FRIDAY, - - - AUGUST 24, 1894

IT NEEDS WATCHING.

Utah is to be admitted as a state, and since a provision has been made that the constitution must provide for the suppression of polygamy and guaranty the rights of gentiles, it may be quite proper to give it statehood.

The infamous Mountain Meadow massacre on the 26th and 27th of September, 1857, where 119 men, women and children were murdered in cold blood by the direct orders of Brigham Young, which orders were carried out by Bishop Heber C. Kimball, Nephi Johnson and Klingman Smith, with John D. Lee as head murderer, will forever remain a blot on American civilization, and a disgrace to the administration of that old Dolly Varden, James Buchanan, and his appointee, Alfred Cummings, the governor of the territory at that time.

That this era has passed away is true, but it has passed away because the Mormons are no longer isolated, and the Gentiles have gained strength.

HE SAVED HIS BOOTS.

Col. J. M. Winstead killed himself at Richmond, Virginia, yesterday by jumping from one of the towers of the city hall, the jump measuring 170 feet, all down. The colonel showed that he appreciated the magnitude of the leap, and considerably removed his boots before making the effort.

There may perhaps be some method in President Cleveland's actions concerning the tariff bill. As long as it is not signed of course it is not the law, and as long as it is not the law, the whiskey manufacturers can save twenty cents a gallon, or about $8 a barrel by getting their liquors out of bond.

It is said that the champion jaw-smiths, Corbett and Jackson, have at last agreed upon the terms and place for a meeting to settle a little difference of opinion between themselves as to which is the better man.

The Pendleton Tribune tells of a dog being run through a threshing machine near that place and concludes the statement by saying the half-minute's run cost $100 for concaves, and $100 for dog, and the dog disappeared backwards.

It Should Be in Every House. J. B. Wilson, 371 Clay St., Sharpshurg, Pa., says he will not be without Dr. King's New Discovery for consumption, coughs and colds, that it cured his wife who was threatened with pneumonia after an attack of "la grippe."

PERSONAL MENTION.

Governor Moody and daughter, Miss Edna, are in the city.

Mr. D. A. Turner of Hood River is attending the conference here, coming up yesterday.

Mr. John Baker of Caleb made us a pleasant call this morning. The Chronicle will be a regular visitor at his place for the next year.

Miss Music.

The Salvation Army services are well attended, their hall being crowded and doorway jammed with people-anxious to see what is going on.

What a splendid picture it brought before your mind! You read the glowing descriptions of the secret treasures which the realm of the ring spread before Aladdin's gaze.

"It's all up with me," groaned Skylight, as he sank on the eighth stairway, endeavoring to reach his flat after a hard day's labor.

This remedy is becoming so well known and so popular as to need no special mention. All who use Electric Bitters sing the same song of praise.

The official document declaring war between China and Japan is understood to look very much like an exaggerated laundry check.

Ayer's Ague Cure is an antidote for malaria and all malarial diseases, whether generated by swamp or sewer. Neither quinine, arsenic nor any other injurious drug enters into the composition of this remedy.

Strayed from my west pasture, one iron-grey horse, branded - (half circle) on left shoulder and two S's circled on right shoulder; rather thin cinch sore on left ribs; foretop roached back to the place for halter.

Mrs. J. H. HORSYDER, 152 Pacific Ave., Santa Cruz, Cal., writes: "When a girl at school, in Reading, Ohio, I had a severe attack of brain fever. On my recovery, I found myself perfectly bald, and, for a long time, I feared I should be permanently so.

Began to Grow,

and I now have as fine a head of hair as one could wish for, being changed, however, from blonde to dark brown."

Ayer's Hair Vigor

and now my hair is over a yard long and very full and heavy. I have recommended this preparation to others with like good effect."
