PRESIDENTIAL POSSIBILITIES.

Politics have become so pre-eminently the province and occupation of the American people that it naturally comes to the front at all times and on all occasions.

The next president should be a western man; one who has had energy enough to get out of the state in which he was born and get a personal knowledge of the magnitude and resources of the country, and one who is not, and never has been, the attorney for one or more great corporations; a man of the people, and of the whole people instead of some particular class.

The next president will be a republican, and from present indications the nominees will be either Tom Reed or Wm. McKinley, and though geography is against Reed, he will be elected if nominated.

SELECT THE SEED.

The following from the pen of Prof. Cleveland Abbe, for a quarter of a century a professor in the weather bureau, will no doubt be found of value, or at least give germs of thought to the reader.

"Money should not be wasted on the rainmakers, but spent on wells, ditches, reservoirs, irrigation, windmills, and in other useful ways. An artificial pond and a grove of trees encircling it to break the wind would save more water than the rainmakers can ever hope to bring down."

"The effect of a dry season is to perfect seed that will prosper in a similar dry season, and vice versa. The seed taken from a dry field ought to succeed next year if planted in a dry field; but, of course, still better if planted in a moist field.

John L. Wilson member of congress from Washington is a versatile chap. According to latest reports Wilson desires to be the next United States senator from his state.

Sherman act. It is not very long ago either that Mr. Wilson applied to President Cleveland to be appointed register of the Spokane land office.

Madeline Pollard is going to star, and her manager expects her to make a great hit. If the ladies of the country at large will do as good and conscientious work as those of Kentucky Miss Pollard will be relegated to the shades of private life as thoroughly as her partner the late W. C. Breckinridge.

DRAWBACKS OF FREE LIBRARIES

The Particular Book You Want Is Always Out and the System of Fines Annoying. Here is one man's experience of a free circulating library.

"I threw it aside on reaching home and forgot I had it until a postal warning me of the due of one cent for every day over two weeks in which I had it had now set in.

"At last one time with a book in my possession I left town. A siege of postal notices and of visits from a mysterious-looking man kept my servant busy. I had forgotten all about the book, and my friends were indignant over the dunning of this individual.

Two Kinds of Women need Dr. Pierce's Favorite Prescription—those who want to be made strong, and those who want to be made well.

It's for young girls just entering womanhood; for women who have reached the critical "change of life"; for women expecting to become mothers; for mothers who are nursing and exhausted; for every woman who is run-down, delicate or overworked.

"Favorite Prescription" is the only remedy so unfailingly that it can be guaranteed. If it doesn't benefit or cure, in every case, the money will be returned.

Choking, sneezing and every other form of catarrh in the head, is radically cured by Dr. Sage's Catarrh Remedy.

Notice to Taxpayers. The county board of equalization will meet in the assessor's office on Monday, Sept. 24th, and continue in session one week, for the purpose of equalizing the assessment of Wasco county for 1894.

Miss Emmaline—There's a lovely surf here, papa. Mr. Baddley (motioning towards the incoming waves)—Yes; it's imported.—Harper's Bazar.

Sufferers from dyspepsia have only themselves to blame if they fail to test the wonderful curative qualities of Ayer's Sarsaparilla. In purifying the blood, this medicine strengthens every organ of the body, and even the most abused stomach is soon restored to healthy action.

There is a frightful lot of love wasted; people are extravagant with it in their youth, and suffer for the lack of it in their old age.—Athenian Globe.

If you have sick or nervous headache, take Ayer's Cathartic Pills. They will cleanse the stomach, restore healthy action to the digestive organs, remove effete matter (the presence of which depresses the nerves and brain,) and thus give speedy relief.

Football enthusiasm runs high among boys at the university, and their grid-iron is covered with white uniforms after 3 o'clock p. m.

Nearly all women have good hair though many are gray, and few are bald. Hall's Hair Renewer restores the natural color, and thickens the growth of the hair.

Notice. No Freight will be accepted for shipment between the hours of 5 P. M. and 9 A. M., except Live Stock and Perishable Goods.
