TEMPORIZING GOVERNOR.

Governor Markham of California has at last got back to his capital. It will be observed that he found a way of getting there, just as soon as the United States troops had taken possession. His first act should be to protest against the usurpation of authority, and like Altgeld, demand the removal of the troops. As a matter of fact it matters little where such a governor happens to be under such circumstances as exist in in Sacramento as he was in Los Angeles. The dispatches naively state that he is the Southern Pacific to arbitrate their differences. Now in the first place we men who ditched the train near Sacramento are simply the cream of the toughs

that perennially haunt that very tough town between sessions of the legislature, when their talents are not eclipsed. If that closs are lovers and admirers of the governor, so much the worse for him and the community. If California's chief executive has any sense of decency he will hold no truck with the men who ditched that train. When the offenders submit to the law and lay down their arms, then and there only can he afford to listen to any propositions from them. Representing the state he cannot parley or arbitrate with those in armed rebellion against it. Let him enforce the law first and then if labor has a grievance it will be eminetly proper for him to do what he can to see that every man in the state is given justice. If he intends following any other course, the sooner he takes himself aboard the steamer and away from the capital the better.

A HEFTY QUAKE.

Professor Falb recently prophesied a series of severe earthquakes, which were to take place between July 3d and August 31st. His prophesy seems in a fair way of fulfillment. Constantinople has had a severe shaking up, and according to the same prophet, within the next forty-five days this country is to have a convulsion the like whereof has not been known since the fair continent cording to the professor, Florida is to disappear and California is to be left an island. This would mean the sinking of This would mean the sinking of Nevada and Arizona and the breaking through the Cascades of a big gap to be filled by the Pacific.

Should matters continue as they are now in our neighbor to the south, and Markham remain governor, the shake can't come too quick.

Congress discovered Thursday that Chills and fever, congestive chills, can be prevented or cured by the use of Pellers."

And of stances he ceased to be fearful: For a boon friend said "Well let's try Pierce's Pellers."

And with good livers both are now cheenful. "commerce has been and now is interauthority of congress," and have resolved that the committee on interstate commerce at once proceed to find out and report who interfered, interrupted, etc. Congress is a large and august lets people know it with a whereas and a resolution, but seldom a wherefore. Whereas it is, therefore it is resolved. If the blamed thing would only strike, ditions somewhat more cheerful.

The Oregonian arrives on the Regulator now with becoming regularity and is properly appreciated. The way everybody goes for it reminds one of the sudden and vivacious attack by the denizens of Trout lake, when a brown hackle disturbs the pellucid bosom of that mountain gem in the early summer. We may not some of us like the Oregonfan, but all the same we must have it, no matter how high it comes. Under it needs the attention of a barber.

Judge Grosscup says, in speaking of the grand jury he has impaneled to indict all those who have interfered with the mails, that "it will widen the scope of its inquiry so as to include all persons who may have interfered with or obstructed interstate commerce or the United States mails in any way or by any means." There is only one man in Warehouse. Oregon liable to suffer, and as he is a government employe, will wager a year's subscription against a last year's birds nest that he isn't disturbed.

A steamer collided with the United States cruiser Chicago at Antwerp, Wednesday, both vessels were damaged. The country may well take heart of grice from this, notwithstanding the imperfect plates furnished by Carnegie for our war vessels. This is the only collision one of our war vessels has had, within the last twenty years, with anything bigger than a canoe, that it was not sunk in consequence.

Prendergast's attorneys applied to U. S. Judge Grosscup for a writ of habeas corpus Wednesday. The judge replied that he had too much business on his hands to go monkeying with the refined niceties of theories concerning insanity, and advised them to seek elsewhere. His attorneys then commenced telegraphing to other United States judges. If they did nothing in the matter, Prendergast is now as dead as Coxey or the

A Racking Cough

Cured by Ayer's Cherry Pectoral. Mrs. P. D. HALL, 217 Genessee St., Lockport, N. Y., says:

"Over thirty years ago, I remember hearing my father describe the wonderful curative effects of Ayer's Cherry Pectoral. During a recent attack of La Grippe, which assumed the form of a catarrh, soreness of the lungs, accompanied by an aggravating cough, I used various remedies and prescriptions. While some of these medicines partially alleviated the coughing during the day, none of them afforded me any relief from that spasmodic action of the lungs which would seize me the moment I attempted to lie down at night. After ten or twelve such nights, I was

and had about decided to sit up all night in my easy chair, and procure what sleep I could in that way. It then occurred to me that I had a bottle of Ayer's Cherry Pectoral. I took a spoonful of this preparation in a little water, and was able to lie down without coughing. In a few moments, I fell asleep, and awoke in the morning greatly refreshed and feeling much better. I took a tenspoonful of the Pectoral every night for a week, then gradually decreased the dose, and in two weeks my cough was cured."
