We know that the great majority do not agree with that idea, but his ranch on the John Day, today. Telegram thinks the senate has the whip hand because the congressmen a short visit. will have soon to go before the country for re-election, and in order to do so must pass some kind of an excuse for home last night.

Miss Clara Story, who has been visiting in Vancouver, Wash., returned home last night. a tariff bill. We cannot agree with this opinion. These congressmen were elected upon a practically free trade for a week's outing. platform. It looks to us as though their only chance for re-election is to go back to the people with clean hands. If the bill does not pass, they can say that they did what they agreed to, that they passed practically such a bill as had been promised, and that the senate prevented the bill becoming a law. What other course is left open to them? They would put a pitiful defence indeed were they to say, "the senate would not pass such a bill as the party wanted, and promised the people, and so we had to take their bill or none." We see no other course for the members of the house, than to stand on their bill. On the other hand the democratic senators from Louisiana and one or two others hold the balance of power. They are his condition was serious, but he is all determined to protect sugar, and have right today. formed a combination with one or two fellow senators who are interested in coal and iron, by which no bill can be passed without their consent.

The matter in dispute then is no you ain't as well as where you are, to longer the tariff bill, but involves the get him home this fall. principle of majority rule. If five senators can not only dictate to the senate, but also to the house and the president, then our law-making system is wrong. The democracy may stand it, but we do not believe they will. Hence we are not believe they will. Hence we are still of the opinion that the tariff bill will not pass.

THE OUTLOOK BETTER.

getting no returns. It is probable that money will be abundant and easy to get within the next few months. Oregon has fine crops, and these with the inflow of home-seekers should give us a season of prosperity. Whether the Wilson bill passes or not, times are bound to be better, because stocks are used up, and factories must again be started. There has not been a time in years that stocks of manufactured goods were so low, and of manufactured goods were so low, and this in nearly all lines. Wages may not be so high, in fact are quite likely to drop slightly in many occupations, but at least there will be employment. While wages will drop nominally they will still, as far as the purchasing power of a day's labor goes be as good as ever. Two dollars today will purchase about year ago. While all like to see good wages, this fact should be taken into consideration by the laborers.

The after-piece of Rev. Wallace attack on Mrs. Potter is to be played, coming in the shape of a suit for $50,000 damages for defamation of character, the lady fixing the damages at a rather high figure. Mrs. Potter, having re- according to directions, is warranted to ceived a benefit from the matter ought cure fever and ague. Try it. to let it drop, but then some people are never satisfied. If the defense will get a lot of newspaper men to testify, the lady will get nothing, for it will be jured, and her business received a fine boost.

The Best Medicine.

J. O. Wilson, Contractor and Builder, Sulphur Springs, Texas, thus speaks of Ayer's Pills:

"Ayer's Pills are the best medicine I ever tried; and, in my judgment, no better general remedy could be devised. I have used them in my family and recommended them to my friends and employes for more than twenty years. To my certain knowledge, many cases of the following complaints have been completely and by the use of Ayer's Pills alone: Third day chills, dumb ague, bilious fever, sick hendache, rheumatism, flux, dyspepsia, constipation, and hard colds. I know that a moderate use of Ayer's Pills, continued for a few days or weeks, as the nature of the complaint required, would be found an absolute cure for the disorders I have named above."

"I have been selling medicine for eight years, and I can safely say that Ayen's Pills give better satisfaction than any other Pill I ever sold."-J. J. Perry, Spottsylvania C. H., Va.
