NO. 259

END IS DRAWING NEAR

The Czar Has but a Few Hours to Live.

SIGNS OF APPROACH OF DEATH

Foreign Residents in China Said to be in Great Danger—Battle Reported Fort Arthur.

PARIS, Oct. 24.—A dispatch from Lividia, received by a government official, says the death of the czar is expected in a few hours. There is a growing anxiety in French government circles.

The Czar Very Drowsy.

LONDON, Oct. 25.—A Moscow correspondent of the Pall Mall Gazette telegraphs that the drowsiness with which the czar has been affected is increasing, and that it is almost impossible for his majesty to keep awake except when he is attacked by nervous spasms which frequently seize him. Nevertheless, he is able to take and retain food.

The wedding of the czarevitch and Princess Alix depends entirely upon the condition of his majesty, but will take place either today or tomorrow.

Relieved by Operations.

LONDON, Oct. 24.—A medical correspondent telegraphs from Lividia this afternoon saying the czar has been much relieved by the puncture of his legs, which is reducing the oedema. Preparations are making for an operation of thoracostomy to relieve the effusion into the thoracic cavity which will doubtless relieve the distressed breathing of the patient. Oxygen inflations have already strengthened the action of the heart, and the czar has enjoyed many hours of rest, but, says the correspondent, there is little or no improvement in his malady.

From a Court Official.

BERLIN, Oct. 24.—The Neuste Nachrichten's correspondent at St. Petersburg telegraphs that a prominent Russian court official has received the following dispatch from Lividia: "It is not expected that the czar's death will occur within the next 48 hours, and it is probable that his majesty's life will be prolonged a much longer time."

Grand Duke Michael an Heir.

ST. PETERSBURG, Oct. 24.—An imperial decree was published today, declaring Grand Duke Michael, third son of the czar, heir to the throne in succession to his brother, Grand Duke Nicholas, czarevitch and present heir-apparent. Grand Duke George, the second son, has renounced his rights of accession, as his condition is considered hopeless.

The following official bulletin was issued at 10 o'clock this morning. "The czar slept a few hours last night. This morning he is not drowsy and has some appetite."

Marriage Ceremonies Begun.

PARIS, Oct. 24.—A telegram from Odessa says the marriage of the czarevitch to Princess Alix of Hesse-Darmstadt began this morning at Lividia. A telegram has been received at Darmstadt announcing the conversion of Princess Alix to the Greek faith, took place yesterday in the presence of the procurator-general of the holy synod Pobedonosteff, in the strictest privacy.

Grand Duke George Dying.

LONDON, Oct. 24.—A St. Petersburg dispatch says the death of Grand Duke George, second son of the czar, who is suffering with lung trouble, is a question of a few days.

The Worden Trial.

WOODLAND, Cal., Oct. 24.—The proceedings in the Worden trial opened this morning with the continuance of the examination of Heintzelman. Other witnesses were examined, but nothing new or sensational was developed. Johnnie Sherburn, the boy witness, was on the stand the latter end of the afternoon session. His testimony is but a repetition of what he gave at the preliminary hearing.

Almost a Train Wreck.

SACRAMENTO, Oct. 24.—The train carrying James H. Budd, democratic candidate for governor, with about thirty other passengers, while proceeding from Grass Valley to Colfax, on the narrow gauge railroad, yesterday morning, had a narrow escape from a serious wreck. While travelling at a high rate of speed toward the bridge across Bear river, the engineer perceived an obstruction across the track immediately in front of a trestle, and he managed to check the train just as the cowcatcher touched the obstruction, which was a heavy piece of timber 8x10 inches thick and 20 feet long. It is the general impression that it was placed on the track with malicious intent.

Breckinridge's Senatorial Boom.

WINCHESTER, Oct. 24.—The boom for Colonel W. C. P. Breckinridge for United States senator seems to be fairly under way. The indications are that he will develop strength that will surprise his enemies. There are many who are willing to forgive and to forget now that he is rebuked, and his candidacy will receive favor in quarters where it failed before. At a meeting in Winchester yesterday, he spoke to several thousand people. Hundreds were turned away from the opera house because they were unable to gain admission. The people of Martinsburg, where Colonel Breckinridge spoke last Saturday, have instructed the prospective members of the legislature from Carter and Elliott counties to vote for Colonel Breckinridge.

Weavers on a Strike.

PHILADELPHIA, Oct. 24.—Weavers in the worsted cloth mill of Ross Miller & Co., at Manayunk, have struck for an increase of 15 per cent wages. The employees say they have been subject to a reduction of 50 per cent since last spring, and $8.50 a week is all they can earn on a 13-hour turn. The mill but recently started after a long idleness.

Tom Reed in Minneapolis.

MINNEAPOLIS, Oct. 24.—Thomas B. Reed arrived here today. He was shown about the city, and made a brief speech to the high school students and on 'Change complimentary to the city and the Northwest. At 1 o'clock he was driven to Senator Washburn's residence, at Fair Oaks, for lunch. Tonight he speaks at Exposition hall.

That Dangerous Raft of Logs.

SAN FRANCISCO, Oct. 24.—The steamers Mineola and Farallon arrived from the north this morning, and report having encountered the remains of the raft of logs that went to pieces off the Oregon coast. Both vessels report the logs floating about seventy-five miles north-east of Cape Blanco, and a great menace to navigation.

Stabbed a Saloon-Keeper.

SAN FRANCISCO, Oct. 24.—George Seasonburg, a saloon-keeper, is lying at the point of death from a knife wound in the groin, inflicted by Timothy Thornton, because he refused to give Thornton a bottle of wine. Thornton ran away after he had committed the crime, but was soon overtaken.

Four Men Drowned.

GLOUCESTER, Oct. 24.—Captain Jameson, of the schooner Dora Lawson, from Grand Banks, today, reports the loss of four men by the capsizing of dories while attending the trawls.

Three Men Burned to Death.

RATON, N. M., Oct. 24.—The Central hotel, a landmark of this town, was burned soon after midnight. James La Point, James McCool and Al Kennedy, railroad men, who boarded in the hotel, perished. The fire was caused by the explosion of a lamp.

Trial of Charles Sweeney.

SAN FRANCISCO, Oct. 24.—The work of securing a jury to try Charles Sweeney, formerly a well-known baseball player, charged with the murder of Con McManus, commenced today. Eleven jurors were secured, after which the case was adjourned until tomorrow.

Congressman Wilson's Tour.

PIEDMONT, W. Va., Oct. 24.—Congressman Wilson's special train left this morning on its tour of the western section of West Virginia. On the train were Bourke Cockran and others. At Keyser the first stop for short speeches was made.

"Now, that is what I call an appreciation of the proper thing." "What in the world are you talking about?" "About that South Side grocer's contribution of a barrel of self-rising flour to the orphan asylum.—Indianapolis Journal.

Mark Twain has discovered that there is a "syndicate of doctors" at foreign health resorts. When one of them gets hold of a good patient they pass him from one to another, until every physician in the combine gets his share of the victim's wealth. Mark says he dare not complain of even a headache over there.

We have made arrangements with the San Francisco Examiner to furnish it in connection with THE CHRONICLE. Having a clubbing rate with the Oregonian and N. Y. Tribune for our republican patrons, we have made this arrangement for the accommodation of the democratic members of THE CHRONICLE family. Both papers, the Weekly Examiner and SEMI-WEEKLY CHRONICLE will be furnished for one year for $2.25, cash in advance.

Don't commit suicide on account of your "incurable" blood disease. The sensible thing for you to do is to take Ayer's Sarsaparilla. If that fails, why, then—keep on trying, and it will not fail. The trouble is, people get discouraged too soon. "Try, try, try again."
