

PRESIDENT OF FRANCE

Casimir-Perier Chosen on the First Ballot.

HAD A MAJORITY OVER ALL

Trial of the Assassin Will Take Place July 23--Liberal Government Sustained Trouble in Corea.

*Versailles, June 27.--Casimir-Perier was this afternoon elected president of the French republic, by the senate and chamber of deputies, sitting as a national assembly. The assembly consists of 884 members, of whom the senators number 300. The first ballot gave Casimir-Perier 451 votes, out of 853 cast, a majority of 49.

An Exciting Moment.

Versailles, June 29.--The national congress to elect a president of the French republic for the full term of seven years met at the palace today. M. Challemeil Lacour announced the death of Carnot and declared the congress open. M. Michelin, socialist, at once sprang to his feet and shouted: "I demand the suppression of the presidency of the republic." A tumultuous scene ensued the uproar being so great that the president could not make himself heard. Socialist cries of "Vive l'revolution" could be heard all over the hall. Order was finally restored and the balloting began. As the names were called the senators and deputies deposited in the ballot-box small bits of paper with the names of the candidates written thereon.

About 5 o'clock a panic occurred in the lobby, owing to the escape of gas. The leak was finally found, and the panic subsided.

Casimir-Perier awaited the result of balloting in Paris. Dupuy, however, was among the first arrivals at Versailles palace, and during the voting he strolled through the galleries Des Butte smoking a cigarette. Brisson, too, was on hand, going about among his friends. The railways between Paris and Versailles were lined with soldiers, and every measure was taken to prevent any disturbance. Much amusement was caused by the fact that M. Dupuy had no ballots printed, while the other candidates had them plentifully distributed.

Trial of the Assassin.

LYONS, June 27.--The trial of Clasaro Santo, the assassin of President Carnot, is to take place July 23.

THE PROLONGED FARCE.

Prendergast on the Stand in Judge Payne's Court.

CHICAGO, June 27.--Assassin Prendergast was a witness in his own behalf in Judge Payne's court, where his sanity is being tested. His replies were intelligently given for a few minutes, until he suddenly decided not to submit to further questioning. The court told him that he would continue to examine him whether he replied or not. Some replies were made, while he avoided others. The examination then drifted toward the assassination of Harrison, particularly as to whether the murder was premeditated and whether the prisoners had been advised by others in the matter. Throughout the ordeal Prendergast appeared silent and childish, occasionally smiling cheerfully and speaking without any restraint, and again relaxing into a cross and reticent mood.

A Boy's Brains Blown Out.

Shortly after 6 o'clock last evening the two sons aged 12 and 5 years respectively, of P. K. Smith, of McMinnville, were playing in the kitchen of the family at that place, when the larger of the boys pointed a shotgun at the smaller and pulled the trigger. The shell blew off almost the entire head of the little fellow, and other fragments of the face remaining. Death was instantaneous.

Various and conflicting stories are told, one being that the two boys had quarreled and the larger had shot the little one in a fit of anger; another that the boys were playing with the gun and it was accidentally discharged. They were alone at the time, and immediately after the shooting the larger boy ran away from his home, and when found was too badly frightened to give an intelligent account of the most fearful shooting affair. Mrs. Smith, the mother of the boys, who is an invalid, was in the house when the shooting occurred, but was not in the same room with the boys. The family came to McMinnville from Dakota about a month ago, and Smith established a broom factory in McMinnville. The parents are perfectly prostrated with grief over the dreadful tragedy.

Later advices from McMinnville state that the boys were playing that one was a horsethief, and the older boy pointed the gun at the younger, not knowing it was loaded. It is also stated their invalid mother was in the room with them and that her clothes were covered with blood and brains from the boy's head.

The Salmon Run Increasing.

ASTORIA, June 27.--Cannerymen are pretty well satisfied with the way salmon have been coming in during the past few days, and nearly all are confident that the pack will not be much more than 50,000 below last year's figures. The traps have been securing large quantities of bluebacks and steelheads, in spite of the fact that the water is still muddy. Usually the gillnets alone are successful until the freshest season has passed, and for this reason it is believed these varieties of fish are running in a manner which is phenomenal. Few, if any, of the fishermen use nets with meshes sufficiently small to capture a fish weighing less than 15 pounds. It is therefore to be expected that the seines and wheels will make large hauls from this time on.

The Great Boycott.

CHICAGO, June 27.--The employees of the Chicago Great Western railway went out tonight, making a total of 11 Chicago roads now tied up and crippled by the American railway union boycott of Pullman cars. The roads so far affected by the strike at this point are: The Illinois Central, Atchison & Topeka, Chicago & Northern Pacific, West Indiana, Wisconsin Central, Chicago & Northern Pacific, West Indiana, Wisconsin, Wabash, Grand Trunk, Monon, and the Baltimore & Ohio. The American Railway Union men say they have the sympathy of other railroad employees.

The Oregon Navigation.

OMAHA, June 27.--It is definitely understood that the separation of the Oregon Railway & Navigation from the Union Pacific by the appointment of a receiver is merely nominal, and that the traffic agreement will be so close as to practically exclude other lines from accruing benefits. In this way it develops that it is really to the advantage of the Union Pacific that the dividend was secured, and in fact local railway circles agree that the receivership of the Oregon company was really arranged by those interested in the overland route and consequently anxious to avoid expense of repairing the recent flood damage to the Oregon property.

Japanese Not White Persons.

Boston, Mass. June 27.--Judge Colt, of the United States circuit court, today, in the case of Shebaito Saito, the Japanese who made application to become a citizen of the United States, decided against the petition. The judge finds that like the Chinese the Japanese do not come within the term of "white persons" represented in the naturalization laws of the United States. This is the first case of the kind ever brought before a United States court.

Persons who sympathize with the afflicted will rejoice with D. E. Carr of 1235 Harrison street, Kansas City. He is an old sufferer from inflammatory rheumatism, but has not heretofore been troubled in this climate. Last winter he went up into Wisconsin, and in consequence has had another attack.

"It came upon me very acute and severe," he said. "My joints swelled and became inflamed; sore to touch or almost to look at. Upon the urgent request of my mother-in-law I tried Chamberlain's Pain Balm to reduce the swelling and ease the pain, and to my agreeable surprise, it did both. I have used three fifty-cent bottles and believe it to be the finest thing for rheumatism, pains and swellings extant." For sale by Blakeley & Houghton, druggists.

La Grippe.

During the prevalence of the grippe the past seasons it was a noticeable fact that those who depended upon Dr. King's New Discovery, not only had a speedy recovery, but escaped all of the troublesome after effects of the malady. This remedy seems to have a peculiar power in effecting rapid cures not only in cases of la grippe, but in all diseases of throat, chest and lungs, and has cured cases of asthma and hay fever of long standing. Try it and be convinced. It won't disappoint. Free trial bottles at Snipes & Kinersly's drug store.

Deafness Cannot be Cured

By local applications, as they cannot reach the diseased portion of the ear. There is only one way to cure Deafness, and that is by constitutional remedies. Deafness is caused by an inflamed condition of the mucous lining of the Eustachian Tube. When this tube gets inflamed you have a rumbling sound or imperfect hearing, and when it is entirely closed Deafness is the result, and unless the inflammation can be taken out and this tube restored to its normal condition, hearing will be destroyed forever; nine cases out of ten are caused by catarrh, which is nothing but an inflamed condition of the mucous surfaces.

We will give One Hundred Dollars for any case of Deafness (caused by catarrh) that cannot be cured by Hall's Catarrh Cure. Send for circulars, free.
