TWO DAYS' FIGHTING

Chinese and Japanese Have a Battle

NOT DECIDED AT LAST ACCOUNTS

Mohammedans and Hindoos Killing Each Other--Egyptian Slave-Dealers--Convicted.

SHANGHAI, Sept. 13.—Rumors have reached here that a battle was fought between Chinese and Japanese near Kair Cheng, Corea, about September 2. Native newspapers of September 10th say the fight lasted two days and was still undecided when the news was forwarded the native press. Chinese papers of September 12th announce that General Yeh, Chinese commander, reports having gained a victory over the Japanese. It is supposed here, however, that the Chinese have met with a reverse at Ping Yang.

The floods in Corea still prevent the Chinese troops from crossing the Imchin river to attack the Japanese intrenchments.

Another report current here says the Kirino division of the Chinese army has crossed the Kulin river and is now holding the city of Suhning, while awaiting the advance of the main body before attacking the Japanese right flank. No reliable news, it may be added, is obtainable here regarding the progress of the war.

Mother and Children Starved.

CAMDEN, N. J. Sept. 13.—Mrs. Kate Massey, her three-year-old child and infant were found starving yesterday, in their house in Westminster avenue, Stockton, near Camden. A month ago Mrs. Massey's husband died while undergoing an operation in a Philadelphia hospital; two weeks later Mrs. Massey gave birth to a child. She was left destitute, but she would not ask for aid, and her neighbors did not know her condition until yesterday, when Overseer of the Poor John Renner visited her house and found her and the children apparently dying. Mr. Renner immediately summoned Dr. O. L. Greembrecht, but the doctor said the women and her children were too exhausted to recover, so he took them in hand immediately. The infant died soon afterwards. Its death was entirely due to lack of nourishment. Mrs. Massey can live but a few days at the furthest and the other child is very low. The mother had starved herself and given the trifling food she had to her older child.

About Franz Joseph.

LONDON, Sept. 13.—The Standard's Vienna correspondent telegraphs: Emperor Francis Joseph was in Vienna this afternoon, and drove out to Schoenbrunn. On a corner of the Prater a outh sprang to the step of the carriage, holding a petition. The emperor was startled, but he took the paper. The outh was arrested. He said he was a clerk, 21 years old, belonging in Lemberg. He said he had a grievance against the authorities. It is not believed that he intended an attempt on the emperor's life.

LONDON, Sept. 13.—The Daily Chronicle says that 21 Ruchenian Semarists have been arrested in Tarnapol, Galicia, for having formed a treasonable conspiracy during Emperor Franz Joseph's visit in Lemberg.

Bank of England Dividend.

LONDON, Sept. 13.—The governors of the Bank of England, at the half-yearly meeting today declared a dividend of 4 per cent. The reason for the reduction of a decrease of profits, said to be due to the unprecedented increase in the reserve and the low value of money. Since February 28 one result of the Bank liquidation has been a reduction of 1,075,000, making the liability £2,481,55, and the debt due the bank £2,409,000. It is believed no loss will fall upon the guarantors.

A Denial From Crispi.

PARIS, Sept. 13.—A Rome dispatch to Temps says the Crispi organ denies that he is making overtures for a reconciliation between the king and the vatican.

Chinese Warships Gathering.

HUAPU, Sept. 13.—Reports are that the Chinese admiralty has determined to order to Pei Yang from the Yang-Tse coast all warships of a certain tonnage and armament. The dispatch adds that a number of torpedo-boats from the squadrons at Foo Chow, Canton and Nanking will also be ordered to Pei Yang. The intriguing enemies of the viceroy, Li Hung Chang, have reported to the throne the presence at Tien-Tsin of Chang Pei Lun, the viceroy's son-in-law, banished in 1884. The throne has ordered his return to exile.

Bandits in Guatemala.

OAXACA, Mexico, Sept. 13.—Late advices from Chiapas state the troubles on the Guatemalan border are growing more serious, and the indications are favorable for bloodshed unless the two governments reach an understanding as to what is to be done with the brigands and cutthroats, who make the border country their rendezvous and pray upon peaceable citizens. Several villages along the border in Guatemala have been sacked by outlaws, and murders and other outrages committed.

Religious War in Bombay.

BOMBAY, Sept. 13.—Some Mohammedans listening to the reading of a koran in a mosque at Hohwa City at midnight, objected to the music in a procession of Hindoos. The latter persisted and the Mohammedans raised the war cry. A fight ensued lasting three hours, 40,000 people, mostly Hindoos, participating. The mosque was sacked and an attempt made to destroy it by fire. One man was killed and many injured.

A Reconciliation Remote.

LONDON, Sept. 13.—The Standard's Rome correspondent telegraphs that the language of the clerical papers is calculated to render a reconciliation between the government and the vatican remote. Crispi's recent action was to foreshadow an alliance of all the conservative elements in the government at the next election, in which the radicals and socialists have a good chance of succeeding.

The Czar's Illness.

LONDON, Sept. 13.—The correspondent at Vienna of the Chronicle says: "News received from St. Petersburg indicates the Czar's illness is cerebral, complicated with an ailment of the kidneys. Prayers for his recovery have been ordered twice at court. The czar is mentally depressed. He gets tired after the shortest period of work. His stay in the desert, as reported, has been beneficial."

Egyptian Slave-Dealers Convicted.

CARIB, Sept. 13.—Ali Cheriff, president of the legislative council, and Hassan Wacciyf, a retired general of the Egyptian army, arrested August 28 charged with purchasing slave girls, recently brought here from Wadai, have been convicted. Sbarawi Pasha, charged with the same offense, has absconded.

Severe Storms in Spain.

MADRID, Sept. 13.—Southwest Mediterranean towns of Spain have been visited by severe storms. Cata and Javea were flooded, and many lives lost. Several vessels in the Bay of Galla were wrecked.

Against the Government.

BERLIN, Sept. 13.—During Emperor William's visit to Marienburg, red posters bearing the words, "Down with the emperor and monarchy," were found displayed in various parts of the town.

German War Vessels Reviewed.

SWINEBUNDE, Prussia, Sept. 13.—The emperor today reviewed the German war vessels in the harbor. He was greeted with salutes. Thousands witnessed the review.

Deserving Praise

We desire to say to our citizens, that for years we have been selling Dr. King's New Discovery for Consumption, Dr. King's New Life Pills, Bucklen's Arnica Salve and Electric Bitters, and have never handled remedies that sell as well, or that have given such universal satisfaction. We do not hesitate to guarantee them every time, as we stand ready to refund the purchase price, if satisfactory results do not follow their use. These remedies have won their real popularity purely on their merits. Snipes & Kinerally's druggists.
