GETTING TOGETHER.

Yesterday's Telegram tells a great truth in the following:

"The spirit of getting together seems to have taken hold of the Oregon people at last, and if it can be kept alive long enough great good must result. Our business men are just beginning to get acquainted with each other, and for the first time are learning that they must depend on each other for help. And what is still more singular, the business men of Portland are just beginning to inform themselves of the resources of this great state of Oregon and of the possibilities of its future development. Past prosperity had spoiled us. We had too much of it. When every one was making money and everything was coming everybody's way there was no inducement for the business interests to get together and work on the co-operative plan. In this respect the hard times have been a positive benefit to us. They have taught us the necessity for cultivating a spirit of mutual aid, and that we are a community in fact as well as in name. The business men's excursions, which have been inaugurated lately, are doing great help in this direction. By an association of business interests and mutual co-operation greater things can be accomplished than if left to individual effort. When we quit relying on outside effort and learn to depend on ourselves the future prosperity of this section will be assured. A community of people who are helping themselves will usually attract the favorable attention of those who are looking for safe investments."

If the hard times will serve to awaken Portland's business men to the necessity of reaching out for trade, and also that the interests of Oregon and every part of it are also Portland's interests, it will have accomplished great good. Complaint has been made time immemorial that Portland took no interest in Eastern Oregon or its development, and this charge was made more often in connection with her apathy, if not enmity to the opening of the Cascade locks. We believe she was careless of its interests because she did not realize how her own prosperity and progress were interwoven with ours. At most her sins were of omission.

While Eastern Oregon has felt, and felt keenly, what it conceived to be an inimical course on Portland's part, it holds no grudges. We realize that the growth of Portland is our growth, and her prosperity ours. We are pleased indeed to note that this fact is also becoming known to our brethren of the metropolis, and hope the day is near when "Oregon" will mean the whole state, and when united in efforts for the common good, her citizens will make her all that her splendid situation and grand possibilities will permit.

We have received the first copy of the Sun, the long expected daily started in Portland. Everybody connected with the paper is a stockholder, it being a co-operative institution. The paper is neat and contains a large amount of reading matter with a full page of telegraphic matter. The paper is independent in politics, and declares its intention of paying particular attention to local news. We have always believed there was room in Portland for another good daily, and the Sun starts under circumstances favorable to its filling the place.

The board of railroad commissioners passed through last night. Their special car seemed to be in good condition, and they made a close and thorough inspection of the road to Heppner today.

A Disturbance
 isn't what you want, if your stomach and bowels are irregular. That's about all you get, though, with the ordinary pill. It may relieve you for a moment, but you're usually in a worse state than before.

This is just where Dr. Pierce's Pleasant Pellets do most good. They act in an easy and natural way, very different from the huge, old-fashioned pills. They're not only pleasant, but there's no reaction afterwards, and their help lasts. One little sugar-coated pellet for a gentle laxative or corrective—three for a cathartic. Constipation, Indigestion, Biliary Attacks, Dizziness, Sick and Bilious Headaches, are promptly relieved and cured.

They're the smallest, the easiest to take—and the cheapest pill you can buy, for they're guaranteed to give satisfaction or your money is returned.

You pay only for the good you get. On parole—So you let the prisoner off on his word for a couple of days, did you? asked the captain. "I did answered the lieutenant. "And do you think he will come back on it or go back on it?" Indianapolis Journal.

A stimulant is often needed to nourish and strengthen the roots and to keep the hair a natural color. Hall's Hair Renewer is the best tonic for the hair.

PERSONAL MENTION.

Mrs. A. S. Bennett arrived home from Dayton, Wash., yesterday.

Mrs. H. Garner and daughter of Centerville, Wash., were in the city today.

Mr. H. Kaseberg writes from Biggs yesterday that a sad accident occurred at the Love place, six miles south of Biggs, Saturday afternoon, the 13th. He died Sunday morning about 3 o'clock. His home was a few miles south of Grass Valley.

When persons are weak and languid, from sickness or overwork, feel debilitated and depressed, it is an indication that the blood is out of order, and they need help to throw off the miserable feeling. The best remedy for this purpose is Dr. J. H. McLean's Strengthening Cordial and Blood Purifier. It restores lost strength, gives vigor to circulation, promotes good appetite and a flow of cheerful spirits. Price $1.00 per bottle. For sale by the Snipes-Kinerly Drug Co.

A meeting will be held Wednesday evening at 7:30 in the Congregational church, for the purpose of organizing a literary and debating society. The intention is to have an organization that will give both profit and pleasure to its members. All those who are interested in such pursuit, and will enter heartily into the spirit of the work, are earnestly requested to be present Wednesday evening. A large number have already signified their intention of attending.

When catarrh attacks a person of scrofulous diathesis, the disease is almost sure to become chronic. The only efficacious cure, therefore, is Ayer's Sarsaparilla, which expels scrofula from the system and the catarrh soon follows suit. Local treatment is only a waste of time.

"When I was a Boy,"

Writes Postmaster J. C. WOODSON, Forest Hill, W. Va., "I had a bronchial trouble of such a persistent and stubborn character, that the doctor pronounced it incurable with ordinary medicines, and advised me to try Ayer's Cherry Pectoral. I did so, and one bottle cured me. For the last fifteen years, I have used this preparation with good effect whenever I take and I know of numbers of people who keep it in the house all the time, not caring whether it safe to be without it."

"I have been using Ayer's Cherry Pectoral in my family for 20 years, with the most satisfactory results, and can cheerfully recommend it as being especially adapted to all pulmonary complaints. I have, for many years, made pulmonary and other medicines a special study, and I have come to the conclusion that Ayer's Cherry Pectoral occupies a position pre-eminent over other medicines of the class."—Chas. Davenport, D. C., N. J.
