AUGUST AUGURINGS.

Leaves From the Notebook of Chronicle Reporters.

The local markets are fairly glutted with melons of all kinds—except bad.

The pay car came up yesterday afternoon, making the railroad boys reasonably happy.

Mr. Wheelon's notary public commission being a renewal, was filed for record yesterday.

One disciple of Silenus graced the dock in the recorder's office this morning, and faced the mayor $5 worth.

Mr. John Stoddard, formerly at Hood River in charge of the Oregon Lumber Co.'s mills, died at Salt Lake last Saturday.

The heavy wind prevailing last night cleared the air of smoke, from which we judge the country east of us must have plenty of it this morning.

On and after September 1st, 1894, the office hours of the Pacific Express Co. will be from 8 to 12 and from 1 to 6 o'clock.

We are requested to state that the ladies of The Dalles Lodge, I. O. G. T., will dispense ice cream and cake Saturday evening in the high water building opposite Mitchell's undertaking rooms, at 10 cents per dish.

Yesterday was another scorcher but about sundown a fresh breeze swept up from the Columbia, bringing with it considerable sand and dust, but it was none the less welcome.

"Are you a judge of reprobates?" said an old lady as she walked into the judge's office. "I am the judge of probate," was the reply.

The weather bureau has sent out for publication in Eastern Oregon, a statement of the temperature in Portland during the month of September, for twenty-two years past.

Grandma Campbell, the oldest Salvationist on the coast, being over 80 years of age, will be here Saturday and Sunday, coming from Portland, and will give her experience of life as a member of the Salvation Army.

accompanied by Mrs. Hagar who is also a member of the Army. Everybody is invited to attend the meetings.

The usual quantity of wool, about sixty tons, were taken down by the Regulator this morning. One would think that the ware houses would soon be emptied, but so far what has gone can hardly be missed.

Some thirty members of the fire companies are pledged to attend the tournament at Oregon City, and will leave here either Saturday or Sunday, Sept 1st or 2nd.

The air was filled yesterday with the winged thistle seeds seeking a place to locate and settle down to business. Some mild-eyed poet described the dandelion's delicate bolts as the "ghosts of the summer flowers."

Justice Davis has been annoyed for two or three weeks by a lady who seems determined to have the steward of the Regulator arrested for breach of promise, or words to that effect.

Some of the sidewalks are in a fearful condition, owing to the nails being left sticking up in the air for an inch or two. If it is impossible to compel property owners to have the nails driven down, the council should by ordinance provide for having the sidewalks lifted up to a level with the top of the nails.

If somebody would have a fight or do something it matters not what he would win our everlasting gratitude. The item market is bare, the demand exceeding the supply by 100 per cent.

When baby was sick, we gave her Castoria. When she was a Child, she cried for Castoria. When she became Miss, she clung to Castoria. When she had Children, she gave them Castoria.

A person is prematurely old when baldness occurs before the forty-fifth year. Use Hall's Renewer to keep the scalp healthy and prevent baldness.

Market Report.

FRIDAY, Aug. 24th.—There is a quiet, steady tone to business in nearly all departments of the merchandise trade.

The market for dry goods is steady, and a fair business is done. In groceries there is a fair movement with steady prices.

There is a sluggish tone to the green and dried fruit market, with downward tendency.

Produce in general is in large supply and prices nominal. Potatoes are quoted at 75c per 100 lbs.

Hay quotations vary according to the disposition of buyers. The market ranges from $7.50 to $8 per ton for baled wheat hay; timothy $10 to $12 per ton baled.

The poultry market is exceedingly dull and prices range nominally from $1.40 to $2 per dozen. The market for eggs is not attractive as the demand is limited on account of the warm weather, and 10 to 11 cents per dozen is the range paid in trade.

There is a complaint made that the market is nearly bare of gilt edge butter, and it is firm with a tendency to advance.

The cereal market at home and abroad is unconditionally quiet and dull. The Prairie Farmer claims that the crop for 1894 will be 500,000,000 bushels in the United States.

The wool market has nearly exhausted its stock on storage, and what few lots that are disposed of realize to the seller 8 1/2 to 10 cents per lb. according to grade, weight and condition of fleece.

His Black Silk Pants.

A celestial who is engaged in ironing the soiled garments of his white brethren, came into our office this morning for the purpose of investing two-bits of his hard earned money in second hand papers.

theside. He was awfully proud of them, and at our request turned himself around so that we could admire the beauty of the combination. They were long waisted in the back, and as the top only came to the usual height the lower end of the waist reached nearly to his knees, giving them an appearance of empty fullness that was simply killing.

Advertised Letters.

Following is the list of letters remaining in the postoffice at The Dalles un-called for August 25th, 1894.

Of Good Grit.

A young man named Joe Hooker while on his way from Goldendale to a sheep camp on the Big Klickitat, was thrown from his horse by its falling. He was not hurt in the fall but as the horse regained its feet it kicked, striking him on the leg and breaking both bones close to the ankle.

At the Conference.

The following were elected to descons orders by the conference this morning: Frank L. Johns, Christopher Johnson, John E. Williams, Thos. G. Hodgson, Thos. H. Perkins, Francis A. LaViolette and Evan A. Thomas.
