JULY JINGLINGS.

Leaves From the Notebook of Chronicle Reporters.

The Ladies' Aid Society will meet at the residence of Mrs. A. M. Kelsay Wednesday afternoon.

The west-bound passenger did not arrive this morning until 9:15, consequently the passengers will have a chance to see the beauties of the Gate City.

The little steamer Inland Star, or Gypsy as she has been re-christened, left at 1 o'clock this afternoon with thirteen passengers for the Cascade Locks. About half her passengers were ladies and children. What is to be gained by getting to the Cascades too late for any trains and remaining until the regular passenger train tomorrow, is hard to see.

Quite a number of tourists came up on the boat last night, and it was a genuine pleasure to note the admiration the scenery of the Columbia awakened.
Mt. Hood came in for a large share of appreciation and the grand river, the bold bluffs and the far-reaching panorama of mountain and river, canyon and waterfall as new points of view were reached, caused continuous ejaculations of pleasure.

To decide a bet as to whether an animal could drag 250 pounds of sand in a sack at the end of a rope half a mile long, the experiment was tried on Third street today. There is an idea that a weight, after it is a certain distance from the power applied to move it, becomes practically immovable, and the repeating of this statement led to the trial today, the bet being that a certain mule (and most mules are) could not drag the sack fifty feet. The question was soon decided, for the animal walked off with it and could not be stopped until the end of the block was reached.

Funeral of C. E. Haight.

All that was mortal of Charles E.
Haight was laid to rest in Sunset cemetery yesterday evening. The funeral services were held at the house, being conducted by Rev. Whisler, who delivered a short, but eloquent sermon, after which the long procession wound slowly out to the city of the dead. Some seventy members of Friendship Lodge, K. of P., of which the deceased was an honored member, preceded the hearse, and at the grounds their beautiful ceremony for the dead was rendered by the Pythian Knights. Hon. John Michell acted as prelate, and recited the Pythian service in a manner that brought out its solemn beauties, and left but few dry eyes in the audience. The floral tributes were numerous and exceedingly beautiful, his brother Knights' offering being a floral shield three feet in length, and showing the colors of the order.

The coffin was enclosed in a metallic box, and this was sealed at the cemetery. The funeral was largely attended, showing the high esteem in which the deceased was held by the community.

Died.

Mrs. C. S. Jucker, of Portland, Oregon, has just received the sad intelligence of her mother's death, Mrs. Anne Marie Basche, who died June 15th, 1894, at the residence of her son, A. Basche, Green Bay, Wisconsin. From the Green Bay Advocate we copy the following:

"Mrs. Basche was a native of Europe, being of Franco-Prussian birth, was born October 4th, 1804, and was therefore nearly 90 years of age. With her husband, Joseph Basche, of military record, she emigrated to this country some fifty-two years ago and has since made Green Bay her home. Her husband, a prominent citizen of this place, died many years ago, but she was possessed of a wonderful vitality and was never seriously sick, until within three months of her death, when her physical and mental faculties gradually failed until she peacefully sank to her eternal rest.
She was of noble birth, also being a descendant of ancestors distinguished in great military record, musical fame and literature. She was a most estimable lady, and, being possessed of a truly lovable disposition and charitable nature, was greatly loved by all who knew her. Her surviving children are as follows: Mrs. C. Stella Jucker, formerly of The Dalles, Oregon, Hon. A. Basche, M. and Fred W. Basche, prominent citizens of this place, and Ex-Mayor P.
Basche, one of the wealthiest mine owners of Baker City, Oregon. She also leaves 28 grandchildren and 20 great grandchildren. She was a faithful member of the Catholic church and the funeral occurred Sunday afternoon from the cathedral, which was largely attended. The floral tributes were very beautiful and numerous, the pall bearers being Hon. Joseph Fohrmann, Matt Miller, Nicholas Miller, P. F. Schu-macher, C. Kaster and S. Landwehr."

A horse kicked H. S. Shafer, of the Freemire House, Middleburg, N. Y., on the knee, which laid him up in bed and caused the knee joint to become stiff.
A friend recommended him to use Chamberlain's Pain Balm, which he did, and in two days was able to be around. Mr. Shafer has recommended it to many a bruise or sprain. This same remedy is also famous for its cures of rheumatism. For sale by Blakeley & Houghton.

Card of Thanks.

I desire thus publicly to express my thanks to the many kind friends for their presence, sympathy and aid in my recent bereavement.

When she was a Child, she cried for Castoria.
When she became Miss, she clung to Castoria.
When she had Children, she gave them Castoria.

At the Cascades.

A gentleman who was at Cascade Locks Saturday made a pretty thorough examination of the portage road and the locks. He tells us the road is not seriously damaged and that a thousand dollars will put it in good repair. The lower incline, or a part of it, floated, but as it was in an eddy, all the timbers and rails drifted back into the canal, and were not lost. The Day Bros. have repaired a portion of the road, so they are now running their cars as far down as the lower end of the lock. It is thought that the end of the incline at the boat landing is still in place.

The damage to the locks has been greatly over-estimated. A short piece of the north guard wall has gone out, and some of the masonry near the mouth of the canal in the north side was undermined and fell over into the canal. At the lower end, from the steps on the south wall to the lower break water, the rip-rap got water-soaked and slid down. Major Post says that no more dry wall will be laid, and the rip-rap will be replaced by solid masonry. About fifty stone cutters are at work, and a large number of men are at work on the wall getting it ready to lay the coping. The work will be proceeded vigorously, and every man that can be used will be put at work just as fast as the receding waters will permit.

The Ball Game.

The Dalles ball players met those from Hood River yesterday at the fair grounds, and at the same time met defeat, Hood River winning by a score of twenty-three to eight. Hood River has some excellent timber for a ball club and though they have played but three practice games, put up fairly good ball.
The Dalles boys are about in the same condition there being good ball players individually, but they are certainly far from being a good team. They have not played together and have no discipline.
Dr. Brosius, who came up as chief mentor for the Hood River club, is an enthusiast on athletic sports and is anxious to organize a circuit, where in a spirit of friendly and generous rivalry the young men can meet to battle for victory, develop their muscles and broaden their ideas. The intention is to include football and a wheelmen's club.
The idea is a good one and we hope will be taken up by our people, Dufur, Antelope, Moro, Wasco, Goldendale, Centerville and other neighboring towns.
The Dalles boys, we understand, will meet tonight for the purpose of getting up a team and as there is abundance of material, we can assure our Hood River friends, that when they again cross bats with them, they will have to play ball.

A Dollar in the Wallet.

West Coast Trade.
The stars they shine serenely and with greater luminosity when a fellow isn't struggling with his impecuniosity. The lofty sky is bluer and the meadow grass is greener, and the ills of life are fewer, and our life itself serene; and we feel a glorious courage and the fates cannot appall it when we feel the solid backing of a dollar in our wallet.

Oh, the quiet air of twilight is more brightly luminiferous, and the incense from the flowers is more sweet and odoriferous; and the zephyrs blow more sweetly and our food is more nutritious, and we're conscious more completely that our breakfast is delicious; and we feel that life's no fizzle, as the pessimists
