

The Dalles Chronicle.

VOL. VII.

THE DALLES, OREGON, WEDNESDAY, JULY 25, 1894.

NO. 182

THE SENATE IS FIRM

The Whole Matter Left With Its Committee.

SOCKLESS JERRY RE-NOMINATED

Number of Republican Conventions—Spokane Has a Fire, and Debs Has His Bail Reduced.

Men and Horses Burned.

WASHINGTON, July 25.—Three firemen were killed, a dozen persons injured, and over three hundred horses burned to death in a fire which swept over the block at B and Second streets, in which were the Knox stables and warehouses early this morning. Besides the Knox and Adams express stables, ten houses were burned. One hundred and fifty horses in the Adams stables were rescued. The loss will exceed a quarter of a million dollars.

Enthusiasm in Iowa.

DES MOINES, July 25.—The largest and most enthusiastic republican state convention ever held in Iowa met here today. John N. Baldwin was elected temporary chairman. The prayer by Rev. J. L. Weaver was sensational. He prayed for the country's enemy, the democratic party, to be as merciful as possible, and appealed to the Omnipotent to assist in expediting the infamous democratic party from power and to restrain them forever from the exercise of government authority.

A Small Riot in Chicago.

CHICAGO, July 25.—Policeman Lindgren was seriously wounded and two rioters badly hurt in a fight at the Grand Trunk yards on Forty-ninth street this morning. The strikers attempted to stop a freight train. The officer interfered and was felled by a volley of stones and coupling pins. Lindgren fired, probably fatally injuring Alexander Hart, and slightly wounding a striker named Donnigan. But one striker was arrested.

Concerning the Tariff.

WASHINGTON, July 25.—Secretary Carlisle went to the house of representatives today and sought Speaker Crisp, but left for the treasury without seeing him. Prominent members, including some classed as radical free traders, have let it be known that free iron ore and free coal are not worth the conflict they are causing. There is no indication, however, that this feeling is shared by Speaker Crisp or Chairman Wilson.

Church Block Burned at Spokane.

SPOKANE, July 25.—A fire early this morning destroyed almost the entire block owned by All Saint's Parish of the Episcopal church, including the new rectory and a number of tenements. Mrs. Holman, who conducted a lodging house in the block, jumped through a window breaking her breast bone and receiving internal injuries. Others had narrow escapes. Total loss $30,000; insurance $20,000.

A Decision at Seattle.

SEATTLE, July 23.—The seven rioters who were arrested at Spokane July 5th, charged with contempt in attacking a Northern Pacific train, were found guilty in the United States district court today. Of the prisoners, August Weise, Alexander Olsen, William Goddard, Axel Livan, George Foster and John Clark were sentenced to eight months and Alex. Rizaute to four months imprisonment.

To Investigate Tracy.

WASHINGTON, July 25.—In the morning hour in the senate the conference report on the legislative, executive and judicial appropriation bill was agreed to. A resolution was adopted to investigate the office of Colonel Charles Tracy, secretary of the board of charities of the district of Columbia. Colonel Tracy is a brother of General Tracy, the New York congressman.

The Strike Still on at Pullman.

CHICAGO, July 25.—The Allen paper car-wheel works at Pullman started up today with a dozen new men. There is no evidence of weakening among the Pullman strikers. Simon Reskins, a Russian, hurled stones at the massive residence of George M. Pullman today, breaking ten or a dozen large plate glass windows. He was arrested.

American Railway Union Cases.

CHICAGO, July 25.—In the American Railway Union contempt of court cases today Judge Woods delivered a brief opinion formally over-ruling the motion of the defense to quash the informations. The court continued the case until September, owing to the illness of Special Counsel Walker.

New Mexico and Arizona Safe.

WASHINGTON, July 25.—The senate committee on territories has ordered favorable reports on the bills admitting New Mexico and Arizona. These bills have already passed the house.

War Commenced in Corea.

YOKOHAMA, July 25.—The Japanese troops in Corea have commenced a forward movement against the position occupied by the Chinese. A battle is daily expected.

And the Women Helped.

COLORADO SPRINGS, July 25.—Twenty-five persons, including two women, will be arrested tomorrow for tarring and feathering Adjutant-General Tarsney.

The Senate Stands Firm.

WASHINGTON, July 25.—The democratic senatorial caucus has decided to send the tariff bill back to the conference without instructions.

Republicans in Illinois.

SPRINGFIELD, Ill., July 25.—The republican state convention met at noon today. James B. Mann of Chicago is temporary chairman.

Jerry, the Sockless, Re-Nominated.

HUTCHISON, Kan., July 25.—Jerry Simpson was re-nominated by acclamation in the populist congressional convention today.

A Monster Convention.

MILWAUKEE, July 25.—One of the largest conventions ever held by the republicans in the state of Wisconsin met here today.

Debs' Bail Reduced.

CHICAGO, July 25.—By order of the court, the bail of Debs and his fellow prisoners, was reduced from $10,000 to $7,000 each.

Ordered to Corea.

WASHINGTON, July 25.—Secretary Herbert has ordered the cruisers Petrel and Concord, now on duty in Behring Sea, to Corea.

Tyrrell Gets a Plum.

WASHINGTON, July 25.—The president today nominated John D. Tyrrell postmaster at Pomeroy, Wash.

A Wise Judge.

CHICAGO, July 25.—Judge Lyman Trumbull declines to act as arbitrator in the Pullman strike.

The Boston Man Badly Finished.

PROVIDENCE, R. I., July 23.—Patsy Broderick of Providence and "Prince" Williams of Boston fought six rounds tonight. Williams was unmercifully punished from start to finish, and in the sixth round was sent to the ground screaming in agony and covered with blood. His left eye was closed in the beginning.

Another American Vessel Seized.

SAVDUSKY, Ohio, July 23.—Early this morning the steamer Louise was seized just east of Point Pelee Island by the Canadian revenue cutter Petrel. The Louise is an American vessel engaged in fishing, trading between this city and Leamington, Ontario. The cause of the seizure has not as yet been ascertained.

The Men Continued to Work.

CHICAGO, July 23.—Sovereign's promise of last night to the Knights of Labor, that he might again order out all members of the order at the stockyards, failed to materialize today. Work progressed at the various plants without the slightest sign that there would be another walk-out.

Said to Be the Oldest Settler.

VANCOUVER, B. C., July 23.—William Charters, who died Saturday at Nicomen, 50 miles from here, was 103 years old and was said to be the oldest settler in British Columbia. Old age was the cause of his death.

The Wheat Market.

PORTLAND, July 23.—Wheat unchanged. San Francisco—December, 100½; Chicago—Cash, 51½, September, 53½.

New Silver Dollars.

WASHINGTON, July 23.—The issue of standard silver dollars for the week ended the 21st inst was 426,303.

Progress and Cookery.

"The World Moves."

There is no better illustration of this old saying than the numerous schools now-a-days devoted to practical kitchen processes. These schools have been alert to find a reasonable substitute for lard, the use of which is so generally condemned. This want has been fully met by the new vegetable lard. When science strikes the kitchen, it strikes home and everybody gets the benefit. Cottolene is a clean, delicate and economical substitute for lard—cleaner than the hog, delicate as the finest vegetable oil, economical from its low price and small quantity required to be used. Prove it for yourself by a trial.

COTTOLENE

At grocers everywhere. REFUSE ALL SUBSTITUTES. N. K. FAIRBANK & CO., ST. LOUIS and CHICAGO, NEW YORK, BOSTON.

QUICK TO OBSERVE.

A Camp of Soldiers Saved by a Gypsy's Knowledge of Nature.

People who spend much of their lives out of doors, particularly in the country, sometimes develop powers of observation and deduction that seem little short of marvelous to men of indoor habits. During the Austro-Prussian war of 1866, when Archduke Joseph of Austria and his corps were retreating before the advance of the Prussians, they encamped one day near a Bohemian town, and the archduke was lodged in a cottage.

At about twelve o'clock at night the archduke's adjutant reported that a gypsy soldier wished to see him on a matter of importance.

On being admitted to the archduke's presence, the gypsy announced that the enemy was approaching, and when asked how he knew, he took the archduke to the door, and pointing to several birds flying over a wood at some distance, he said: "Birds sleep as well as people, and these birds would not be flying about at this time of night if they had not been disturbed. The enemy is marching through the woods, and has frightened them."

Relying on the gypsy soldier's knowledge, the archduke commanded that an alarm be given at once. An hour later the outposts were fighting with the Prussian soldiers. The camp was saved, thanks to the quick observation of the gypsy.

Domestic Dialect.

There are many wonderful dialects in existence, as readers of modern literature, says Harper's Magazine, have doubtless by this time discovered. One of these, which has not been touched upon to any considerable extent, is what might be called the suburban domestic dialect—that used by servants in rural communities in the daily routine of housework. Several instances of the inspiring qualities of this have come to hand. A suburbanite was greeted one winter's morning as he entered his dining room with this choice specimen: "Mr. J.—, the colt has frizz the pipes. They've bust and the cellar's all afloat."

The same domestic, while cleaning up in a hallway adjoining the library in which her employer was engaged in writing, thinking that he might prefer not to witness the operation of polishing up the floor, entered the room and said: "Mr. J.—, do you want the door cluz or the curtains drew?"

A horse kicked H. S. Shafer, of the Freemyre House, Middleburg, N. Y., on the knee, which laid him up in bed and caused the knee joint to become stiff. A friend recommended him to use Chamberlain's Pain Balm, which he did, and in two days was able to be around. Mr. Shafer has recommended it to many a bruise or sprain. This same remedy is also famous for its cures of rheumatism. For sale by Blakeley & Houghton.

Malaria in any of Its Forms.

Chills and fever, congestive chills, can be prevented or cured by the use of Simmons Liver Regulator, a purely vegetable medicine, superior to calomel and quinine.

Cord Wood.

We again have an abundant supply of dry fir and hard wood for immediate delivery at the lowest rates, and hope to be favored with a liberal share of the trade. Jos. T. Peters & Co.
