

It's rather too much for you—the ordinary, bulky pill. Too big to take, and too much disturbance for your poor system.

Constipation, Indigestion, Bilious Attacks, Sick or Bilious Headaches, and all derangements of the liver, stomach, and bowels are prevented, relieved, and permanently cured.

A "COLD IN THE HEAD" is quickly cured by Dr. Sage's Catarrh Remedy. So is Catarrhal Headache, and every trouble that is caused by Catarrh.

WHILE COON HUNTING, John Rider, of Dutchtown, Mo., lost an eye in a very peculiar way.

Kenneth Bazemore had the good fortune to receive a small bottle of Chamberlain's Colic, Cholera, and Diarrhoea Remedy when three members of his family were sick with dysentery.

ENNY one who will allow himself to run after vain mysteries will soon lose his confidence in truth, and very likely become either a bawling fanatic, or a pitiable lunatic.

My boy was taken with a disease resembling bloody flux. The first thing I thought of was Chamberlain's Colic, Cholera and Diarrhoea Remedy.

THE total amount of Peter's pence collected for the pope's jubilee is about $150,000. It is shortly to be presented to the pope.

"I know an old soldier who had chronic diarrhoea of long standing to have been permanently cured by taking Chamberlain's Colic, Cholera and Diarrhoea Remedy."

Bucklen's Arnica Salve. The best salve in the world for cuts, bruises, sores, ulcers, salt rheum, fever sores, tetter, skinned hands, chilblains, corns, and all skin eruptions, and positively cures piles, or no pay required.

It costs Great Britain $20,000 to scrape the barnacles off the bottom of one of its big men of war and repaint it, and this has to be done twice a year in the case of nearly every vessel.

TYRANNOUS DOORKEEPERS.

An Odd Type of Man Peculiar to the Wholesale Business Houses. From all outward appearances the most important men—in their own estimation—in the large wholesale dry-goods establishments of the city are the doorkeepers.

No doubt the positions have their responsibilities, and what positions have not in a large business house, from the humblest two-dollar-a-week office boy and porter to the head of the establishment?

The duty of the doorkeepers is primarily to take the time of the salesmen and clerks on entering and leaving the stores, shaking hands with hayseed customers and bawling out the names of the salesmen they desire to see in stentorian tones.

It is in the manner in which these simple duties are performed which makes many of the doorkeepers ridiculous. They would be obnoxious were they not so supremely absurd.

This latter quite possibly is what the man desires to do, for as a supposed power these simpletons seek to propitiate Cerberus. They drop an occasional cigar into his hand and some time during the winter probably send him a turkey or a big pumpkin.

The vender, in return for his favored glances, supplies him with peanuts and apples; the bootblack shines his shoes for nothing. No newspaper boy is permitted to enter the store without the understanding that he is to give the doorkeeper a paper.

MEN TIGERS OF INDIA.

A Strange Superstition of the Ignorant Natives. The belief is very general throughout India that men are turned into tigers by eating of a certain root.

"The tigers which now infest the woods from Sagor to Deori are neither more nor less than men turned into tigers—a thing which often takes place in the woods of central India.

"In the jungle about Deori there is a root which if a man eat of it he is converted into a tiger on the spot; and if in this state he can eat of another root he becomes a man again.

"My father's washerman, Raghu, was, like all washermen, a great drunkard; and, being seized with a violent desire to ascertain what a man felt in the state of a tiger, he went one day to the jungle and brought home two of these roots and desired his wife to stand by him with one of them, and the instant she saw him assume the tiger shape to thrust it into his mouth.

"The washerman ate his root and became instantly a tiger, but his wife was so terrified at the sight of her husband in this form that she ran off with the antidote in her hand.

"Poor old Raghu took to the woods, and there ate a good many of his old friends from neighboring villages; but he was at last shot and recognized from the circumstance of his having no tail.

"You may be quite sure," concluded Sarimant, "when you hear of a tiger without a tail that it is some unfortunate man who has eaten of that root, and of all the tigers he will be found the most mischievous."

The Sarimant religiously believes the truth of this story and so do his attendants and mine; and out of a population of thirty thousand in the town of Sagor not one would doubt the story of the washerman if he heard it.

SHERIFF'S SALE

Notice is hereby given, that under and by virtue of a writ of execution issued out of the Circuit Court of the State of Oregon for Wasco County, on the 10th day of July, 1894, upon a judgment given and rendered in said Court and cause on the 24 day of March, 1894, and enrolled and docketed therein on the 5th day of March, 1894, in a cause wherein Joseph A. Johnson was plaintiff and O. D. Taylor was defendant, and to me directed, and commanding me to levy upon and sell the property of the said defendant, O. D. Taylor, or so much thereof as may be necessary to satisfy said judgment of $1575.00, with interest at 5 per cent, and the further sum of $25.00 costs and disbursements, and the costs and expenses of this writ.

The 13th day of September, 1894, at the hour of ten o'clock A. M., at the court house door in Dalles City, in said Wasco County, Oregon, sell at public auction to the highest bidder for cash in hand, all the right, title and interest of the said O. D. Taylor, in and to the said premises, which he had on said 5th day of March, 1894, on lease acquired, or so much thereof as may be necessary to satisfy said judgment of $1575.00, with interest at 5 per cent, and the further sum of $25.00 costs and disbursements, and the costs and expenses of this writ.

The following is a description of the property above referred to, and which will be sold at the time and place above mentioned, to-wit:

1. The south half of the northeast quarter, the northwest quarter of the northeast quarter, and the northeast quarter of the northwest quarter of section 28 in township 1 north, range 10 east, Willamette Meridian, in Wasco County, Oregon.

2. Lots 7 and 8, in block 24, in Bigelow's Bluff Addition to Dalles City, Wasco County, Oregon.

3. That certain place called the McDonald place, the same being the property conveyed to J. D. Taylor by E. A. McDonald and wife, and being more particularly described as follows: Commencing at a point in the north boundary line of Noyce & Gibson's addition to Dalles City, one chain and fifteen links easterly from the northwest corner of said Noyce & Gibson's addition and running thence easterly along the said north boundary line of Noyce & Gibson's addition, two hundred and ten feet, more or less, to the western boundary line of a lot of land conveyed by James Fulton and wife to Priscilla Watson, 1880, recorded on page 211, Book 6 of Records of deeds of Wasco County, Oregon, northerly and along said western boundary line of the said lot conveyed to Priscilla Watson, and a production or continuation thereof to a point where the line or continuation would intersect the southwest boundary line of street laid out by the authorities of Dalles City and called Fulton street, if said southwest boundary line of said Fulton street were produced and continued to such intersection; thence in a right line to and along the said southwest boundary of Fulton street to the point where the same intersects the eastern boundary line of the land owned by Wentworth Lord; thence along the said eastern boundary line of said land, owned by Wentworth Lord to the place of beginning, excepting therefrom a strip of land thirty feet wide on the east side of said tract, which has been conveyed to Dalles City for street purposes, said land lying and being in Dalles City, Wasco County, Oregon.
