AUGUST AUGURINGS.

Leaves From the Notebook of Chronicle Reporters.

Several families have gone from Hood River to Yakima to engage in hop picking.

Mrs. Lewis, the old lady who came here Sunday morning, is at the Umatilla House, and is very sick. There seems to be but little hope of her recovery.

A brakeman named Adams had the fingers of his right hand badly pinched this morning near the depot, while coupling cars. No bones were broken.

Mr. Simons, of the Pacific Bridge Co., is in the city. We understand he will put in a bill for putting in the lower incline of the state portage road at the Cascade Locks.

There is a steady west wind every day but it has forgotten how to be cool. As it comes fresh from Japan, the warm condition of things over there may have something to do with it.

Quite a number of tourists, on their way home from Alaska, came up as far as the lower Cascades on the Dalles City yesterday to take a look at the grand canyon of the Columbia.

The political parties of California are being arranged on new lines. The tendency seems to be to divide on one issue only. It is the people on one side and the Southern Pacific railroad on the other.

St. Mary's academy begins its fall term September 3d. The school stands in the front rank of its kind, and has earned a generous patronage. For information concerning rates tuition, etc., read their ad. in this issue.

Mayor Bolton held a regular reception this morning, having ten callers by special invitation of the city marshal.
They were fined $5 each. One of them put up the coin but the others, being impetuous, will board it out.

Mr. J. O. Mack, secretary of the Second Oregon District Fair Association informs us the catalogues for 1894 are now ready for distribution. He will be pleased to forward them to anyone desiring a copy, or to pass them over to those who call for them. The fair will begin Tuesday, October 9th and last five days.

On account of September commencing on Saturday, several of our business men will make that collection day.
This being the case, it is to be hoped the others will stand in and make it unanimous. One reason of this is that several of them intend going to Oregon City and will not be here on Monday, the 3rd.

T. A. Ward is again visible in this neighborhood. Mr. Norman having brought him back from Trout lake last night. The party camped at the falls of White Salmon, and we are told that Tom had gotten so infatuated with his tent life, he had to be lassoed and tied to a tree over night to prevent his taking the back track.

The baseball game advertised to come off Sunday between Hopd River and Dufur clubs did not take place. The Dufur boys were on hand, but Hood River did not show up for the reason that nearly all of the members of that club are in the mountains. The Dalles boys took their places however, and won a victory by a score of 27 to 9.

At a meeting of Columbia Hose company last night three delegates were appointed to represent the company at the annual meeting of the Veteran Volunteer Fireman's Association of Oregon and Washington. It was also ordered that each member of the company in good standing attending the meeting at Oregon City be allowed $10 towards defraying his expenses.

Quite a number of ministers, who will attend the conference beginning here tomorrow, have arrived and the others will get here tonight. If Mr. Blandford would now turn on his cold weather faucet for a few days he would confer a great favor, for with the present oppressive heat the meeting will not be as pleasant as it should be. It is and has been for several days genuine eastern sweltering weather.

It was quite amusing to some light-minded people this morning when one of the visiting ministers shook hands enthusiastically with one of our good citizens. Of course it was a mistake, for he said "Well, well, and this is Brother Sparks of Milton." All we have to say is that if Brother Sparks of Milton resembles the gentleman for whom he was taken, then Brother Sparks of Milton is a remarkably handsome and brainy man.

To Attend the Hops.

The Yakima Hop Growers Association have published a circular showing the acreage, probable yield and number of pickers necessary to handle the crop. It gives the area as about 3000 acres, and the yield at 160,000 boxes of green hops, averaging 100 pounds to the box. The picking season will commence September 1st, and 12,000 people can find employment. The wages paid pickers are $1 per box. The state fair will be held at Yakima during the season and will, no doubt, cause hundreds of Indians to gather there.

WASHINGTON LETTER.

From our Regular Correspondent.

WASHINGTON, Aug 17, 1894.
The worst enemy of Mr. Cleveland could not wish him to occupy a more humiliating position than he does at this writing. He has been defeated in the fight with the Gorman-Brice combination, which he himself invited, and he has now to choose between signing, vetoing or allowing to become a law without his signature, the senate tariff bill, which he characterized in his letter to Mr. Wilson as "undemocratic, perfidious and dishonorable." If he followed his personal inclinations he would veto the bill and try to keep congress in session until he could force a bill through that was nearer free trade.
But there are weighty reasons why he is not likely to follow his personal inclinations, the first of which is the universal demand from the business men of all sections and all parties that the bill be allowed to become a law, bad as it is, in order that they may have a chance to do business, even if it be poor business. The second, and probably the most weighty reason with Mr. Cleveland, is the knowledge that the senate would refuse to pass any bill that he was known to wish passed.

The pop gun tariff bills for free iron, coal, sugar and barbed wire, which the house passed and sent to the senate, are nothing more than excuses to aid free trade democratic members of the house to square themselves with their free trade constituents. The only one of them that could possibly get through the senate is that providing for free sugar, and that one the administration joins the sugar trust in opposing. Secretary Carlisle and the agent of the sugar trust are both working in concert to prevent the passage of the free sugar bill, the latter trying to frighten those democratic senators whose votes are not controlled by the sugar trust, by representing that the money to be collected through the tariff on sugar is absolutely necessary to save the administration from another issue of bonds. This argument does not speak well for Mr.
Carlisle's opinion of the intelligence of the democratic senators, as every intelligent reader of the newspapers knows that the treasury will not for a long time to come collect any tariff on sugar, for the very simple reason that the sugar trust has supplied itself with all the raw sugar it will need for months, in order to escape the payment of the duty. The real reason why the administration is opposed to free sugar is that it would knock the sugar trust out of the two cents a pound which it proposes to add to the price of sugar.

It is an open secret here that Secretaries Gresham and Carlisle have advised Mr. Cleveland to sign the tariff bill and let congress adjourn, leaving the democrats to make the best they can individually of the surrender of Mr. Cleveland and the house, when they take the stamp for the congressional campaign.
But so far Mr. Cleveland has refused to accept their advice, because he wants to "get even" with Gorman and his supporters by writing a message to congress explaining his position. The more explaining he does the more republicans will be elected to the next house. For that reason republicans hope that he will send a message to congress.

Senator Vest made another savage attack on Mr. Cleveland in a speech on Wednesday, during which he let the cat out of the bag as to his soreheadedness—he hasn't been given any pap. He also argued that Secretary Carlisle's letter against the passage of the popgun tariff bills proved what has all along been contended by many of the democratic senators, that Secretary Carlisle favored the senate bill and not the Wilson bill.

There is a rumor here that Mr. Carlisle wrote that letter without consulting Mr.
Cleveland, for the purpose of making it more certain that the senate tariff bill would be allowed to become a law, with or without Mr. Cleveland's signature, and that in consequence the relations of the two men are strained to such an extent as to make the resignation of Secretary Carlisle a probability.

Republicans consider the work of the session done, and so many of them have gone home that the senate is already without a quorum and likely to remain so. It is probably because of the knowledge that nothing can be done that certain democratic senators have become so solicitous that some bill should be passed that will take away the profits they have deliberately voted to give the sugar trust. There is democratic hypocrisy on every hand. The senators are merely trying to keep up with the record made by the house democrats when they passed a tariff bill with a duty on iron, sugar, coal and barbed wire, and immediately afterwards passed separate bills putting those articles on the free list. The voters of the country will in November express their opinion of this sort of business. CAS.
