TO ADJOURN TUESDAY

Congressmen and the Country Are Both Awearry.

BUSINESS IS GETTING BETTER

South American Indians Drink the Blood of Their Victims and Eat the Bodies.

The Strike Investigation.

CHICAGO, Aug. 24.—General Manager St. John, of the Rock Island, was recalled by the strike commission today. "You have said," said Commissioner Kernan, "that your road has no blacklist. Now, is it a fact the General Managers' Association has a blacklist?" "No such thing as a blacklist exists among the railroads, to my knowledge," was the answer. "There was, however, I believe, a list of names prepared for the General Managers' Association. It contained the names of the most active of the strikers, and has been, I think, submitted to the various roads by the association. It cannot properly be called a black list, however." St. John was asked to tell what he knew of the story that all the railroads had adopted a uniform scale of wages. "The rumor is untrue," he said. "I believe something of the sort was submitted to the General Managers' Association, but was not universally adopted. In fact, it was rejected by all but one road, and on that line put into partial effect."

John M. Egan, strike manager of the General Managers' Association, was questioned regarding his duties during the strike. He said it was his duty to receive reports from the various roads of the progress of the troubles and submit the same to the association.

An Adjournment Tuesday.

WASHINGTON, Aug. 24.—If possible the senate wore a more deserted aspect than yesterday, despite the fact that one republican, Higgins, and two democrats, Camden and Butler, had returned. George obtained indefinite leave of absence for his colleague, McLaurin, on account of the serious illness of his family. Harris, without testing the presence of a quorum, moved the senate proceed to the consideration of executive business. This was agreed to.

After executive session the senate adopted the house resolution for adjournment Tuesday.

Blackburn tried to get up his resolution instructing the committee on rules to sit during recess for the purpose of a revision of the rules. Blanchard objected, and a single objection kills any motion. Blanchard fears the rules will be so revised that debate will be cut off and the free sugar bill passed at the next session. The senate adjourned until Monday.

Knights of Pythias Encampment.

WASHINGTON, Aug. 24.—Washington expects to entertain 100,000 visitors next week, during the encampment of the Knights of Pythias. Already people from other places are beginning to arrive. Cut rates on excursion tickets to enable the knights and friends to attend the great celebration went into effect Tuesday, and it is reported thousands are taking advantage of the opportunity to visit Washington. Everything points to a successful encampment. The citizens have contributed liberally, and the hotels and boarding houses have co-operated in making reasonable rates. Nearly every business house along the line of march is decorated, and the city presents a gay appearance, strongly reminiscent of inauguration time. On the grounds of the Washington monument 1700 tents are erected, and in them members of the uniformed commands will sleep and eat.

Horrible Murder by Indians.

NEW YORK, Aug. 24.—A special farm Panama gives the following details of a recent double murder by Indians in Bolivia: Indians of Karangas killed the magistrate of the court of Oruro, Senor Arca, and his son in the presence of his father. They clipped out the son's tongue, extracted his eyes, and otherwise tortured him until dead. As the blood flowed from the body they caught it in horn cups and drank it with avidity. Then they put the father to death in a like horrible manner. A carnival of cannibalism was then held over the bodies until the flesh was eaten to the bone.

A Revival in Business.

WASHINGTON, Aug. 24.—Both the treasury balance and the gold reserve are feeling the beneficial effects of a revival of business. The net balance today stands at $122,710,000, a gain of $700,000 today, of which $54,882,000 is in gold. This gives the treasury department a very comfortable balance outside of the gold reserve, upon which to carry on the business of the government. The gold reserve today increased over $350,000, with prospect of a further daily increase of almost as much for some time to come.

A New Geyser.

MAMMOTH HOT SPRINGS, Yellowstone Park, Aug. 23.—At 2 o'clock this afternoon, while a number of tourists were viewing the Black Sand basin, which is a portion of the Upper Geyser basin, they were startled by a rumbling noise which lasted only a few minutes, when a new geyser broke out within 50 feet of them. The water was thrown over a radius of 200 feet square. The water gradually formed into a column and was raised fully 150 feet above the earth. It played five hours.

A Convention Agreed Upon.

WASHINGTON, Aug. 24.—Secretary Gresham and Sir Julian Pauncefote, British ambassador, have agreed upon a convention providing for a commission to consider the amount of damages to be paid by the United States for seizing 20 Canadian sealers more than three miles from land from 1888 to 1890, inclusive. It is understood the president would like to have the proposed convention approved by the senate before the close of the present session.

The Pullman Company's Charter.

CHICAGO, Aug. 24.—Attorney-General Maloney appeared before Judge Hancey and asked leave to file an information in quo warranto against the Pullman Car Company. Attorney Rankin said J. S. Runnells, the company's counsel was out of town and would wish to contest the motion. The attorney-general said he would try to find another judge to hear the motion for the revocation of the Pullman Company's charter.

Senate Procedure Agreed On.

WASHINGTON, Aug. 24.—The senators have reached an agreement about procedure. After the executive calendar is cleared up the senate will consider bills to which there is no objection in open session, but no other business will be taken up. No speeches will be made. The bill to amend the alcohol schedule is not to be considered.

Silver Dollars of 1894.

WASHINGTON, Aug. 24.—It is stated at the treasury department that silver dollars of the coinage of 1894 can now be obtained in any quantity desired at the mints at Philadelphia, San Francisco and New Orleans in exchange for treasury notes issued under the act of July 14, 1890.

Trains Are Running Again.

NELSONVILLE, O., Aug. 24.—The stoppage of trains on the Columbus, Hocking Valley & Toledo road has ceased owing to the yielding of the American Railway Union and the appointment of a new grievance committee acceptance to officials of the railroad company.

Coalminers Again Strike.

RICHMOND, Mo., Aug. 24.—All the coalminers in Ray county are again on a strike. They demand 4 cents per bushel for mining. They went to work Monday at 3½ cents under a contract holding good until May, 1895.

In the House.

WASHINGTON, Aug. 24.—A resolution for adjournment till Tuesday at 2 p. m. has been adopted by the house. After the passage of the resolution the house adjourned till Monday.

Urged to Remove Taylor.

WASHINGTON, Aug. 24.—The investigation of O. J. H. Taylor, recorder of deeds of the District of Columbia, closed today. The committee urges the president to remove him.

Named by the President.

WASHINGTON, Aug. 24.—Nominations: Postmaster—John W. Byland, San Jose, Cal. Robert J. McBryde, of Wisconsin, consul at Leith, Scotland.

Good Cooking
is essential to Good Digestion
in pastry you cannot have either without a good shortening. Lard has always had very objectionable features, causing indigestion and many other dietetic troubles. Science has come to the assistance of the cook, and of weak stomachs, with the new shortening,
Cottolene
It is composed of the choicest beef suet and highly refined vegetable oil, in many respects as good as the finest imported olive oil. Physicians endorse it, cooking experts recommend it, and thousands are now using it in preference to any other shortening. Refuse all substitutes.

Send three cents in stamps to N. K. Fairbank & Co., Chicago, Ill., and receive six hundred recipes, prepared by the eminent authorities on cooking. Cottolene is sold by all grocers.

THE BANK OF FRANCE.
Immense Piles of Silver Coin in the Cellars of the Institution.
"While making a tour of the continent a few years ago," said a New York broker to a St. Louis Globe-Democrat man, "I was shown through the Bank of France. The silver coin is heaped up in barrels and placed in cellars resembling the spacious warehouse of a brewery, each barrel holding 50,000 francs in 5-franc pieces, and weighing about 600 pounds. There are at times 800 barrels piled up to the very crown of the arches and rising much higher than a man's head. The visitor walks through a long alley of these barrels for some time until he comes to a large stone-floored apartment, wherein are to be seen large square leaden cases. Each of these holds 20,000 bags of 1,000 francs each, and the whole are soldered up hermetically within the cases. Several of these appeared not to have been touched for years. I was told they were likely to remain undisturbed for 100 years longer, as they are the last of the bank's resources to be dipped into. The treasure in these leaden reservoirs is kept perfectly dry and free from any variation of temperature. The stairs reaching to these regions are narrow and admit of only one person at a time ascending and descending. This has been expressly contrived for protection and defense from insurgent mobs. In one of the treasure vaults are the precious deposits of the Rothschilds and the wealthy capitalists left for safety with the bank."

Egypt's Precious Relics.
For many years strong protest has been made to the Egyptian government by antiquarians and hosts of other interested people the world over against the continued housing of the priceless government collection of Egyptian antiquities in the old wooden museum at Ghizah. The collection comprises the choicest of all the relics that have been discovered in Egypt. It is, and has been for many years, exposed to the greatest possible danger from fire. The government has hitherto declined to remedy the matter, but a few days ago the council of ministers agreed to the appropriation of seven hundred and fifty thousand dollars for the building of a new fireproof museum at Cairo to contain the collection.

When Times Were Slow.
From an ancient account book found at Eastport, Me., it appears that in 1797 tobacco was sold by the yard in that settlement. The limited purchasing power of a day's wages at that period is shown by the price of nails—one shilling two and one-half pence a pound. A day's ordinary wages would pay for about four pounds of nails.

General Deficiency Bill Signed.
WASHINGTON, Aug. 24.—The president today signed the general deficiency bill, the last of the appropriation bills.
