AND NATHAN SAID UNTO DAVID.

Our esteemed contemporary, the Evening Telegram, of the 19th says:

Of course The Telegram teels complimented to observe that our state exchanges quite so liberally from our col-amns, and in most instances give due credit to this paper for the clippings. But there is an exceptional editorial pirate, now and then, who will appro-priate our matter bodily and will insert it as original matter without any sort of while it is down." In a few days the same article ap-peared as an original editoral paragraph in the Lebanon Express, and was scis-gonian and reprinted this morning with credit to the Lebanon paper. The same thing has occurred three or four times in as many weeks. We do not object when our exchanges borrow from us. when our exchanges borrow from us. We are neighborly and will be pleased to lend our matter to our friends; but we do think that in common decency they might give us credit, and not filch another person's goods. The meanest thief in the world is the person who will steal another person's brain work; he is even worse than the anarchist who believes in leveling all property assets.

We are pleased to know that The Telegram fully appreciates the enormity of the offense. In our experience running, through several years of newspaper work, we have made it a rule never ford sale $10,400. to kick, no matter how bold a theft was made from our colums; but as The Telegram has, time and time again, swiped from ns, we can but feel thankful that it is about time to "put out the lamp." Only a week or ten days ago that paper clipped a quarter-column editorial from this paper, and with the solid statement that "a gentleman just down from Eastern Oregon says," proceeded to publish it. We appreciated the fact that, while we were not "down from Eastern Oregon," our neighbor saw fit to designate us as "a gentleman." Hope it will remember it hereafter and treat us accordingly.

ROUGH ON THE MILITIA.

Between the duty on one side and the kicking on the other, the average militia man has a hard time of it. In California the militia has been under arms tailleur sale in 1591. for several weeks. The boys have been brought face to face with the mob, and, although in one case they failed to do their duty, they have seen hard service. That this service is distateful, it is un-

PERSONAL MENTION. Mr. K. N. Staehr, Bake Oven's merhant, is in the city. Mr. Fred Dee and J. C. Wiegand, Arlington merchants, are in the city. Mr. S. A. Clarke, the horticulturist and journalist of Oregon, is in the city. Mr. John E. Lathrop, city editor of the East Oregonian, came up on the Regulator.

Col. E. W. Pike and wife of Goldendale are in the city, accompanied by Miss Trotter and Miss Effic Trotter.

Receiver McNeil, Chief Engineer Campbell and Superintendent Borie passed through last night. Mr. McNeil goes to New York to raise money to put the O. R. &. N. in running order.

Mr. J. R. Weddell, a prominent real estate man of Chicago, came up on the boat last night and on, on the train. He is much pleased with Oregon, and will be back in September with the in-tention of putting some currency where it will do the most good in Oregon.

priate our matter bodily and will insert it as original matter without any sort of readit to this paper. As an instance the following editorial paragraph appeared in the The Evening Telegram over a week ago: "The kind of strike that is most marked in this computing is a strike arginat needed in this country is a strike against anarchy. Strike it down and crush it while it is down."

The following is a list made in Paris of the twenty-five highest-priced books in the world:

"L'Amoureux Transi," by Jean Bouchet, printed on vellum. Quaritch paid $3,200 for it at the Sunderland sale in 1882.

The "Psalter of Mentz," of 1457. Louis XVIII. paid $2,400 for a copy of it, which he presented to the National library at Paris. Quaritch's price for the second edition of 1459 is $2,500. The Valdarfer "Boccaccio," printed at Venice in 1471, brought at the Blan-

Boucher's "Figures de Moliere" brought $5,400 at the Pichon sale

The Caxton "Boccaccio," printed in 1476, brought $4,000 at the Techener sale in 886.

"L'Office de la Toussaint" brought $3,600 at the La Carelle sale. Baron Pichon paid $9 for it in 1847.

"Boccaccio," first edition of 1471, brought $11,300 at the Roxburghe sale. The works of Rabelais, printed by Dolet. brought $2,800 at the Techener sale in 1887. "Monument du Costume," by Freudeberg and Moreau, brought $4,500 at the | the expense of the property.

Behague sale in 1880. The works of Origene, bound with the arms of Henry IL and Diane de Poictiers, brought $3,600 at the Muller sale in 1892. Ovid's "Metamorphosis," illustrated by Moreau. Boucher and Eisen, brought other cause, the stomach, liver and kid-$2,600 at the Marquis sale in 1890. "Entree de Henri II. a Paris et de Charles IX." brought $4,000 at the Des-"La Chasse Royale du Roi Charles IN.," printed in 1625, brought $2,536 at the Behague sale. "Les Amours de Daphnis et Chloe." printed in 1718, brought $3,400 at the Quentin-Bauchart sale.

S. P. SMITH, of Towanda, Pa. whose constitution was completely broken down, is cured by Ayer's Sarsaparilla. He writes:

"For eight years, I was, most of the time, a great sufferer from constipation, kidney trouble, and indigestion, so that my constitution seemed to be completely broken down. I was induced to try Ayer's Sarsaparilla, and took nearly seven bottles, with such excellent results that my stomach, bowels, and kidneys are in perfect condition, and, in all their functions, as regular as clock-work. At the time I began taking Ayer's Sarsaparilla, my weight was only 129 pounds; I now can brag of 159 pounds, and was never in so good health., If you could see me before and after using, you would want me for a traveling advertisement. I believe this preparation of Sarsaparilla to be the best in the market to-day."

There is one remedy in the hands of the militia, and that is to let it severely alone. Let the state get a militia composed of property owners and business men, or let it go without. To be rewarded for protecting another's property by being thrown out of employment will certainly not encourage the militia system.

Now let the courts get in and prosecate these employers for tempting soldiers to desert. What's the matter with that doctrine for those high officials who are so tender-hearted about the interference with the mails?
