IRREGULARITY!

Is that what troubles you? Then it's easily and promptly remedied by Dr. Pierce's Pleasant Pellets. They regulate the system perfectly. Take one for a gentle laxative or corrective; three for a cathartic.

If you suffer from Constipation, Indigestion, Bilious Attacks, Sick or Bilious Headaches, or any derangement of the liver, stomach or bowels, try these little Pellets. They bring a permanent cure. Instead of shocking and weakening the system with violence, like the ordinary pills, they act in a perfectly easy and natural way. They're the smallest, the easiest to take—and the cheapest, for they're guaranteed to give satisfaction, or your money is returned. You pay only for the good you get.

In every case of Catarrh that seems hopeless, you can depend upon Dr. Sage's Catarrh Remedy for a cure.

It's proprietors are so sure of it that they'll pay $500 in cash for any incurable case. Sold by all druggists.

There is no medicine so often needed in every home and so admirably adapted to the purposes for which it is intended, as Chamberlain's Pain Balm. Hardly a week passes but some member of the family has need of it. A toothache or headache may be cured by it. A touch of rheumatism, or neuralgia quieted. The severe pain of a burn or scald promptly relieved and the sore healed in much less time than when medicine has to be sent for. A sprain may be promptly treated before inflammation sets in, which insures a cure in about one-third of the time otherwise required. Cuts and bruises should receive immediate treatment before the parts become swollen, which can only be done when Pain Balm is kept at hand. A sore throat may be cured before it becomes serious. A troublesome corn may be removed by applying it twice a day for a week or two. A lame back may be cured and several days of valuable time saved or a pain in the side or chest relieved without paying a doctor bill. Procure a 50 cent bottle at once and you will never regret it. For sale by Blakeley & Houghton Druggists.

Savage Landor, whose Korean articles in the Fortnightly has attracted so much attention, is a grandson of Walter Savage Landor.

There is more Catarrh in this section of the country than all other diseases put together, and until the last few years was supposed to be incurable. For a great many years doctors pronounced it a local disease, and prescribed local remedies, and by constantly failing to cure with local treatment, pronounced it incurable. Science has proven catarrh to be a constitutional disease and therefore requires constitutional treatment. Hall's Catarrh, manufactured by F. J. Cheney & Co., Toledo, Ohio, is the only constitutional cure in the market. It is taken internally in doses from 10 drops to a teaspoonful. It acts directly on the blood and mucous surfaces of the system. They offer one hundred dollars for any case it fails to cure. Send for circulars and testimonials. Address: F. J. CHENEY & Co., Toledo, O. Sold by Druggists, 75c.

Dr. Elliott Cones, who has nearly completed his new edition of "Pike's Expeditions," has just returned from a canoe trip of over 400 miles to the sources of the Mississippi. He reports the making of many important and interesting discoveries.

President George B. Roberts, of the Pennsylvania railroad, whose health has been much improved by his European trip, has resumed the duties of his position in Philadelphia.

George Gould's expenses this season in connection with the yachts Vigilant and Atlanta have been nearly $400,000.

Purely vegetable—Dr. Pierce's Pleasant Pellets. They're a compound of refined and concentrated botanical extracts. These tiny, sugar-coated pellets—the smallest and the easiest to take—absolutely and permanently cure Constipation, Indigestion, Sick and Bilious Headaches, Dizziness, Bilious Attacks, and all derangements of the liver, stomach and bowels.

They cure permanently, because they act naturally. They don't shock and weaken the system, like the huge, old-fashioned pills. And they're more effective. One little pellet for a corrective or laxative—three for a cathartic.

They're the cheapest pills you can buy, for they're guaranteed to give satisfaction, or your money is returned.

You pay only for the good you get.

Specimen Cases.

S. H. Clifford, New Cassel, Wis., was troubled with neuralgia and rheumatism, his stomach was disordered, his liver was affected to an alarming degree, appetite fell away, and he was terribly reduced in flesh and strength. Three bottles of Electric Bitters cured him.

Edward Shepherd, Harrisburg, Ill., had a running sore on his leg of eight years' standing. Used three bottles of Electric Bitters and seven boxes of Bucklen's Arnica Salve, and his leg is sound and well. John Speaker, Catawba, O., had five large fever sores on his leg, doctors said he was incurable. One bottle Electric Bitters and one box Bucklen's Arnica Salve cured him entirely. Sold by Snipes & Kinersly.

President Warren, of Boston university, asks for $100,000 with which to found an "American Museum of all Religions."

To eradicate the poisons which produce fever and ague, take Ayer's Ague Cure. It cures without leaving any injurious effect upon the system, and is the only medicine in existence which may be considered an absolute antidote for malaria.

Even a dude has his uses in the world. He is a standing example to other young men of what they should avoid.—Somerville Journal.

Ayer's Sarsaparilla does what no other blood medicine in existence can do. It searches out all impurities in the system and expels them harmlessly through the proper channels. This is why Ayer's Sarsaparilla is so preeminently effective as a remedy for rheumatism.

Nell—Mr. Silenus is only an apology for a man. Belle—Well, wouldn't you accept an apology if you were offered?—Philadelphia Record.

Bucklen's Arnica Salve.

The best salve in the world for cuts, bruises, sores, ulcers, salt rheum, fever sores, tetter, chapped hands, chilblains, corns, and all skin eruptions, and positively cures piles, or no pay required. It is guaranteed to give perfect satisfaction, or money refunded. Price 25 cents per box. For sale by Snipes & Kinersly.

BREEDING A RACE OF IDIOTS.

Intermarrying in Germany Reducing Matrimony Almost to a National Curse.

Matrimony in Germany is a singular institution, says the Pittsburgh Dispatch. There are so many restrictions, such a complement of formalities to be submitted to, that marriage is rather unpopular than otherwise. The prevailing idea is to keep money in the family, and to attain this end the people, so sensible and level-headed in many respects, are willing to go any lengths. A man may even have for his wife his cousin, his aunt, his step-mother and his sister-in-law combined—he doesn't care so long as he has a hold on the money. The number of marriages among first cousins is countless, and the results appalling. How many idiots there are in the Fatherland I should not like to say. So that he may keep the money in his family it is quite a common occurrence for an uncle to marry his niece; and a man will sometimes wed his brother's widow. In Bavaria it is legal for a boy to marry at fourteen and a girl at twelve. A soldier may not become a benedict until he has reached the age of thirty—a most unpopular condition, and one which causes very disagreeable consequences. I heard of a case of a man who married his first cousin. He had four children, one of whom became a leper and two of them idiots. Three committed suicide, the fourth married her first cousin and had an idiot child. In another family the result of an intermarriage between cousins was two imbeciles out of three children; all three died young. In one district numbers of people with dreadfully swollen necks may be met. In the valleys of the Alps some of the most deformed idiots on earth are to be found. They are Cretins and live by begging, the hideousness of their looks bringing them in a good deal of money from the charitably disposed. And yet these poor creatures intermarry and spread the scourge. The marriage knot does not require any great effort in breaking it in Germany. Chronic mutual dislike and incompatibility of temper are sufficient reasons for divorce.

IN HAPPY PARAGUAY.

The Women Are Lithe and Graceful and Wear White Dresses.

The women have well-molded limbs, voluptuous, lustrous eyes and are of every color, from mahogany to the white and pink complexion of the fairest Anglo-Saxon. The dress of a Paraguayan woman, says Knight's "Cruise of the Falcon," consists merely of a snow-white tunic, coming down to the knees, and a white shawl. These women are bare-footed. They stalk through the streets with a soft, supple, panther-like tread that is most beautiful, for they do not indulge in high-heeled boots and stays, but step out as Eve herself might have done, quite unimpeded by their simple dress, which is merely a short tunic tied round at the waist and adorned with the pretty native lace. These tunics have short sleeves and very low necks, and reveal the statuesque shoulders and breasts rather more than would be considered delicate in Europe.

This mild race lives principally on oranges, pumpkins, cassava and other fruits and vegetables, being almost entirely vegetarians. Many are the virtues of these poor, brave Paraguayans; they are hospitable, kindly honest, and, though marriage is looked upon as an unnecessary pretense to two young people starting housekeeping together, they are remarkably constant in their attachments. The Paraguayan girls are like Byron's savage heroines—faithful unto death, soft as doves, but ready to give up their lives for their mates. What I particularly remarked was the jovial, gay nature of this amiable and innocent race.

WOMAN COMES LAST.

How the Arab Regards His Wives and Daughters.

An Arab—meaning a tent-dweller, in an equine sense, the town-dweller is no Arab—loves first and above all his horse. No one need to recite the oft-sung affection he will lavish upon him. Next he loves his firearm. This, poetically speaking, ought to be a six-foot, gold-in-laid, muzzle-loading horror of a matchlock, which would kick any man but an Arab flat on his back at every shot; but actually, in Algeria or Tunis, when he lives near a city, it is more apt to be a modern English breech-loader. You must fly from the busy haunts of men to find the matchlock. Next to his gun he loves his oldest son. Last comes his wife—or one of his wives, perhaps.

Daughters don't count; I mean the Arab doesn't take the trouble to count them, unless in so far as they minister to his comfort, dietetic or otherwise. Until some neighbor comes along and proposes to marry, in other words, to make a still worse slave of one of them, she is only a chattel—a soulless thing. And yet she is said to be a pretty, amiable, helpful being—said to be, for no one by any hap ever chances to cast his eyes on one worth seeing. This disregard women, be it said to their honor, does not always apply to the Bedouins of the Syrian and Arabian deserts.

Ereigners' Ideas of America.

The magnitude of this country is not adequately appreciated by a great percentage of Europeans. Especially has this been true in the past. An English novel of a few years ago described the glories of the Rockies as seen from New Orleans. "I met a German Brussels," said an acquaintance of the writer, "who became much interested in me when he learned that I was an American, and all on account of a friend he had in the United States. 'Do you know him?' he asked, 'his name is Henry Walter.' The name is not as common as John Smith, and I did know a Henry Walter. 'Where does your friend live?' I asked. 'In Pittsburgh,' he replied. 'The Walter chance to be the same. But what a remarkable occurrence! That German must have remained with very insular ideas of the area of this country. He probably regards it as about the size of Staten Island, or possibly, Hohenzollern.'
