MURDER AND SUICIDE.

Portland yesterday had a sensational murder and suicide in the killing of Mrs. Mabel Calvin by John W. Stengele. The woman in the case was the daughter of Mr. S. Forehand, manager and principal owner of the Forehand Arms Co. of Worcester, Mass. Mrs. Calvin was about 29 years of age, and came to Portland about a year ago, it is said for the purpose of getting a divorce. She met Stengele and it was a case of love at first sight, which resulted in a promise to marry as soon as the marital ties by which Mrs. Calvin was bound could be severed. The lady tired of her bargain, it seems, but found it difficult to shake the infatuated youth to whom she was engaged.

Sunday Stengele deliberately followed her and accosting her as she alighted from a street car, was repulsed and told by his victim that she did not want to be bothered by him. Whereupon he drew his pistol and shot her through the body and then the head. Stopping only long enough to assure himself that his victim was dead, he placed the muzzle of the pistol against his head and blew the vacuum out of it.

His friends say he was insane, but this is trash. The act was that of a selfish, self-willed fool, who because of his pride he could not possess the toy he wanted, destroyed it and himself. The woman had her share of blame because she had no business being on with the new love before she was off with the old. Had Stengele confined his efforts to putting an end to his own life, it might be attributed to insanity but the killing of the woman he professed to love was a cowardly crime committed for the same reason a burglar kills the man he is robbing, the desire to possess that which does not belong to him, through force. The woman dead is not to be pitied, if living her life had been tied to that of her murderer. Such love as his is fitted for the stygian darkness of the lower world, the tie that binds Nemesis to the Furies, and makes the imps of selfishness howl with delight.

WOMAN'S RIGHTS.

The fight in Kentucky is over and Breckinridge is downed. Owens beats him in the district by a handsome majority, and Breckinridge takes his defeat philosophically and says he will support the democratic nominee. The fight is a peculiar one in many respects, the most striking of which is that the women of the district took sides with their sister as against her betrayer. In this respect the case is decidedly unique. It has been truly said thousands of times that a man may be guilty of offenses against morality and nothing will be thought of it; but a woman who once steps aside is condemned forever. As a great Irish orator put it, "Virtue, like an umbrella, once lost is gone forever." This is preeminently true. The man is forgiven, the woman damned for all eternity. The worst of it is that however much the men might be disposed to lift her up and reclaim her, the women are her judges and executioners. Woman has the correction of this evil in her own hands, and when she treats both parties to an offense as she does the woman there will be less of it.

her out. Husband and father, brother and son alike are deaf to her agonizing cries for mercy and thrust her from their sight. But on the other hand I have seen men fall as low as it is possible for men to fall. I have seen the wife follow the husband from the gutter and press him to her heart. I have seen the wife follow the husband through this life in one constant whirl of misery, and when by the gates of hell they were separated, weep because she could go no further. I have seen the mother follow the son and the sister the brother through paths man has never been known to follow woman. Let the angels in heaven be the jury and God Almighty the judge.—Anon.

Bill Nye certainly had a hand in writing up the murder and suicide at Portland yesterday, for whose but his versatile brain would have thought of inserting such a paragraph as this into such an article? "She was dressed in a black brocade silk of the very latest fashion, and a dainty straw hat. Although modest and unassuming the dress indicated her a woman of good position and refinement." Now when you have absorbed that peruse the further dissertation of the thanatopsis writer: "Her father supplied her with sufficient means to satisfy every whim, and although she had an extensive wardrobe of the latest-style garments, they were all of subdued and modest shades." If that wouldn't jar the pop corn off a Christmas tree, what would? We would like to see that reporter throw himself on a wedding.

Children who are puny, pale, weak, or scrofulous, ought to take Dr. Pierce's Golden Medical Discovery. That builds up both their flesh and their strength. For this, and for purifying the blood, there's nothing in all medicine that can equal the "Discovery."

In recovering from "Grippe," or in convalescence from pneumonia, fevers, or other wasting diseases, it speedily and surely invigorates and builds up the whole system. As an appetizing, restorative tonic, it sets at work all the processes of digestion and nutrition, rouses every organ into natural action, and brings back health and strength.

For all diseases caused by a torpid liver or impure blood, Dyspepsia, Biliousness, Scrofulous, Skin and Scalp Diseases—even Consumption (or Lung-scrofula) in its earlier stages—the "Discovery" is the only guaranteed remedy.

If it doesn't benefit or cure, in every case, you have your money back.

Mrs. J. H. HORSNYDER, 152 Pacific Ave., Santa Cruz, Cal., writes:

"When a girl at school, in Reading, Ohio, I had a severe attack of brain fever. On my recovery, I found myself perfectly bald, and, for a long time, I feared I should be permanently so. Friends urged me to use Ayer's Hair Vigor, and, on doing so, my hair Began to Grow, and I now have as fine a head of hair as one could wish for, being changed, however, from blonde to dark brown."

"After a fit of sickness, my hair came out in combfalls. I used two bottles of Ayer's Hair Vigor and now my hair is over a yard long and very full and heavy. I have recommended this preparation to others with like good effect."—Mrs. Sidney Carr, 1499 Regina st., Harrisburg, Pa.
