dence in Fulton's Addition.

the Christian church tonight at 7:30.

One drunk and disorderly faced the city recorder this morning and was fined $5.

Mr. H. J. Maier is erecting a handsome residence near the west end of Third street.

The weather predictions for tomorrow are fair, followed by cloudy weather and probably rain.

The sisters are putting a brick foundation or wall in front of the academy, and will erect an iron fence thereon.

Pease & Mays' store will be closed this evening from 4:30 to 7 o'clock. Don't forget that they will have a grand opening this evening.

There will be a special meeting of the King's Daughters tomorrow afternoon at 2 o'clock at Mrs. Joles'. All members are requested to be present.

If you want doors, windows, shingles,

The body of the late James A. Varney will arrive here tonight, in charge of members of the Grand Army of the Republic. The funeral will take place tomorrow morning at 10 o'clock from the Congregational church.

Deputy U. S. Marshal Murphy arrested a man named McGee, yesterday, for selling liquor to Indians. He was caught in the act of giving the Indian two quart bottles of alcohol. His examination took place this morning, and he will be taken below tomorrow.

Ernest Bross, exchange editor of the Oregonian, and Miss Anna E. Gore of Baltimore, Md., were married at that city lately. Mr. and Mrs. Bross will return to Portland soon, where Mr. Bross' friends will no doubt learn that his selection of a wife was made with excellent taste and judgment as his selections for his paper.

The city recorder has a case set for trial at 4 o'clock this afternoon, being held over from Saturday. It is a job lot of three charged with being drunk and disorderly. The recorder is evidently satisfied of his ability to successfully deal with them, for he has another hold-over case set for 5 o'clock, the latter being a charge of fighting, mutual assault and battery, and disturbing the peace.

There will be a meeting of the McKinley Club at the court house Thursday evening, the 27th. Senator Dolph will be present and will have something to say, especially concerning the interes.s of this section. Notice was made of this meeting last week, giving the date for Friday evening, but the date has been changed as above.

Rufus Wallace of Rufus is in the city.
He tells us that several steam threshing outfits have arrived in Sherman county recently. The elevator which was to be moved from Grant to Murray proved too much of a contract, so it was taken to pieces and hauled to Rufus, where it is being rebuilt. Kinzie & Somers have abandoned Grant and are putting up a machine shop and buildings a hundred feet square at Rufus.

Mrs. Charley White, of Chamberlin Flat, was bitten by a rattlesnake yesterday while packing up peaches, at her home. She was reaching out to get one close to a tree, when the snake suddenly jumped and bit one of the fingers on the right hand. She came to town at once, and Drs. Stowell and Stewart dressed the wound. At the hour of going to press she was in a very critical condition.—Agriculturalist.

A short programme will be rendered.

Mrs. A. USQUHART,

When Baby was sick, we gave her Castoria.
When she was a Child, she cried for Castoria.
When she became Miss, she clung to Castoria.
When she had Children, she gave them Castoria.

"Papa" said Johnny, "what's a sera-phim?" "A seraphim, my son," said Mr. Knowitall, "is a male seraph, the final syllable 'him' being added for identification."—Harper's Bazar.

Mosier Mines.

There is quite a mining excitement at Mosier. A short time ago a woman residing near that place found a piece of quartz that was filled with fine gold.
We had quite a conversation with Mr.
Fisher last night concerning it, and from him learn there is quite a deposit of cement gravel containing quartz, in the hills back of Mosier, and it is probable the quartz containing the gold came from this deposit, as the general formation of the country is basaltic. There is some sandstone of recent formation and a large deposit of silica. The quartz gravel is a very ancient wash, the same deposit cropping out on the bank of Hood river at the end of the railroad bridge. That deposit, however, has been prospected with no results greater than a few fine colors. The same formation is found extending along the base of the mountains twenty miles back of Vancouver, the character of the quartz being the same, and all of it barren.
We judge from this that our Mosier friends have nothing very promising in the shape of mining prospects. Her future is bright with promise, but her gold will come from her orchards instead of her mines.

Afraid of His Neighbors.

It now transpires that Gloystein, the farmer who suddenly disappeared from his home near Mica in Spokane county, and who was supposed to have been murdered by the populists, was not murdered at all. The newspaper accounts of the affairs at the time pictured Gloy-stein as a remarkably brave man who defied the populists and did not fear anything. Instead of that it seems he was an arrant coward. He was discovered working on a farm near Moro, in Sherman county, by Sheriff Pugh and acknowledged his identity. He confessed to rapping on the house by reaching out of the window, and in response to his wife's call went outside. He put blood on his hat and then fled. He says he did this because he feared for his life. His wife, who is in Spokane, will join him at Moro.
