AUGUST AUGURINGS.

Leaves From the Notebook of Chronicle Reporters.

Wheat is quoted in Walla Walla at 27 cents per bushel.

Don't forget the ball game between Dufur and Hood River tomorrow afternoon at the fair grounds.

Company G will attend the funeral of the late Joseph M. Cushing tomorrow afternoon, he having been a member of the company.

The body of Judge Wiswall, who was drowned at Clatsop a week ago, has been recovered and will be shipped to San Francisco, and cremated.

The west bound passenger passed through this morning at 6 o'clock, the earliest since the road was re-opened, and did not stop for breakfast.

We would like very much to print the names of the successful applicants for certificates to teach, but are unable to get them until Sept. Shelly returns.

Mr. N. Whealdon undertook to break a horse yesterday, and made it about a standoff. The horse ran over him, stepped on his foot, and performed a dance du ventre while he had his innings.

The ice cream supper at the Salvation Army hall, was well attended last night. The net receipts were $30, and would have been more if the stock had not given out.

Sheriff Maddock of Clackmas county arrived here last night, coming after a prisoner, Morton Green, who escaped from him and who was caught at Oak Grove.

Arrangements have been completed for starting a second hand store and brokerage business in the building opposite Hood's stable on Second street.

There was but one candidate before his honor the mayor this morning. He looked weary but brightened up in response to the question 'Have you anything to say?'

ladder, and that his heart grew weary. He sought nepenthe in the beer mug, and in fact was a victim of circumstances.

Strayed—a Stepladder.

C. J. Crandall is engaged in putting the lower story of the Masonic building in shape for the postoffice, which will be moved into it the first of September.

The M. E. Conference.

The twenty-first annual session of the Columbia River Conference will be held at the Methodist Episcopal church, this city, commencing Wednesday, August 22d, at 8 a. m., Bishop I. W. Joyce, D. D. LL. D., presiding.

Mitchell Items.

As I sit at my window this morning there is a brisk health-giving breeze that lends vigor and life to those of our little town, who have been melted into a somnolent apathy by the intense heat of the past two weeks.

Pleasure and recruiting parties are still seeking the health-giving mountain air of Sunset Prairie. Sunday Mrs. Thompson and her son, Willie Bird, Alice Saltzman, Maggie Roberts, Miss Conally and several others, the names of whom I did not learn, passed through here, Mrs. Thompson said, to have a good time in general.

E. E. Allen has disposed of his town property in part payment for the old S. F. Allen ranch. Johnny has done well, as I am well able to testify. There is room for improvement, but few changes will make them a nice home.

Much has been said lately concerning the practical side of establishing a scouring mill for our Eastern Oregon wool at some central point to wool. It is a well authenticated fact that the wool of this side of the mountain loses half of its weight in washing.

Near The Dalles, Friday, August 17th, Joseph M., son of Mr. and Mrs. M. M. Cushing, aged 19 years, 1 month and 12 days. Funeral from Catholic church Sunday afternoon at 3 o'clock.

hauled to The Dalles over the worst roads under the sun, I think. At an average freight rate of 1 1/4 cents per pound, making $6,500 paid out for freight on a very poor quality of dirt, and it is very probable there would be one million and a half pounds of wool brought to be scoured if there was an establishment of that kind here.

Mitchell, Aug. 14, 1894. Mr. Hunt's Statement.

TYGH VALLEY, Or., Aug. 16, '94. TO EDITOR OF THE CHRONICLE:

Please allow me space in your paper to answer a piece I saw in the Antelope Herald, about Hunt and Beach not paying the board bill of Stevens, the professional runner.

Mr. N. Wallace, if you are a gentleman and will send your bill to Tygh Valley I will pay it.

Mr. Wallace, as for you warning others to look out for me, I can assure you that I can get credit for $20 to where you can get credit for $1, and furthermore Mr. N. Wallace, any man would not have treated a customer as I have been to you for eight years in the way you have treated me under the circumstances.

PERSONAL MENTION. Mr. W. C. Eddon and family of Sprague are visiting Mrs. Atwater.

Mrs. George Stapleton of Vancouver arrived here yesterday on her way to her old home, Goldendale.

Mr. J. W. French arrived here last night, leaving his family at the beach. He is tanned up and hearty looking and says he will be back at the beach in time to take a header through Falb's tidal wave—when it comes.

Commodore French and Julius Baldwin arrived home from a two-weeks camping trip last night. They had a fine trip and caught all the fish they could get rid of.

DEED. Near The Dalles, Friday, August 17th, Joseph M., son of Mr. and Mrs. M. M. Cushing, aged 19 years, 1 month and 12 days. Funeral from Catholic church Sunday afternoon at 3 o'clock.

BORN. In this city, Saturday, August 18th, to the wife of Captain L. C. Chrisman, a daughter.

When Baby was sick, we gave her Castoria. When she was a Child, she cried for Castoria. When she became Miss, she clung to Castoria. When she had Children, she gave them Castoria.
