A DUEL WITH KNIVES

Kentuckians Discuss the Breckenridge Case.

ONE DEAD THE OTHER A FUGITIVE

Fatal Shooting Accident Near Los Angeles—Suicide of a Hotel Clerk—A Minister's Clothing Stolen.

LExINGTON, Ky., Aug. 30.—A duel to the death with knives occurred in Clark county, near Boonesboro, yesterday, over the scandal that is the feature of the Ashland congressional contest. John King a Breckenridge man living in Fayette county, met on the highway an old friend, George Cook, who lives in Clark county. Cook said any woman who went to hear Breckenridge speak was no better than a courtesan. King dismounted from his horse, saying his wife and daughter had heard Breckenridge. Cook insisted it was a shame and he also dismounted. Both drew knives and blood flowed freely until Clark dropped dead. King has escaped.

A Child Brutally Beaten.

SOUTH AMBOY, N. J., Aug. 30.—A sad case of brutality to a 3-year-old child has just been brought to light through the arrest of John Abbott, on complaint of J. Manning Roberts, a young medical student of this place. Roberts, having heard that a child in a starving condition was tortured by its parents in an outlying part of the town, known as Frog Hollow, made complaint before Police Justice Grace and swore out a warrant for the arrest of Abbott. The latter was given a hearing yesterday, and in default of $1,000 was locked up to await the action of the grand jury. Abbott has been living with a woman named Banta, of Perth Amboy, who is said to be the mother of the child. The child is covered with bruises from head to foot. It had been, it is alleged, tortured by being knocked down with a poker, being placed on a red-hot stove, held up by the back of the neck and beaten until it became unconscious, and by being all the while slowly starved. It is alleged the child's life was insured in several companies. Several witnesses swore to the above facts at the hearing, and will appear against Abbott before the grand jury. The mother of the child was given three days in which to leave town.

Killed by Yaqui Indians.

SAN DIEGO, Cal., Aug. 30.—Details of another ambushade by Yaqui Indians of Mexican troops have been received. July 18, 45 men of the Fourteenth battalion left a place called The Pilares for Cruse de Piedra, and from there started on the 30th for Rio Yaqui, near the outpost of Los Gusanos. They were ambushed in a thickly wooded part of the road by a party of about 100 Indians, who had divided themselves on each side of the road. At the first fire, delivered at pistol range, nine federals dropped. Captain Gomez in command rallied his men on the defensive, a little outside the ambush, when the Indians attacked the troops furiously, but were repulsed more than once. The fight lasted more than an hour and a half, the federals remaining in possession of the field. While some of the men were fighting, the remainder got away with the baggage, animals, and ammunition of the troops they could manage to carry off. Twelve were killed, six wounded and the wife of a sergeant killed, a little child of eight and a boy of nine wounded slightly. Four Indians were killed and 27 slightly wounded and taken prisoners. Captain Gomez will be court-martialed at Torres.

A Fatal Shooting Accident.

LOS ANGELES, Cal., Aug. 30.—A very sad shooting affair occurred at Buena Park, this side of Anaheim, last Sunday night, which today resulted in the death of William Brock, the shooting being accidentally done by Albert Kloss. Brock and Kloss were warm friends and were recent university graduates. They went to Buena Park to spend the summer months in special studies. They returned to their cabin last Sunday evening after a short trip, and were much chagrined to find that some of the neighboring youths had attempted practical joking by turning things topsy turvey around the house. Remembering that he had left his rifle on the bed, Kloss picked it up, and was examining it to see if it had been injured, when the hammer struck something, exploding the cartridge. The ball struck Brock in the right thigh, shattering the bone terribly. The next day he was removed to a hospital, where he lingered until today, when death ended his terrible suffering.

Bruneau Gullotined.

LAVAL, France, Aug. 30.—The execution of Abbe Bruneau, formerly vicar of the church of Entraignes, convicted of the murder of Abbe Fricot, passed off more quietly than the authorities anticipated. Fully 8,000 people were present. The Abbe Bruneau was awake when the public prosecutor, the examining magistrate and other officials entered his cell this morning in order to inform him his last hour had arrived. Unaided the condemned man donned his black trousers, and then put on his shirt, stockings and shoes. When dressed the abbe was led to the chapel of the prison; where representatives of the press were already seated. In passing the holy water font, the abbe dipped his fingers, knelt and crossed himself fervently. He was then led to the altar, where he prayed a few moments, and afterwards with the prison chaplain retired to a corner, where the latter heard the prisoner's last confession, after which mass was celebrated, Bruneau following the prayers with great devotion. After breakfast the prisoner again communed with the prison chaplain, and asked that the clergy might pardon him for breaking his vows of chastity. He then informed the attendants he was ready, and showed great coolness until he arrived at the foot of the scaffold, where his fortitude seemed to desert him. Up on the guillotine platform, Bruneau kissed the crucifix held up before him by the chaplain, and murmured a short prayer with his eyes turned toward the sky, and then at a signal from Diebler he was overturned upon the bascule, and thrust rapidly forward, and about 5:05 the knife fell, and the priest's head dropped into the basket. The death of the priest was the signal for loud cries of "Bravo" from the crowds.

Abbe Bruneau was found guilty of the murder of Abbe Fricot, cure at Entraignes, by stunning him and throwing him into a well, pitching blocks of wood upon him as he struggled for life, and finally striking him with a long pole until dead. He was also shown to have committed robberies, spent much money in fast living, and was also indicted for the murder of a widow named Bourdais, a ferret, found stabbed to death and her place of business ransacked. Some of the stolen money was traced to the possession of the abbe.

Wanted to Kill Satelli.

NEW YORK, Aug. 30.—Edward Stolz, the supposed lunatic who proposes to kill Monsignore Satelli, the papal legate, was arraigned in the Harlem police court today. Stolz appears to be suffering from alcoholic mania. A policeman arrested him on Kingsbridge road last night where he was shouting "Kill him, kill him," and making lunges at imaginary objects. He said he formerly kept a saloon at Meadville, Pa. He sold out, God having called him to kill Satelli. A club of ten had been organized to kill all priests, and he had been selected to strike the first blow. He was sent to Bellevue hospital, where he will undergo an examination as to his sanity.

The Pullman Investigation.

CHICAGO, Aug. 30.—Contrary to expectation, rebuttal testimony was heard today by the strike commission. S. C. Wade, an employee of the legal department of the Rock Island road, said much of the blockading of the railroad track was the work of inexperienced railroad men. W. R. Mooney, a Northern Pacific switchman at Blue Island, said Debs and Howard had not advised the men to strike. They told the men to use their own judgment. He was discharged for alleged activity in the strike. Witness told of the fight at Blue Island June 30th, when 400 marshals stood by and saw their chief, Logan, beaten by the crowd.

Stole the Minister's Clothes.

STOUR CITY, Ia., Aug. 30.—While the Rev. S. G. Jones, of the Methodist church at Salix, was baptizing some converts in the Missouri river last Sunday, his clothing was stolen by hoodlums. He had doffed his clothing and donned his robes in the woods near the river, and when the baptism was over his position was embarrassing. While attending a Sunday school convention here yesterday, Mr. Jones was arrested on a charge of lewdness. The warrant was sworn out by a saloon-keeper, who alleged that the minister had disrobed in plain view of his entire congregation. Mr. Jones has been active in prosecuting saloon-keepers, and his church will help him make the fight more fierce.

He Differs With Carlisle.

WASHINGTON, Aug. 30.—Secretary Carlisle received this morning a 1200-word telegram from Collector Russell, of Chicago, in which he takes issue with the secretary of the treasury as to charging the rates of the act of 1890 on goods imported prior to August 28th, forwarded under immediate transportation to be entered for consumption under the new tariff. Secretary Carlisle will give the matter his consideration today, and will probably render a decision this evening.

Cleveland and Hawaii Again.

CHICAGO, Aug. 30.—A Washington special to the Daily News says there is a well-founded assertion that President Cleveland said recently he would terminate the reciprocity treaty with Hawaii. His object is to make sugar from Hawaii dutiable. The new tariff bill expressly continues the Hawaiian treaty, which it is asserted gives the sugar trust great advantage. Under it the treaty may be terminated after 12 months' notice.

RESPECT FOR WOMEN.

A Man's True Character Shown by This More Than by His Religion.

When a man habitually speaks slightingly of any woman, or of women as a class, he betrays himself in attempting to injure woman. It is related, says the New York Advertiser, that at a public dinner recently, at which no women were present, a man of this ilk was called upon to respond to the toast: "Woman." He dwelt almost entirely upon the weakness of the sex, claiming that the best among them were little better than the worst, the difference being in their surroundings. At the conclusion of his speech one of the guests rose and said: "I trust that the gentleman in the application of his remarks referred to his own mother and sisters and not to ours." This answer turned his weapon against himself with a vengeance. A celebrated author says: "The criterion of a man's character is not his creed, moral, intellectual or religious; it is the degree of respect that he has for women." An eminent clergyman pays this noble tribute: "I am more grateful to God for the sense that came to me through my mother and sisters of the substantial integrity, purity and nobility of womanhood than for almost anything else in the world." Such golden memories color the book of life with the beauty of God.

Vegetable Ivory.

The vegetable ivory of commerce is an albuminous substance formed from a milky fluid in the fruit of a species of palm indigenous to several parts of Central and South America, but which seems to flourish best in New Granada and Peru. It corresponds to the meat of the cocoon, which latter is the fruit of another species of palm. When vegetable ivory nuts are ripe they are covered with a brown skin, are bean-shaped, the interior being perfectly white and very hard.

It Should Be in Every House.

J. B. Wilson, 371 Clay St., Sharpshurg, Pa., says he will not be without Dr. King's New Discovery for consumption, coughs and colds, that it cured his wife who was threatened with pneumonia after an attack of "la grippe," when various other remedies and several physicians had done her no good. Robert Barber, of Cookport, Pa., claims Dr. King's New Discovery has done him more good than anything he ever used for lung trouble. Nothing like it. Try it. Free trial bottles at Snipes & Kinnersly's.

Malarial and other atmosphere influences are best counteracted by keeping the blood pure and vigorous with Ayer's Sarsaparilla. A little caution in this respect may prevent serious illness at this season. Ayer's Sarsaparilla is the best all-the-year-round medicine in existence.

Improper and deficient care of the scalp will cause grayness of the hair and baldness. Escape both by the use of that reliable specific, Hall's Hair Renewer.
