is by constitutional remedies. Deafness is caused by an inflamed condition of the mucous lining of the Eustachian Tube. When this tube gets inflamed you have a rumbling sound or imperfect hearing, and when it is entirely closed Deafness is the result, and unless the inflammation can be taken out and this tube restored to its normal condition, hearing will be destroyed forever; nine cases out of ten are caused by catarrh, which is nothing but an inflamed condition of the mucous surfaces. We will give One Hundred Dollars for any case of Deafness (caused by catarrh) that cannot be cured by Hall's Catarrh Cure. Send for circulars, free.

I have two little grand children who are teething this hot summer weather and are troubled with bowel complaint. I give them Chamberlain's Colic, Cholera and Diarrhoea Remedy and it acts like a charm. I earnestly recommend it for children with bowel troubles. I was myself taken with a severe attack of bloody flux, with cramps and pains in my stomach, one-third of a bottle of this remedy cured me. Within twenty-four hours I was out of bed and doing my household. Mrs. W. L. Dunagan, Bon-aqua, Hickman Co., Tenn. For sale by Blakeley & Houghton druggists.

THE CENTAUR COMPANY, 77 Murray Street, N. Y.

"It has cured others and will cure you" is true only of Ayer's Sarsaparilla. The motto suits the medicine and the medicine the motto. What better assurance could you have that a remedy will cure you, than the fact that it has cured such multitudes of others?
