A LAKEVIEW LYNCHING

W. S. Thompson Hanged on the Courthouse Steps.

WAS ACCUSED OF MANY CRIMES

An Excursion Steamer Strikes a Rock and Sinks—An Athlete Charged With Embezzlement.

KLAMATH FALLS, Or., Aug. 22.—City Marshal Heminger, of Lakeview, acting as a night watch, was held up Monday morning last about 1 o'clock by a mob of masked men, who demanded the key to the county jail, from which they took W. S. Thompson, hanging him to the courthouse steps. Thompson was confined in jail charged with drawing a gun on parties. He had lived in Warner Valley, where he had a host of enemies, who claim that Thompson did pretty much as he pleased, killing horses and cattle and abusing people, at one time almost killing his wife and child. The verdict of the coroner's jury was, he came to his death by strangulation by unknown hands.

A Queer Charge.

ST. LOUIS, Aug. 22.—Stockbroker Jas. Campbell, one of the most prominent figures in St. Louis financial circles, swore out a warrant yesterday for the arrest of Philip J. Rohan, president and principal owner of the Rohan boiler works, charging him with highway robbery. Mr. Campbell swears that about 9 o'clock last Friday morning, as he was walking down town to his office, he met Rohan and his son in a carriage. He charges that they jumped from the vehicle, and the elder Rohan, with a pistol in his hand, told him to get into the carriage or he would be killed. Campbell says he complied, and the three drove to 620 Locust street, where the Rohans ordered their captive to hand over $30,000 or have his brains blown out. Campbell alleges that Rohan ordered him to go up to his room. Campbell refused, saying, "I would as soon be killed here as up there." Campbell then said he would go up if Rohan would hand over the revolver to his son. Rohan did so, and Campbell, leaping out of the carriage, slammed the door and ran down Locust street to his office. Campbell alleges that, as he ran, Rohan shouted to his son: "Kill him, kill him." The trouble grew out of a deal in which Rohan claims to have lost $200,000. Campbell is one of the heaviest holders of street railway property in this city, besides doing a large business in brokerage, and his fortune is in the millions. Rohan controls one of the largest manufacturing establishments in the city, and is also very wealthy.

A Supposed Mormon Arrested.

NEW YORK, Aug. 22.—Brigham Young, of Salt Lake City, Utah, who is supposed to be a descendant of the famous Mormon apostle, was locked up in the third precinct police station, Jersey City, for making overtures to Jersey City young women. Policeman Wohleben caught Young in the act yesterday morning on the mountain road. Every woman to whom he spoke spurned him, but he renewed his importunities as soon as the next one met him. Wohleben arrested him. The prisoner said he had been drinking and was looking for a wife. He declared that he came from Salt Lake City, and that he was one of the Latter Day saints. When asked how many wives he had he smiled and replied that he could not remember them all. He claims that he was expelled from the Mormon society because he preferred rum to religion. He is 73 years old, but is tall and stalwart. He has a florid complexion and wears a full white beard.

Charged With Embezzlement.

NEW YORK, Aug. 22.—Willie Day, the runner, and the New Jersey Athletic Club cross champion, was arrested at the club house of the organization last night by Detective McNally of Jersey City on a charge of embezzlement, preferred by Manager Stoner, of the Manhattan Laundry Company of Jersey City. For some months back Day has been employed collecting for the laundry company on commission, and was allowed 25 per cent on all sums collected. Day collected $150, according to the complaint, and not only kept his commission, but the whole sum. Manager Stoner endeavored to obtain the money from him, but, although Day acknowledged collecting it, he said he had to use it to get out of some scrape he was in. Becoming weary of his fruitless waiting, Stoner caused the arrest.

Nex Perce Reservation.

WASHINGTON, Aug. 22.—The bill ratifying the Nex Perce Indian treaty, now a law, carries with it $1,668,622; $688,622 is to be paid as soon as the department can arrange the necessary details. Representative Sweet, of Idaho, after several interviews with department officials, reports the work progressing rapidly. The division on accounts is preparing a list of those entitled to payments under the agreement. The land will be opened for settlement by proclamation of the president in ample time. The agricultural land is to be sold at $3.75 per acre; mineral, stone and timber lands at $5 an acre.

In the Senate.

WASHINGTON, Aug. 21.—There were 21 senators present today when the senate was called to order. The deficiency bill was received from the house, and, having been signed by the speaker, the vice-president immediately attached his signature. Only 33 senators answered roll-call—11 less than a quorum. After a consultation among the democratic senators, Harris moved the sergeant-at-arms be directed to request the presence of the absent senators, which was agreed to. At 1:15 the senate went into executive session.

Shot by Mistake.

VICTOR, Colo., Aug. 22.—W. C. Wirt of Council Bluffs, who was shot in both arms by ambushed men while riding to Cripple creek last night, will probably lose his left arm. He is a man of means, and a nephew of the late James G. Blaine. There is no doubt the attacking party mistook Wirt and his traveling companion, J. M. Roseberry, for Sheriff Bowers and a deputy, who were riding to Cripple creek at the time on a different road.

Mayor Callahan Found Guilty.

NEW ORLEANS, Aug. 22.—The jury in the case of Mayor Callahan, accused of bribery, brought in a verdict of guilty this morning.

The crime for which Mayor Callahan was convicted was demanding and receiving bribes while a member of the city council. The most important count was the demand made on Liman S. Widney, a coaldealer, for wharf privileges. Widney paid $500.

President Cleveland left for Washington at 3:32 on the congressional limited.

LOST AND FOUND.

A Remarkable Experience in the Life of an Eminent Lawyer.

One of the most remarkable stories of losing and finding is the following: It seems that a certain eminent English lawyer was on a visit at Minto in the lifetime of the second earl of that name, and a day or two before the hearing of an important case, in which he had been retained as counsel. He had brought with him a bundle of papers connected with the suit in question, and these he took up with him to his bedroom. On the following day the packet could nowhere be found. Careful search was, of course, made, but quite in vain, and eventually the advocate had to go into court without it.

Years passed without any tidings of the missing bundle, till the gentleman chanced to be once more a guest at Minto, and occupying the same bedroom. The morning after his arrival he awoke to see the long-lost papers lying on the dressing table. The presumption is, that on the first occasion he hid them in his sleep, and on the second visit he found them in his sleep; but where he hid them and found them has never been discovered.

The Chinese pay their doctor only so long as he keeps them in health. They believe in preventing rather than curing disease. This is sound sense, and one of the strongest recommendations of Ayer's Sarsaparilla, a medicine which not only cures diseases but prevents them.
