LET IT RUN

and your cough may end in something serious. It's pretty sure to, if your blood is poor. That is just the time and condition that invites Consumption. The seeds are sown and it has fastened its hold upon you, before you know that it is near.

It won't do to trifle and delay, when the remedy is at hand. Every disorder that can be reached through the blood yields to Dr. Pierce's Golden Medical Discovery. For Severe Coughs, Bronchial, Throat and Lung Diseases, Asthma, Scrofula in every form, and even the scrofulous affection of the lungs that's called Consumption, in all its earlier stages, it is a positive and complete cure.

It is the only blood-cleanser, strength-restorer, and flesh-builder so effective that it can be guaranteed. If it doesn't benefit or cure, in every case, you have your money back. All medicine dealers have it.

For every case of Catarrh which they cannot cure, the proprietors of Dr. Sage's Catarrh Remedy agree to pay $500 in cash. You're cured by its mild, soothing, cleansing, and healing properties, or you're paid.

"I'm going to have that stock investigated," said the investor. "There's been a good deal of funny business in that corporation." "True," said Bar-saw; "and I'd advise you to employ a diver to do your investigating, there's so much water in it."—Harper's Bazar.

While in Chicago, Mr. Charles L. Kahler, a prominent shoe merchant of Des Moines, Iowa, had quite a serious time of it. He took such a severe cold that he could hardly talk or navigate, but the prompt use of Chamberlain's Cough Remedy cured him so quickly that others at the hotel who had had colds followed his example and half a dozen persons ordered it from the nearest drug store. They were profuse in their thanks to Mr. Kahler for telling them how to cure a bad cold so quickly. For sale by Blakeley & Houghton Druggists.

"Those poor Arctic explorers have had some dreadful experiences," said the sympathetic woman. "I know it," replied young Mrs. Torkins. "But they have had their pictures taken in some perfectly lovely furs."—Washington Star.

Ayer's Sarsaparilla does what no other blood medicine in existence can do. It searches out all impurities in the system and expels them harmlessly through the proper channels. This is why Ayer's Sarsaparilla is so pre-eminently effective as a remedy for rheumatism.

There is more Catarrh in this section of the country than all other diseases put together, and until the last few years was supposed to be incurable. For a great many years doctors pronounced it a local disease, and prescribed local remedies, and by constantly failing to cure with local treatment, pronounced it incurable. Science has proven catarrh to be a constitutional disease and therefore requires constitutional treatment. Hall's Catarrh, manufactured by F. J. Cheney & Co., Toledo, Ohio, is the only constitutional cure in the market. It is taken internally in doses from 10 drops to a teaspoonful. It acts directly on the blood and mucous surfaces of the system. They offer one hundred dollars for any case it fails to cure. Send for circulars and testimonials. Address: F. J. CHENEY & Co., Toledo, O. Sold by Druggists, 75c.

"Finny Reilley is gettin' to be a reg'lar dude at school." "What does he do?" "When he spits on his slate he rubs it off wid his sleeve 'stead of his hand."—Chicago Inter-Ocean.

Specimen Cases.
 S. H. Clifford, New Cassel, Wis., was troubled with neuralgia and rheumatism, his stomach was disordered, his liver was affected to an alarming degree, appetite fell away, and he was terribly reduced in flesh and strength. Three bottles of Electric Bitters cured him.

Edward Shepherd, Harrisburg, Ill., had a running sore on his leg of eight years' standing. Used three bottles of Electric Bitters and seven boxes of Bucklen's Arnica Salve, and his leg is sound and well. John Speaker, Catawba, O., had five large fever sores on his leg, doctors said he was incurable. One bottle Electric Bitters and one box Bucklen's Arnica Salve cured him entirely. Sold by Snipes & Kinerly.

It is said some Chinese and many Africans use the ear as a pocket to carry coins and other small articles. If any attempt were made to rob them they would hear of it.—Piscayune.

Now Try This.
 It will cost you nothing and will surely do you good, if you have a cough, cold, or any trouble with throat, chest or lungs. Dr. King's New Discovery for consumption, coughs and colds is guaranteed to give relief, or money will be paid back. Sufferers from la grippe found it just the thing and under its use had a speedy and thorough recovery. Try a sample bottle at our expense, and learn for yourself just how good a thing it is. Trial bottles free at Snipes & Kinerly's drug store. Large size 50c and $1.

Servant—Miss Penstock told me to tell you she had gone out shopping, sur. Dashaway—Queer she should say that. Why, she did not know that I was going to call. Servant—She said she feared it, sur.—New York Herald.

Irving W. Laimore, physical director of Y. M. C. A., Des Moines, Iowa, says he can conscientiously recommend Chamberlain's Pain Balms to athletes, gymnasts, bicyclists, foot ball players and the profession in general for bruises, sprains and dislocations; also for soreness and stiffness of the muscles. When applied before the parts become swollen it will effect a cure in one half the time usually required. For sale by Blakeley & Houghton Druggists.

"This is very alarming," said the old man as he got up at 4 o'clock in the morning and threw the humming clock over into the next yard.—Syracuse Post.

A. M. Bailey, a well-known citizen of Eugene, Or., says his wife has for years been troubled with chronic diarrhoea and used many remedies with little relief until she tried Chamberlain's Colic, Cholera and Diarrhoea Remedy, which has cured her sound and well. Give it a trial and you will be surprised at the prompt relief it affords. 25 and 50 cent bottles for sale by Blakeley & Houghton Druggists.

THE NEWFOUNDLAND DOG.

He is the Noblest Species of the Whole Canine Race.
 The Newfoundland dog takes his name from the island where he is supposed to have originated. Many, however, believe that the Norsemen, who discovered America in the year 1000, introduced this dog in Newfoundland. He is by some classified among the wolf-dogs, while others, on account of his large pendulous ears, say that he should not belong to this family, but that he and the St. Bernards should occupy a place by themselves.

The Newfoundland, says Harper's Young People, since his introduction in England, has improved in appearance, and is now larger and heavier. In Newfoundland and Labrador these dogs are used as beasts of burden, drawing considerable loads of wood and provisions on sledges. Their feet are partially webbed, and therefore they are most excellent water dogs. The scent is not strong, and as the dog is slow and clumsy, he is not valuable to the hunter, except as a retriever when speed is not required.

In the island of Newfoundland this dog is almost totally black, but the English varieties are usually black and white. As a watch-dog the Newfoundland is only second to the mastiff. He is amiable to children and small dogs. Kept in confinement he often gets cross and ill-tempered, and flies at those for whom he has previously shown the greatest regard.

Where a dog cannot be allowed to run, and must be chained up, the Newfoundland should not be kept. This dog is a great life-saver, and by instinct will jump into the water to save even an enemy from drowning.

THE VAMPIRE BAT.

A Dread Creature That Is Common in India.

I have always despised bats, said a Cleveland man recently, and it always sends a shudder over me whenever one of the hideous creatures approaches me. The bats of this country, however, are not to be dreaded in comparison to those of the vampire species which abound in India. Just imagine a big mouse with a horn on his head like a rhinoceros, furnish him with a pair of demon-like wings, and you have a very good picture of this latter kind. The natives dread the vampire bat on account of his blood-sucking propensity. In the sultry nights he fans the heated sleeper with his wings while his needle-like teeth are being inserted into the veins of his victim, quenching his thirst for blood with such gentleness that it is only by some fortunate chance that he is discovered before the mischief is done. It is a well-authenticated fact that if an individual is once bled by a vampire he is invariably chosen, in preference to all others equally exposed for a subsequent attack, and even if he were to move ten or twenty miles away, no immunity is gained thereby, as the bat is sure to follow him and keep up his blood-thirsty attack until his victim succumbs or the animal is discovered and killed. Cattle and horses, from being more exposed, are more frequently chosen as the subjects of attack by these loathsome creatures.

UNAPPRECIATED BANANAS.

Some Superstitions About Haddock and Fern Roots.

The banana possesses wonderful sustaining properties, and yet years ago, in the warm countries where it flourishes, the banana was thought of so lightly that it was allowed to waste if not eaten by the cattle.

The plant itself was valued simply as a shade for coffee trees, between rows of which it was planted. Somebody once told me, says a writer in the Gentlewoman, that the Spaniards used to regard the banana as a forbidden fruit, because they detected in its heart the transverse section of the cross.

I remember, too, how one of my early governesses used to delight me by showing me the cross and the apostles in the center of the passion flower; and the other day a friend told me of some curious symbolical marks to be found at the back of the neck of the haddock, indentations similar to those that might be caused by the finger and thumb, the supposition being that the haddock was one of the fishes picked out of the net on the occasion of the miraculous draft of fishes.

CHAMPIONS IN THEIR LINE.

Absent-Minded People Who Were Simply Wonders.

They are telling a story of a Dutchman who presented himself at the registrar's office recently to obtain a license for his approaching marriage, and who, on being asked the name of the bride, was compelled to confess that it had quite escaped him, and he had to return home for the necessary information. It's a pretty good story of absence of mind, but there are others on record that are even better. There have been cases where persons have even forgotten their own names.

Lessing, the historian, was subject to the most wonderful fits of abstraction. One night, returning home late, he rang the front door bell, and when a servant called out from an upper window that the professor was not at home, he said: "All right, I'll come again," and walked away. There was an English clergyman, Rev. George Harvest, who was engaged to a daughter of the bishop of London, but on the day of his wedding went fishing, and forgetful of the appointed hour did not appear at the nuptials. The lady broke off the match.

Making Rain in India.

A rainmaker in India has an apparatus consisting of a rocket capable of rising to the height of a mile, containing a reservoir of ether; in its descent it opens a parachute, which causes it to come down slowly. The ether is thrown out in fine spray, and its absorption of heat is said to lower the temperature about it sufficiently to condense the vapor and produce a limited shower.
