WEDNESDAY, - OCTOBER 24, 1894. MAY SHE RULE FOREVER.

Down in Michigan the ladies have conspired to break loose from the thralldom of the servant girls. They have for a starter laid down the rule that the girls must be in their rooms and have the lights out at 10 o'clock, and that they cannot be provided with a latch-key.

SCOUR.

The Dalles is the largest wool-shipping point in the United States, and yet although it has been the leading wool market of Oregon for years, there has never been any serious attempt to establish a scouring mill here.

Owing to a lapsus penes we stated that an acre of land would produce 10,000 tons of sugar beets. The soil of the Walla Walla valley is very fertile, we all acknowledge, but it is asking just a little too much when asked to produce 10,000 tons to the acre.

The cause of the mistake is perhaps more remarkable than the mistake itself. We sincerely hope that Brother Parker will not have a relapse.

Washington society is discussing the picture presented to the government by the English artist Watts. The picture, which is said to be a great one, is of the nude style, and it was presented as a starter for a national art gallery.

Mary McKenna sued John Mitchell of Milwaukee for $7,480, alleged to be due her for wages from 1850 to 1892. She recovered judgment for $1,535.37. Only a woman would allow her wage account to run that length of time.

The marriage of the carewitzs to the Princess Alix, if reports are true, took place today. Yesterday the young lady put off her religion, and today her name, the first apparently with as little worry as the last.

The Japanese diet has just adjourned. It stated in brief language that would do credit to Truthful James, that no interference by outsiders would be permitted until she got through with China.

sincerely hope she may be able to hang on to the handle of the mop stick while China does duty as the rag until the latter is worn out.

Our new contemporary, the Sun, says that "a pure bar is the demand of the people, and it will help the lawyers to no small degree." With all due deference to our brilliant brother, we suggest that what the people really demand is purer liquors passed over the bar—that's what they want, and that is what would benefit the lawyers.

There is no medicine so often needed in every home and so admirably adapted to the purposes for which it is intended, as Chamberlain's Pain Balm. Hardly a week passes but some member of the family has need of it.

Electric Bitters.

This remedy is becoming so well known and so popular as to need no special mention. All who use Electric Bitters sing the same song of praise.
