Robbed and Murdered.

BIRMINGHAM, Ala., Oct. 8.—While J. R. Burns, a wealthy farmer, was enroute home Saturday night from Eastaboga, where he had sold a large lot of cotton, he was met in a forest by three marked men. They demanded his money or his life. Burns quickly drew his pistol and fired twice at the robbers, and then attempted to drive them off. They seized him and dragging him from his buggy they tied him to a tree and robbed him, after which each man fired two shots at him, all of which took effect. Burns was found half an hour later by a man who heard his groans. Burns lived long enough to tell the story of the murder.

Sentenced For Life.

SAN FRANCISCO, Oct. 8.—Dennis Moore, Cornelius Gerin and James Donnelly, not one of whom is over 23 years of age, were sentenced to state prison for life this morning by Judge Wallace. The robbery for which the trio will spend the rest of their days in the penitentiary was committed last Fourth of July. A friend named Thomas Howard came from Tuolumne county and treated them to the exposition. That afternoon when they left the grounds the three took Howard to a secluded spot, assaulted him, and after beating him tied his hands and legs, stole $30 and left him in a helpless condition.

Saved Just in Time.

Just one month ago tonight half of the village was destroyed by fire, and 40 families rendered destitute. The repeated acts at Herman's house directed suspicion against him, and on Saturday night he was caught in the act of attempting to set his house on fire.

PHOENIX, Ariz., Oct. 8.—Phil Sherbert, a plasterer, was shot this morning by William Price. Five shots were fired, three entering the body. One wound through the lung is considered fatal. Price had come to the city for the purpose of meeting Sherbert and having a settlement with him of a card difficulty of the evening before. Sherbert tried to mollify the enraged man, but to no effect. Sherbert then started to run across the street, Price following, and firing from a heavy pistol. The murderer is thought to be somewhat demented.

Fainting fits are reported to have supervened and rendered an operation immediately necessary. Court dignitaries and other high Russian officials have hurriedly started for Livadia.

Blew Themselves Up.

SAN FRANCISCO, Oct. 8.—Max and Meyer Livingston, brothers, in the employ of the city street department, discovered a gasoline generator while working in the vicinity of the new city hall this morning. They held a lighted torch too close to the generator, and the explosion which followed hurled both men into the air and shook all the buildings in the vicinity. Both men are in the receiving hospital. Max's eyesight is probably lost, and Meyer may lose both of his legs.
