SEPTEMBER SAYINGS.

Leaves From the Notebook of Chronicle Reporters.

Grain sacks for sale at the Wasco warehouse.

Don't forget Blind Tom at the Baldwin Opera House Monday night.

Blind Tom, the wonder of the musical world, at Baldwin's opera house Monday night.

The wool is getting pretty well cleaned out, so that there is plenty of room in the warehouses for wheat.

A public meeting at the Salvation Army barracks tonight. The prison missionary, Mrs. Smith, will preside at the meeting.

There was quite a heavy rain in the section between Bake Oven and Prineville Wednesday, just where it will do lots of good by starting the grass, and can do no harm, as there is but little grain raised there.

The planing mill and box factory belonging to the Oregon Lumbering Company at Baker City, were destroyed by fire last week. Loss $25,000.

We have heard several persons express the opinion that the remains of Emil Schutz should be brought here for interment. It is probable that some time this will be done, as he has many friends here who will not soon forget him.

Jos. H. Warner was examined by Dr. Hollister and Judge Blakeley yesterday afternoon and pronounced insane. He has an idea that he is possessed of vast wealth and issues checks of large denominations to those who come near him. He will be taken to Salem tomorrow.

Hood River ought to have quite a number of carloads of apples to ship this fall. Last year about thirty carloads were shipped and there should be two or three times as many this year. Next year thousands of young trees will yield their first crop and then that section will begin to flourish. With $75,000 worth of strawberries and more than that amount of apples for shipment, the people down that way ought to be reasonably happy.

Deputy U. S. Marshal Murphy received a warrant from Portland yesterday commanding him to arrest F. M. Bean and - Horne, charged with opening mail belonging to another. This is a continuation of the case tried here the other day before Commissioner Huntington. It strikes us that Bean had better capitulate, the woman seems determined to have him and under the circumstances he had better marry than go to the penitentiary though in this particular case we don't blame him for taking the latter alternative. Some things are worse than being shut up for ten years.

Insane.

Dr. Brosius and E. S. Olinger came up from Hood River on the local today bringing with them a Mrs. Turner, who has suddenly become insane. The unfortunate lady came from Portland about five weeks ago. She is not violent but has several separate and distinct delusions, the most harmful of which is that she must deliver a lecture on some subject she knows not what. It is thought a short treatment will restore her mental balance, and she will be taken to Salem along with Mr. Warner, who was declared insane yesterday, by Sheriff Driver tomorrow. Mrs. Turner claims to have a son at Woodville, in Jackson county.

Blind Tom in Town.

The many admirers of Blind Tom, who were shocked by the report that he was lost in the Johnstown disaster will be glad to learn that the report was unfounded, and that Blind Tom is well and doing well. He will delight large audiences at the Madison Street Theater October 12th, 13th, 14th and 15th. He is as interesting as ever, and all who have heard him should hear him again, and those who have never heard him will lose a rare treat if they fail to attend his wonderful recitals.—The Conservator, Chicago, Ill.

Real Estate Transactions.

The following deeds were filed for record today:

The Oregon Land, Irrigation, Lumber and Fuel Co. to Geo. W. McCoy, a continuous flow of twenty-five cubic feet of water per second perpetually on lands now owned, or that may hereafter be acquired by grantee; consideration, $500.

Joseph T Peters and wife to Charles B Cushing and Ellis M Cushing, lot 6 and west half of lot 5 in block 20 in Gates addition to Dalles City; $2,000.

Boat Railway at The Dalles.

Instructions have been sent to Major Post by the war department to make an examination and report upon the right of way for a boat railway at the dalles of the Columbia river. If the prices are reasonable in his judgment, they will be accepted. Where unreasonable, the attorney-general will be asked to begin condemnation proceedings.

When Baby was sick, we gave her Castoria. When she was a Child, she cried for Castoria. When she became Miss, she clung to Castoria. When she had Children, she gave them Castoria.

THE MARKETS.

FRIDAY, Sept. 7.—There has been but little change in the business situation during the week, and prices of staples remain steady. Sugar is stronger with a tendency towards higher prices.

The provision market is active with quotations unvarying. Country produce of all kinds is abundant and prices correspondingly low. Potatoes bring 50 to 75 cents per 100 pounds, prices being governed by quality. There is a promise of better prices, if railroad charges will permit shipments to the East, where the shortage is heavy.

The market is overstocked with fruit and prices are not named. Peaches range from 25 to 50 cents per box. Apples and pears from 25 to 40 cents.

The melon crop is an excellent one both as to quality and quantity, the abundance bringing price to a very low point. A great many melons have been shipped, relieving the glut on the local market, but they are at prices where everybody can eat them.

There is no change in poultry, broilers bring from $1.25 to $1.50 and old fowls from $2 to $2.25 per dozen.

The meat market is at bedrock prices. Beef $1.50 to $2 per hundred. Mutton the same and pork 3 1/2 cents all gross weights.

The wheat season has hardly commenced here. The mills are paying 32 cents per bushel for choice grade, but the market price for the crop will not go beyond 30 cents, while some has been sold as low as 28. The West Coast Trade says:

"The wheat situation is still a matter of conjecture. Buyers are very reticent about giving information before the market fairly opens, and the price remains unchanged, with no prospect of a raise unless something unforeseen should arise. The war in the East does not seem to affect the market very materially, yet a slight rise was noticed in the European market a few days ago, which very soon subsided and carried with it some of the strength the market had manifested during former reverses. One of the hopeful features, however, is the resumption of charters, which shows that it matters not what those who have a corner on the crop propose to do, a considerable amount of Washington wheat will find its way into the foreign market. It is reasonably certain that a large per cent of the crop will leave first hands very soon after it is threshed, and as the storage capacity is not sufficient on the Pacific coast to hold the entire crop tributary to it, the movement of a portion at least to the centers of consumption is the only alternative. The decline in European markets leaves the local situation without encouragement, and there is nothing to do but watch and wait."

The wool season is about over but prices remain unchanged, running from 7 to 9 cents, according to grade. Most of the clip has been shipped.

Short Petitions.

Three of the Cascade Locks saloon keepers, McDonough, McMillan and Williams, having their applications for licenses before the county commissioner are in rather uncomfortable shape. The law requires that the petitions shall contain a number of names equal to a majority of the legal votes cast at the last election, and greater than any remonstrance filed against it. There are no remonstrances in the above cases but the petitions do not contain sufficient names to comply with the law. This will compel them to get up new petitions, republish them and make new application. As the petitions have to be advertised four weeks and the present licenses have about expired it is causing considerable annoyance.

Dufur Doings.

After a few weeks of absence I will again resume business in the way of taking down the items and happenings.

There has been several quite heavy rains which it was feared would injure the grain in the stacks but fortunately has as yet done no great damage. All we want is dry weather until after threshing.

Everybody and his neighbor is busy heading or threshing and the yield is heavy.

Messrs. S. B. Johnston and J. A. Stevens have purchased a new threshing machine.

Miss Blanche Dufur is very sick at her home.

We are pleased to note that Mr. J. C. Tuttle is once more about the streets.

The little children of Mr. Alvin Quinn have been sick but from late reports are better.

Mr. Alfred Strickland was in town Monday and reports farmers busy and a big harvest around Nansene.

Saturday evening Prof. Frazier gave an interesting lecture on "Home Education," in the M. E. church.

Rev. Jenkins will preach in the U. B. church Saturday and Sunday evenings.

Mrs. J. C. Johnston has gone to Portland for a visit to her father, Mr. and Mrs. L. Klinger.

Mr. and Miss Neal have returned from their berrying trip to the summit.

Mr. L. B. Thomas is teaching the 8-Mile school where he taught in the spring, which shows L. B. needs no recommendation.

The Dufur school commences Monday Sept. 17th, instead of the 3d, as was first intended, with Prof. Frazier in his usual place and Edith Peabody in the primary department.

Bicycles seem to be a thing of the past, and the latest fad in Dufur at present is everyone is getting himself a new dog.

Sunday night there was quite a serious accident. Henry Pitman, Henry Hinman and several other men were going to the threshing machine, when from some unknown cause the horses became unmanageable and ran away, tipping the wagon over. The box fell on Mr. Pitman's hand, breaking it between the wrist and first joint of the thumb and dislocating the wrist. He was brought to the drug store where Dr. Deitrich attended to his injuries. This makes one more for the already full calendar of accidents of the past year.

"Mary had a little lamb," "We all know that is old," "The boy stood on the burning deck," "He too is left in the cold," "But now with the low price of grain, The question is, What will the farmers do This year? says—"
