

A LONG PROCESSION of diseases start from a torpid liver and impure blood. Dr. Pierce's Golden Medical Discovery cures every one of them. It prevents them, too. Take it, as you ought, when you feel the first symptoms (languor, loss of appetite, dullness, depression) and you'll save yourself from something serious.

In building up needed flesh and strength, and to purify and enrich the blood, nothing can equal the "Discovery." It invigorates the liver and kidneys, promotes all the bodily functions, and brings back health and vigor. For Dyspepsia, "Liver Complaint," Biliousness, and all Scrofulous, Skin and Scalp Diseases, it is the only remedy that's guaranteed to benefit or cure, or the money is refunded.

A RINGING NOISE in the ears, headache, deafness, eyes weak; obstruction of nose, discharges falling into throat—are symptoms of Catarrh. There's a medicine that will cure you, no matter how bad your case or of how long standing. That's Dr. Sage's Catarrh Remedy.

VALUABLE OPALS, worth from $5 to $10 per carat, have been found in Owyhee county, Idaho.

Last June, Dick Crawford brought his twelve months old child, suffering from infantile diarrhoea, to me. It had been weaned at four months old and being sickly everything ran through it like water through a sieve. I gave it the usual treatment in such cases, but without benefit. The child kept growing thinner until it weighed but little more than when born, or perhaps ten pounds. I then started the father to giving Chamberlain's Colic, Cholera and Diarrhoea Remedy. Before one bottle of the 25 cent size had been used, a marked improvement was seen and its continued use cured the child. Its weakness and puny constitution disappeared and its father and myself believe the child's life was saved by this remedy. J. T. MARLOW, M. The skin of the cactus is air-tight, a marvelous provision of nature to enable these plants to live in a soil where moisture is scarce and under a sun that would speedily dry up.

Deafness Cannot be Cured
By local applications, as they cannot reach the diseased portion of the ear. There is only one way to cure Deafness, and that is by constitutional remedies. Deafness is caused by an inflamed condition of the mucous lining of the Eustachian Tube. When this tube gets inflamed you have a rumbling sound or imperfect hearing, and when it is entirely closed Deafness is the result, and unless the inflammation can be taken out and this tube restored to its normal condition, hearing will be destroyed forever; nine cases out of ten are caused by catarrh, which is nothing but an inflamed condition of the mucous surfaces. We will give One Hundred Dollars for any case of Deafness caused by catarrh that cannot be cured by Hall's Catarrh Cure. Send for circulars, free. F. J. CHENEY & Co., Toledo, O. When Jack calls on Miss Eleanor, He always brings her plenty Of flowers and chocolate bouquets, which Most charm the maid of twenty.

And though Sir Jack has skinny arms, And legs as thin as phossoms, How could one blame Miss Eleanor, Who much admires his presents.

No woman has any real admiration for a man's presence unless the man has a good physique—legs and arms well filled out. You can't be "well-looking" if you suffer from any of the diseases caused by a disordered liver or impure blood—dyspepsia, biliousness and scrofulous affections. Dr. Pierce's Golden Medical Discovery is a medicine that cures these cases. It's the only remedy that's guaranteed to benefit or cure, in every case, or the money refunded. Medical science stamps it "absolutely potent" as a blood-cleanser, strength restorer and flesh builder.

SUPERSTITIOUS POSTALCLERKS

Mall Sacks That Have Been in an Accident Are Sought After.

A group of railway postal clerks, just in from a run, stood in the transfer office at the Pennsylvania station the other morning, waiting for the cable car to start up in order to get home, says the Washington News.

"Tell you, felt a bit scary on this trip," observed one of the men as he knocked the ashes from his pipe and glanced at the clock.

"What was the matter? Inspector on the car?" asked one. "Flat wheel?" queried another.

"Worse than that. Forgot my red. Left it in the office. First time for six months."

"Where did you get yours?" asked the tall man with the sandy beard.

"I've had it a long time. Cub gave it to me, and he got it from the 'Fat Nancy' wreck," was the reply.

Just then the whirl of the cable became audible in the clear morning air, and the mail slingers made a run for the avenue.

"What's a red?" was asked of a clerk who was still lingering in the room.

For reply he opened his valise and drew out a dingy red mail sack. It was a plain canvas pouch, such as is used for mail matter of the lower classes, and, save for the color, did not differ from any one of the 100,000 or so that the government owns.

"Once in awhile we have a little smashup, you know," he said, "and occasionally some of the boys get hurt, or worse. Our cars are pretty dangerous places in the event of an accident, and, if there is any damage, why, it's usually felt most in the mail or express car. It isn't often that they are serious, but now and then one of the boys gets smashed, and then there is naturally some blood around, and it gets on the mail sacks. In the old days the government very considerably used to put such sacks out of use, for you can't get the stain out. Then some genius conceived the notion of dyeing them red, but that only served to mark them.

"Every business has its superstitions," he continued, "and I guess we are no exception, for some of us have an idea that it is lucky to have a red in the car. I don't know why. I'm sure, unless it is on the principle that the same sack will not be in two bad accidents. So when one comes our way we freeze onto it, and try to keep it handy.

"Of course," he continued, rather shamefacedly, "it seems like a queer kind of feeling to have a reminder of that sort around, but it's all in the way you look at it, and there are lots of things just as foolish other people do."

THERE IS A DIFFERENCE.
A Sportsman, Sporting Man, and a Sport Not the Same Thing.

There were a knot of men standing on a street corner, says the Washington Post. One of them had just finished relating some experiences of a hunting excursion which he had taken the day previous down the river.

"So you're a sporting man, are you, Jack? I never knew that before, really," said one of his companions.

"No, sir," said the first speaker, "I am not a sporting man; I am a sportsman, but I am neither a sporting man nor a sport."

"Indeed! And where, pray, is the difference?"

"The difference? Why, great Scott, man, there is as much distinction between a sportsman, and a sporting man, and a sport as there is between a doctor, a cannibal, and a thief!" The speaker glared at the others, but the first man still looked blank.

"Pray define it then," he said after a pause.

"To be sure. It's something that everybody ought to know, but unfortunately lots of folks never take the trouble to learn those things. A sportsman is a man who loves sport in its truest sense. At least I so consider it. He is a man who enjoys hunting, fishing, camping out, and is commonly fond of other athletic amusements in the way of boating, swimming, and the like. He is, pardon my opinion, apt to be a man of gentlemanly instincts and brains. A sporting man is an entirely different sort of a fellow. He is one who takes an interest in sports of different sorts, although he may not engage in any of them at all. He probably plays the races, drinks hard, takes in all the prize fights, and spends most of his evenings, when there is nothing else on hand, playing cards and whooping things up. But a sport is on a still lower scale. He is a fellow who thinks he's big potatoes when he's really nothing but a runt. He need not know anything about sports or engage in them either. His reputation will be won chiefly by his loud dress, his flirtations with the girls, his hanging around saloons, and his general worthlessness. No, sir; there are a good many persons who are proud to be called sporting men or sports, but to call a true sportsman by such a term is little short of an insult."

An Odorless Region.
"In that country once known as the 'Great American Desert,' embracing a portion of Texas and Arizona, there are no odors," said a citizen of Dallas to a Cincinnati Enquirer reporter. "There luscious grapes and many other fruits grow, especially near the cross timber country, but there is no perfume; wild flowers have no smell, and carcasses of dead animals, which in dry seasons are very plentiful, emit no odor. It was always supposed to be a treeless plain, upon which no plant could grow or breathing thing could live, but a large part of it is now successfully cultivated, and but for the rarity of the atmosphere, causing the peculiarity I have named, and the mirages, which are even more perfect than in the Desert of Sahara, no one would look upon it as a barren country now. Another singular feature common to the desert land is that objects at a great distance appear greatly magnified. A few scraggy mesquite bushes will look like a noble forest; stakes driven into the ground will seem like telegraph poles."

THE DALLES
Wasco County, Oregon.

The Gate City of the Inland Empire is situated at the head of navigation on the Middle Columbia, and is a thriving, prosperous city.

ITS TERRITORY.
It is the supply city for an extensive and rich agricultural and grazing country, its trade reaching as far south as Summer Lake, a distance of over two hundred miles.

The Largest Wool Market.
The rich grazing country along the eastern slope of the Cascades furnishes pasture for thousands of sheep, the wool from which finds market here.

The Dalles is the largest original wool shipping point in America, about 5,000,000 pounds being shipped last year.

ITS PRODUCTS.
The salmon fisheries are the finest on the Columbia, yielding this year a revenue of thousands of dollars, which will be more than doubled in the near future.

The products of the beautiful Klickitat valley find market here, and the country south and east has this year filled the warehouses, and all available storage places to overflowing with their products.

ITS WEALTH.
It is the richest city of its size on the coast and its money is scattered over and is being used to develop more farming country than is tributary to any other city in Eastern Oregon.

Its situation is unsurpassed. Its climate delightful. Its possibilities incalculable. Its resources unlimited. And on these summer days and weeks.
