JULY JINGLINGS.

Leaves From the Notebook of Chronicle Reporters.

The salmon run is not so heavy as it was; but reports from the lower river say another eclipsing the recent one is coming.

Chrisman & Corson have developed an unusual amount of patriotism, the white horse in their delivery wagon wearing a summer suit made of blue and red twine.

A couple of brakemen had a fight last night near the Regulator office and thumped one another pretty soundly. The fight occurred over one of them calling another a scab.

Under the new time card the train for Celilo last night left shortly after the arrival of the Regulator. The train due here last night at 5 o'clock did not arrive until 8:15 this morning.

From present indications we judge it will be fully a month yet before trains are running from Portland to this point. There is an immense amount of work between here and the Locks.

We are requested to announce that Elder P. P. Underwood will preach at Enderby July 22d at 11 o'clock a. m. and 4 p. m., and Monday evening at 8. Elder Jenkins will preach Tuesday evening at 8 and continue services each evening of the week.

The little steamer Irma came up this morning bringing about three tons of paper mail for points east. As the Regulator will carry the mail hereafter, the Irma will be employed in towing piling and other work in connection with the repairs of the O. R. & N.

John Smith was the only drunk up before the recorder yesterday. He acknowledged that he had imbibed too freely, paid $10 and went his way. This morning there were three candidates for examination, John Doe charged with indecent exposure, fined $5. John Doe and John Doe No. 2, both drunk, fined $5 each.

The Wasco warehouse finally became filled upstairs and down as well as all its porches and sheds. To make room, yesterday the Wingate building was rented and as fast as the baler can put the wool in shape it will be hauled there for storage. As a stream of wool keeps pouring in it is impossible to get much space cleared, but like the India rubber omnibus, there is always room for more.

THE CHRONICLE prints all the news.

UTAH TO BE ADMITTED

MULKY AND BRANNON SMUGGLERS, SENT TO JAIL.

John C. Arnold of Pendleton Nominated as Oregon's Surveyor General--The Strike Situation.

C. J. Mulkey was yesterday sentenced by Judge Bellinger to one year's imprisonment in the Multnomah county jail and to pay a fine of $5,000. P. J. Brannon, another conspirator was sentenced to six months in the county jail. C. J. Mulkey it will be remembered was special agent of the treasury department, and was convicted last December of smuggling Chinese into this country.

Two hundred sticks of giant powder exploded in a mine in Pennsylvania yesterday, killing nine miners.

Debs and the other A. R. U. men, arrested in Chicago for contempt of court in connection with the strike, refused to give bail and have been sent to jail.

No freight trains are moving from Oakland.

The strike in the Chicago packing houses is over, they all running with full crews.

President Cleveland signed the bill admitting Utah yesterday.

John C. Arnold of Pendleton was yesterday nominated surveyor general of Oregon by President Cleveland.

Colonel Graham has sent sixty regulars to Dunsmuir in Northern California, on account of the ugly condition of affairs there.

The Southern Pacific is having considerable difficulty in getting trains out of Sacramento, owing to the non-union men being afraid of the strikers. The same fear caused many who had returned to work in the shops to remain away yesterday.

Trains are moving in Chicago almost as freely as before the strike.

The first through train of the Northern Pacific to arrive in St. Paul from Portland in the past eighteen days reached that place yesterday. The train left Portland June 25th, and was twenty-two days on the road.

To Incorporate.

Hood River is agitating the matter of incorporation. Under the law of 1893 this can be accomplished through the county court. The statute provides that any portion of the county containing a population of 150 may by a petition to the county court, signed by forty residents of the place desiring incorporation which petition must be published three weeks in some paper within the boundaries of said place, ask for said incorporation. The petition must show the number of inhabitants, boundaries, etc. In the meanwhile an election must be held for city officers, and the vote will be canvassed at the same time. The granting of the incorporation takes effect at once, the officers being already elected.

WASHINGTON LETTER.

From our regular correspondent.

WASHINGTON, July 13, 1894.

The senate settled two things very decisively this week. With only one dissenting voice—Peffer's—it adopted Senator Daniel's resolution, endorsing the acts of Mr. Cleveland and his administration to preserve law and order and pledging the support of all branches of the government to a maintenance of the same policy. That settled the fate of anarchy in this country. By a vote of 35 to 11 the senate refused to attach an amendment to the Daniel resolution declaring in favor of arbitration of labor disputes. That made it certain that the George bill to withdraw the protection of the U. S. courts from such railway corporations as shall refuse to arbitrate when asked to do so by their employees, which is being lobbied for by three members of the K. of L. executive committee, cannot be passed at present. This does not mean that the senate does not favor arbitration, as everybody knows that it does, but that it does not propose to allow itself to be used by a lot of labor leaders to climb out of the unpleasant hole in which they find themselves. It is regarded as sufficient for the present to show the country that congress is behind Mr. Cleveland and determined that the U. S. mails shall be regularly forwarded and that the authority of the government as expressed by its judicial officers shall be respected, at all hazards. This whole strike business will probably be investigated—a resolution providing for an investigation is already before the house—and further legislation dealing with the subject, if any be needed, will probably be postponed until that investigation has been made.

Every New York republican who comes to Washington agrees in saying that the state will certainly go republican this year. Here's the opinion of a prominent New York democrat, Gen. McMahon: "It's an up-hill fight for the democrats in New York. The delay in passing a tariff bill has done much harm and the income tax still more. The latter will work incalculable injury to the democracy of New York, and if the state is lost, it will be the chief factor in our defeat. It looks as though the republicans were going to nominate Hon. Levi P. Morton for governor. He is probably their most available man; but in the event of his declining the nomination, there is a good prospect of its going to Gen. Anson G. McCook."

"The house, notwithstanding the bold stand and loud talking of its free trade democrats, is going to surrender in the end to the senate." So said a democratic senator to a republican friend. Things are certainly pointing that way and the belief is becoming more general every day that whether it takes the conference one week, two weeks or three weeks to reach an agreement on the tariff bill that agreement will leave the bill substantially as it was amended by the senate. The boldest free traders of the house are showing by their private talk their expectation of defeat. Senator Gorman is reported to have said curtly to one of the democratic conferees on the part of the house: "You can take your choice, the senate bill without modification of its important amendments, or no tariff bill at all. The McKinley law can get more votes in the senate than the Wilson bill."

It remained for the democrats to make the deliberations of a conference committee partisan. Never before have the representatives of the minority party in congress been ignored in holding meetings of a conference committee, until it was done by the democrats on the conference committee now engaged in trying to reconcile the tariff differences between the democrats of the house and those of the senate. The republican conferees are not pleased with the manner in which the democrats have acted, but they have not decided to resent it, although they have it in their power to do so in a way that would be decidedly embarrassing to the democrats. One of the reasons why the republicans have been shut out of the conferences is said to be that negotiations are on foot whereby the sugar trust, the standard oil trust and kindred trusts propose to furnish the democratic party with a big campaign fund for use in the congressional campaign, in exchange for tariff favors, and the democrats desired to have the matter disposed of before the republicans are allowed to take part in the conference.

The attempt of the leaders of the labor organizations to have Attorney General Olney impeached is not taken seriously in Washington, notwithstanding the presence of the men who claim to see their way clear to impeachment.

CAS.

A Re-acting Bonus.

An interesting decree was rendered by Judge Bradshaw yesterday in the case of John Barger vs. O. D. Taylor. The history of the case is briefly as follows: Some time ago C. W. Dietzel, through his agent Mr. Rowland, loaned to O. D. Taylor $950, charging him besides the legal interest, $50 bonus, and taking security by mortgage on certain real property in Wasco county. Subsequently the note and mortgage were assigned to John Barger. Upon failure to pay interest on the note becoming due, and being unpaid, Barger commenced proceedings to foreclose the mortgage. Answering plaintiff's complaint defendant set up the defense of usury, in that plaintiff had charged more than the legal interest. Judge Bradshaw finds the matter of the complaint true, there being no dispute about the money being loaned, but also finds that charging a bonus was in effect the same as interest, and that the charge of usury was sustained. The court therefore decreed that the property be sold according to law, and that out of the proceeds of the sale the costs and expenses be paid, and that the sum of $950, the amount of the original loan, be paid to the state of Oregon.

"Be sure you get Ayer's" is an important caution to all in search of a thoroughly reliable blood-purifier, Ayer's Sarsaparilla being the one on which there can be no manner of doubt. It has stood the test of nearly half a century, and has long been considered the standard.
