The mysterious disappearance of a man named Gloystem, who lived near acre. Spokane, is attracting wide-spread attention, principally because it is betention, principally because it is believed that he has been murdered, and that by members of the Freeman's Protective Silver Federation. He had his name proposed as a member of that organization, but after taking the oath
Sing heigh, my boy, sing ho!

They carried things with a high old hand.
Nor strong, nor weak, could before them stand,
And they killed whom they pleased throughout the land.
Sing heigh, my boy, sing ho! and being told there was yet time for him to withdraw, he took advantage of own way when Jack-the-Giant-Killer it and refused to go further. He was arrived on the scene. You remember the story. Recollect, too, that every age has its giant-killer. We have our giants association. Soon afterwards he was in the form of all sorts of dread diseases. called to his door about midnight and went outside. Since that time he has not been seen, but his bloody hat was found a hundred wards from the house found a hundred wards from the house found a hundred wards from the house found a hundred yards from the house.

It is supposed he was murdered and the body hauled away and thrown in the long through the policy of the property of th through from the Short Line to connect with it. There is one fact that seems to be overlooked and that is that the Union Pacific is financially dead. It is in the hands of a receiver, is indebted to the government some $60,000,000, and could not raise money enough to buy a peanut stand. Besides the country through which the road would pass is much of it unproductive, or devoted to stock raising and would furnish but little traffic left, to handle as much more.

The president yesterday went to Gray Gables to get acquainted with his family, rid of the malaria, out of Washington, and away from the presence of the political Jim Corbett, Gorman. It is said the president reclined on a couch while on the trip and submitted to a massage treatment until he arrived at Philadelphia. Dr. O'Reilley, the president's Italian physician, expressed the opinion that a few days by the seaside would brace him up, and as the tariff bill has either to be signed or let alone, the president will probably need to have his nerves strengthened.

When the senate bill becomes a law, which it will within the next seven days, congress will adjourn. The little bills concerning free sugar, free iron and free coal, are only a little by-play between acts to divert the attention of the audience from the more serious matter of the play. It is all congress can do now to maintain a quorum, and the moment the bill is settled the individual members will hie them to their homes to look after the conventions and disseminate taffy.
