IN THE LINE OF DUTY.

Recently a negro was convicted of raping an aged white woman at Washington Courthouse, Ohio, or rather, being charged with the crime, and fearing mob violence, he entered a plea of guilty so that he could be sent to the penitentiary at once, and was sentenced for 20 years.

It seems wrong that innocent citizens should be shot down to protect the life of a self-confessed fiend, but there is another side of the case from which to view it. When courts become corrupt, and when criminals escape through the connivance of the officers of the law, mob violence becomes admissible for the reason that the entire people are greater than the law, because they make it.

There is more Catarrh in this section of the country than all other diseases put together, and until the last few years was supposed to be incurable. For a great many years doctors pronounced it a local disease, and prescribed local remedies, and by constantly failing to cure with local treatment, pronounced it incurable.

When persons are weak and languid, from sickness or overwork, feel debilitated and depressed, it is an indication that the blood is out of order, and they need help to throw off the miserable feeling. The best remedy for this purpose is Dr. J. H. McLean's Strengthening Cordial and Blood Purifier.

The crime in question suggests its own punishment so prominently that the wonder is it has not been put upon the statute books. There is no punishment too severe, but whatever the law prescribes must be sufficient, and if that is not satisfactory, change the law.

A dispatch from Colfax states that Doc Harrington and J. Ed Neeley have been found over to the superior court of Whitman county, on a charge of stealing cattle. Neeley is a newspaper man and has edited the Rosalia Rustler, the Spangle Record, the Oakesdale Sun, Peoples Advocate, the Takoa Blade, and was at one time connected with the Spokane Spokesman.

The czar of Russia is dying, and it is a close race between he and his second son, George, as to which will pass away first. The czarina has had a stroke of apoplexy, said to have been brought on by too close confinement at the bedside of her husband. The general idea in this country that Russians have no love for their rulers, is perhaps exaggerated. The whole population is praying for his recovery.

The latest dispatches state that the czar has a cancer, and that he has lost thirty-two pounds in the last ten days. Another dispatch from Vienna states he is dying of arsenical poisoning; while yet another says he has spasms, apoplexy, heart failure, uraemia, Bright's disease and delirium.

The Herald and New York World have joined the other democratic papers in fighting Tammany. Hill has a hard row to hoe with the disensions in his party but if anybody can heal them he can.

The democracy fear that Congressman Wilson cannot carry his district, and as he is the father of the tariff bill they do not want to see him downed. As a result they are concentrating their forces in the district. Two years ago Wilson was elected by a majority of 1051, in a total vote of 42,563, a very small margin and one that it will not require a very great change to alter.

PERSONAL MENTION.

Mrs. W. P. Short of Sellwood spent Sunday with the captain and her son, Ray, in this city.

Judge Bradshaw arrived home from Prineville today, having finished his term of court there.

Mrs. Isabella Gray arrived home this morning, after an extended visit to New York and Bridgeport, Conn.

Mr. Martin Donnell and wife returned Saturday from a trip to Victoria and the Sound cities. They will leave for Goldendale tomorrow.

The Modern Jack Horner.

"Little Jack Horner sat in a corner, Eating a Christmas pie; He put in his thumb and pulled out a plum, And said 'What a good boy am I!'"

But little Jack Horner became a great mourner When older he grew and a glutton. For his liver, I'll state, was like a dead weight, As he drank wine and ate too much mutton.

Poor Jack's time of grief, however, was brief, And of sickness he ceased to be fearful; For a boon friend said "Well, let's try Pierce's Pellets."

And with good livers both are now cheerful. Dr. Pierce's Pleasant Pellets, absolutely effective in cases of sick headache, constipation, indigestion, and all derangements of the stomach and bowels. Satisfaction guaranteed.

$500 reward offered for an incurable case of Catarrh by the proprietors of Dr. Sage's Remedy; 50 cts; by druggists.

One day the children were having an object lesson on the blue heron. The teacher called attention to its small tail, saying, "The bird has no tail to speak of." The next day she asked the scholars to write a description of the bird, and a little German girl wound up by saying: "The blue heron has a tail, but it must not be talked about."—Babyhood.

There is more Catarrh in this section of the country than all other diseases put together, and until the last few years was supposed to be incurable. For a great many years doctors pronounced it a local disease, and prescribed local remedies, and by constantly failing to cure with local treatment, pronounced it incurable. Science has proven catarrh to be a constitutional disease and therefore requires constitutional treatment. Hall's Catarrh, manufactured by F. J. Cheney & Co., Toledo, Ohio, is the only constitutional cure in the market. It is taken internally in doses from 10 drops to a teaspoonful. It acts directly on the blood and mucous surfaces of the system. They offer one hundred dollars for any case it fails to cure. Send for circulars and testimonials. Address: F. J. CHENEY & Co., Toledo, O. Sold by Druggists, 75c.

The pedagogues verdict on the bent pin is generally given with the rising infection.—Richmond Dispatch.

"When I was a Boy,"

Writes Postmaster J. C. WOODSON, Forest Hill, W. Va., "I had a bronchial trouble of such a persistent and stubborn character, that the doctor pronounced it incurable with ordinary medicines, and advised me to try Ayer's Cherry Pectoral. I did so, and one bottle cured me. For the last fifteen years, I have used this preparation with good effect whenever I take and I know of numbers of people who keep it in the house all the time, not considering it safe to be without it."

"I have been using Ayer's Cherry Pectoral in my family for 30 years, with the most satisfactory results, and can cheerfully recommend it as being especially adapted to all pulmonary complaints. I have, for many years, made pulmonary and other medicines a special study, and I have come to the conclusion that Ayer's Cherry Pectoral occupies a position pre-eminent over other medicines of the class."—Chas. Davenport, Dover, N. J.
