BRIEF MENTION.

Leaves From the Notebook of Chronicle Reporters.

A 10-year-old son of Henry Hanna died at Chenoweth creek yesterday of diphtheria.

At Portland yesterday Joseph N. Teal was married to Bessie M., daughter of D. P. Thompson.

The Ladies of Honor had a social time at their hall last night, which was thoroughly enjoyed by all.

The big monitor Monterey arrived in Portland yesterday afternoon, and will remain there for some time.

The weather for tomorrow as stated by Weather Observer Pague will be rain and stationary. Our readers will no doubt be pleased to know that rain is expected.

John Doe was arrested last night in the East End charged with assault with intent to commit robbery. His trial is set for tomorrow afternoon at 2 o'clock, before City Recorder Dufur acting as justice of the peace.

The local lodge of A. O. U. W. have arranged for having a grand celebration tonight, it being the 26th anniversary of the order. Those who have received invitations may consider themselves exceedingly fortunate.

The steamer Signal is expected in Portland in a few days with a large consignment of Chinese "merchants." Collector Black is getting ready to receive them, and it is to be hoped that none but the merchants may be allowed to land.

General Compton and Captain Butterfield arrived on the train at 1 o'clock today for the purpose of inspecting the militia at this place. Col. Thompson went to Hood River yesterday, expecting to meet the general and Major Jackson there, but owing to the major's inability to come, General Compton was delayed until today.

Ziegler Zimmerman and the other speedy bicyclists are no longer in it. At New York yesterday, John S. Johnson rode a mile in 1.35 2-5, fourteen seconds faster than the record one-tenth of a second faster than the fastest running horse. He said on dismounting, that he had finished well within his powers, and that he believed he could make the mile in 1.30.

A few of their friends were entertained at the home of Mr. and Mrs. B. F. Laughlin last evening, the solving of geographical anagrams occupying most of the pleasant hours spent, prizes being given to the most successful and to the two having the least success. Music and conversation followed one of the finest of lunches, making the evening altogether enjoyable.

The regular subscription price of the WEEKLY CHRONICLE is $1.50 and the regular price of the WEEKLY OREGONIAN is $1.50. Blakeley & Houghton have a cunning advertisement in their show window. It consists of an immense bottle with a rubber tube leading to the mouth of a negro doll, whose mouth is glued over a rubber nipple. The balance of the window is filled with other contrivances calculated to assist babyhood, including Castoria, paregoric, soothing syrup, etc. Back of the display appears the legend "Here's a lay out for little suckers."

The success that has attended the use of Dr. J. H. McLean's Volcanic Oil Liniment in the relief of pain and in curing diseases which seemed beyond the reach of medicine, has been truly remarkable. Hundreds supposed to be crippled for life with arms and legs drawn up crooked or distorted, their muscles withered or contracted by disease have been cured through the use of this remedy. Price 25c, 50 and $1.00 per bottle. For sale by the Snipes-Kinnersly Drug Co.

Mr. A. V. Underwood arrived this morning from Milton. He brought with him some samples of the fruit raised around Milton which is certainly of a splendid character. Mr. Underwood is an enthusiast and is devoting his time to the study of fruits in general and apples in particular, spending much time in experimenting to discover the best varieties for growth in this section. The fruit he brought from Milton was most of it grown by Mr. O. R. Bellow, and among other varieties a fine Jonathan, a showy red apple, makes one wonder why more of them are not raised.

Some Political Notes.

Ex-President Harrison is in New York, and made a speech last night with Vice-President Morton on the platform.

Senator Hill addressed one of the largest audiences ever gathered in New York City Tuesday night.

Bourke Cockran is in West Virginia assisting Congressman Wilson in his campaign.

The betting in New York is two to one in favor of Morton.

Dine Social.

The ladies of the Congregational church will receive their friends at the house of Mr. S. L. Brooks on Friday evening of this week. They hope, by this effort, to aid in some small matters which especially belong to their department of church work, and to render a quid pro quo for whatever their friends give them. All are cordially invited.

Cord Wood.

We again have an abundant supply of dry fir and hard wood for immediate delivery at the lowest rates, and hope to be favored with a liberal share of the trade. JOS. T. PETERS & Co.

Married—At Grant, Wednesday, Oct. 24th, by W. C. Curtis, pastor of the Congregational church of this city, Geo. A. Crossfield and Miss Belle McDonald.

The wedding took place at the residence of Mr. Wm. Murray in "the orchard," well above the high water mark. The ceremony was at eight and a half o'clock, and was attended by the family and more intimate friends of the groom and bride. Among those present were Mr. and Mrs. Crossfield and daughter, Miss Emma Crossfield, of Portland, Mrs. D. McDonald, Mr. and Mrs. Murray, and Miss Mattie Murray, Mr. and Mrs. E. O. McCoy, Miss Ella and Master Paul McCoy, Mr. J. S. Amos.

The bride wore a dainty and becoming traveling dress and well sustained the accorded loveliness of brides. After the ceremony the party adjourned to the dining room, where they found two long tables loaded with all the delicacies of the season, the substantial features of which, however, were two splendid great roast turkeys and the bride's loaf. After ample justice to the repast the company returned to the parlor and whiled away the hours with music and song and social merriment, until it was time for the west bound train.

Mr. Crossfield is one of the most enterprising and agreeable of Grant young men. Mrs. Crossfield is very pleasantly remembered in The Dalles, this being for some time her former residence, and her friends here join with her friends at Grant and elsewhere in hearty congratulations on what promises to be a happy marriage. Numerous and beautiful presents indicated the esteem in the young couple are held by their friends, and the donor's generosity and good taste as well.

Mr. and Mrs. Crossfield intend making Grant their home.

Resolutions on the Death of James A. Varney.

At the last meeting of J. W. Nesmith W. R. C., No. 17, the following resolutions were adopted:

WHEREAS, It has pleased the Grand Commander of the universe to remove from us the late comrade, James A. Varney, and

WHEREAS, It is but just that a fitting recognition of his many virtues should be had, therefore be it

Resolved, That while we bow with submission to the will of the Most High we do not the less mourn, for the one that has gone from us.

Resolved, That we sincerely condole with the family of the deceased in the dispensation with which it has pleased Divine Providence to afflict them, and commend them for consolation to Him who orders all things for the best, and whose chastisements are meant for mercy.

Resolved, That these resolutions be spread upon our records, and that this heartfelt testimonial of our sympathy and sorrow be forwarded by our secretary to the family of our deceased friend.

Mrs. M. Briggs, Mrs. M. E. HERRIN, Committee.

Lightning Spanked Little Richard.

ard and his plans. The lad was bending over a trunk getting out a pair of shoes when a bolt of lightning struck him in the small of the back and ran downward. Richard set up a yell and his very much frightened mother ran in and picked him up. The first thing the lad did was to ask who it was "that shot him." The lad's trousers were a complete wreck, having been torn to pieces at the place which was to have occupied the bench at Sunday school but, strange to say, he himself was not very much hurt.

PERSONAL MENTION.

O. B. Hartley was up from Hood River yesterday.

Mr. W. A. Davidson made this office a pleasant call today.

Mr. and Mrs. Miller will leave this evening for Butler Center, Iowa.

Mrs. Poorman left for Portland this morning, and will make that place her home.

Mr. M. J. Anderson of Dufur is in the city, and in consequence everybody says "Keno."

Hon. M. E. Brink, county judge of Crook, was in the city yesterday, presumably on his way to Portland to attend the meeting of the county judges.

Harry Fowler, who has been in charge of the passenger train on the Heppner branch during the temporary absence of Conductor Dunn, arrived here yesterday to take his regular run.

Mr. S. A. Clarke, the Oregon fruit expert, stopped off this morning on his way home from Milton and other Eastern Oregon points. He went on to Portland this afternoon.

Hon. John Fulton, county judge of Sherman county, accompanied by his wife, arrived yesterday and left this morning for Portland, to attend the meeting of the county judges, which will be held there tomorrow.

MARRIED.

By Wm. Michell, at his residence on Fourth street, Wednesday, Oct. 24th, Mr. S. H. Miller and Miss Louise E. Whitcomb, of Lyle.

The Modern Jack Horner.

"Little Jack Horner sat in a corner, Eating a Christmas pie; He put in his thumb and pulled out a plum, And said 'What a good boy am I!'"

But little Jack Horner became a great mourner When older he grew and a glutton. For his liver, I'll state, was like a dead weight, As he drank wine and ate too much nuttun.

Poor Jack's time of grief, however, was brief, And of sickness he ceased to be fearful; For a boon friend said "Well, let's try Pierce's Pellets,"

Dr. Pierce's Pleasant Pellets, absolutely effective in cases of sick headache, constipation, indigestion, and all derangements of the stomach and bowels. Satisfaction guaranteed.

$500 reward offered for an incurable case of Catarrh by the proprietors of Dr. Sage's Remedy; 50 cts; by druggists.
