JULY JINGLINGS.

Leaves From the Notebook of Chronicle Reporters.

The Irma is expected here tonight to take down the eastern mail. Elder J. W. Jenkins will preach at Enderby Sunday, July 15th, at 11 a. m. and 4 p. m.

W. S. Geary, piano tuner, will be in The Dalles, July 12th. Leave orders for work at either music store.

All the blacksmith and wagon shops are crowded with work, repairing wagons and harvesting machinery.

The Wasco warehouse, though filled to overflowing, expects to receive from half a million to a million pounds of wool yet this season.

The O. R. & N. is evidently confident of getting its trains through all right, for it gives notice today that it will receive freight for all points east.

At the meeting last night John Blaser was nominated for chief of the fire department and Mat Shoren assistant. Election, first Monday in August.

License to wed was issued some time ago to Thomas W. Badder and Mrs. Matilda Johnson. The wedding will take place at Cascade Locks next Sunday.

Beginning tomorrow morning the express company will have a daily service by boat between this place and Portland, having a regular messenger on each boat.

Circuit court adjourned for the term yesterday afternoon. The argument for a certificate of probable cause in the Maloney case was heard in chambers and a stay of execution granted.

A letter from Prineville to Mr. Lord, received last night, contained a telegram to be forwarded to Mrs. Helen Logan at Union announcing the death of her husband, Thomas Logan, at Prineville on the 10th. Mr. Logan was a prominent stockman of Crook county, having resided near Prineville for a number of years.

The time checks for some of those who quit working on the road above here recently, arrived last night and are being cashed today by French & Co. We are told the balance of the checks will arrive tonight. We hope this is correct. The men are uneasy, want their money, and to get to work in the harvest fields. Mr. Seufert hired a number of them yesterday. It is probable the turning over the property to Receiver McNeil and the attendant confusion is what has caused the delay in payment.

The Juvenile Temple picnic came off today at the Academy grounds. About 10 o'clock about forty little folks, mostly girls, marched up Second to Pease & Mays' corner, following a handsome banner, and thence across the street and back to Washington and on up to the grounds. The little ladies looked as sweet and happy as so many fairies, as did the little lads who accompanied them. The fishing pole and bathing pools of Mill creek accounted for the small number of boys in sight.

The Latest News.

From all sources the following news items have been obtained today:

The Great Northern and O. R. & N. have about completed a traffic arrangement, so that the Great Northern will find an outlet in Portland and the O. R. & N. a through connection with the East over the Great Northern. If completed the arrangement will cover both freight and passenger traffic. The connection would be made at Spokane.

Judge Taft of Cincinnati has issued another injunction against Debs and a whole lot of others, enjoining them from doing almost any and everything.

The big strike at Cleveland collapsed today.

The national labor organizations, represented in the conference being held at Chicago today, include almost every order and represents over 650,000 men. The discussion is thorough and it is believed no decision can or will be reached before tomorrow. Gompers presides over the meeting, and though requested to order general strike refused to do so.

At Sacramento this morning four strikers were arrested by soldiers for refusing to move on when ordered. It was rumored that one of them confessed and implicated a number of others in the wrecking of the train yesterday, but this rumor is not credited.

Debs will have to appear before the conference of the federated trades at Chicago tonight.

It is stated in Chicago that the Knights of Labor do not look with favor on the proposed strike.

Nearly 1000 men went out at the stock yards at Chicago today, but there were plenty of men to take the places as fast as they become vacant.

Harry Knox, leader of the strikers at Hammond, cannot be found, and is supposed to have skipped.

Sacramento became quiet at once when soldiers arrived last night. This morning a company of troops were ordered out, supposed to be returning to Oakland. Instead they went to American river bridge and took a train for Redding.

Those Mail Matters.

The mail facilities are not so good as they should be, though somewhat better than they were. The trip from the Locks to The Dalles daily is too much for the little Irma, and the mails coming from the East are too much for the wagons hauling the mail to meet the Irma at Hood River. There are about two tons of matter, principally newspapers, lying in the office here awaiting shipment. Special Agent Vaile says $50 a day is too much for the service, but we are informed that it costs that much now. Will Mr. Vaile just please come down from the cold regions of his high position and tell the department how much he is saving for it, and how much he is discommoding this people by doing so.

STATE OF OREGON,) ss. County of Wasco

I, A. M. Kelsay, county clerk of Wasco county, state of Oregon, do hereby certify that the above and foregoing is a full and complete statement of the claims presented and action taken thereon by the county court of Wasco county, Oregon, sitting for the transaction of county business at the July term, 1894, thereof, save and except all claims, the salary or fees of which are provided for by statute.

Witness my hand and seal of the county court, affixed this 12th day of July, 1894.
(Seal) A. M. KELSAY, County Clerk.
By E. MARTIN, Deputy.

Mosier Musings.

Fourth of July was duly observed in this locality by public exercises in the grove near the cold spring, where seats were arranged beneath a leafy bower. Mr. Stark was made chairman, who opened with prayer. The declaration was read in firm voice by Carroll, one of our accomplished teachers. An oration of thirty minutes length was delivered by Hon. Thos. Harlan, which was of great interest, being instructive, patriotic and touching. Mr. Carroll followed with a recitation, or rather a medley of popular recitations, which at once established him as an elocutionist of great merit and afforded much amusement. Music and a benediction completed the program. The afternoon was devoted to the usual sports, and an outdoor platform dance, lit by the stars and reinforced by one or two lanterns, extended the 4th of July until late into the morning of the 5th.

Mr. J. H. Mosier, one of the very oldest of the pioneers and settlers of Wasco county, has been very ill at his residence. His daughters were summoned from Hood River and Walla Walla to be present at his bedside. His wonderful pluck and endurance, aided by a powerful constitution and the careful attention of his family, enabled him to pull through. He is now about attending to his duties, but is yet far from being well.

Andy Prather and Andy Thompson, two well-known citizens, who have always borne a good reputation in this locality, are now refugees, and we understand a warrant has been issued for their arrest for larceny or attempted larceny from a train of cars standing near Mosier station. Considerable sympathy is manifested for the wives of these men, upon whom the burden of the crime chiefly falls. But the men themselves are not to be classed with criminals by nature and habit. One of them is so affected with palsy as to be almost incapacitated from labor, and both were suffering from the necessities of life. While this is no excuse for theft, it furnishes mitigating circumstances. They chose to steal rather than beg.

Justice of the Peace Thos. Harlan was sworn in on the 5th, and is now his honor. The oath of office was administered by the retiring justice, Louis Davenport.

Mr. John Miler has recently lost an infant child, who choked or strangled to death.

A crew of eighteen bridge carpenters are busily engaged at this point repairing the bridges adjacent to Mosier. A force of pile drivers also came Tuesday.

A Cowardly Attack.

A private telegram last night was to the effect that the strikers at Sacramento had barricaded the railroad track over which U. S. troops were being sent to that city. They then went down the track a couple of hundred yards, and as the train ran by shot the engineer. The train was ditched and the strikers attacked the soldiers as they crawled out of the wreck. Six soldiers were killed, and their comrades rallying opened fire on the strikers with what result is not definitely known, but six or seven of the latter are reported killed.

Special reductions.—Men's cotton flannel undershirts at 25 cents each, Friday and Saturday at A. M. Williams & Co.
