HUNDREDS ARE DEAD

Earthquake Throughout the Argentine Republic.

SAN JUAN DE LA FRONTERA GONE

Buildings of Every Description Were Thrown Down and the Streets Filled With the Debris.

LONDON, Oct. 27.—A dispatch received here from Buenos Ayres says an appalling earthquake has occurred throughout the Argentine Republic. The city of San Juan de la Frontera, capital of the province of the same name, has been totally destroyed. Hundreds of lives are reported lost. No details have been received.

Advices Via New York.

NEW YORK, Oct. 27.—A dispatch from Buenos Ayres says: At one minute past 5 o'clock, sharp, today, a sharp shock of earthquake was felt in Buenos Ayres, which greatly alarmed the residents. The center of the disturbance appears to have been the city of San Juan, capital of the province. Churches, theaters, schools, government offices and private houses were thrown down, and the streets were filled with debris. Many persons were killed and injured, and the people of the town are in a panic. The shock was felt at twenty minutes past 4, the direction being south. The earthquake was felt at La Paz, in the province of Mendoza, at 23 minutes past 4. A church in the village of Mercedes had its walls cracked, and the safety of the building is menaced. A later dispatch from Cordoba says that fissures have shown themselves in the walls of the cathedral and that several churches are unsafe. The city is very much alarmed. The newspaper offices are besieged by persons anxious for news of the interior.

Another Instance of His Boldness.

SACRAMENTO, Cal., Oct. 27.—Frank Jones, a youthful highwayman, who entered the office of Captain Hawks, and compelled him to deliver a pistol point, has been identified as the burglar who entered the residence of Mr. Wetherbee several nights ago, while the family was away. He gathered up a quantity of silverware and other articles, which he placed in a valise. He then lighted a fire in the dining-room and prepared a meal, of which he partook. The stolen property was recovered by the police in various pawn shops in this city, and the officers had been looking for him for several days until yesterday. The pistol used by the robber was identified by Mr. Wetherbee as one that he had brought from Boston ten years ago, and it was rusty and less harmful than a toy pistol.

The Safe Was Looted.

MARSHFIELD, Or., Oct. 27.—The epidemic of robbing Wells, Fargo & Co. reached this section night before last, when the safe in John Roberts' general merchandise store, at Myrtle Point, was looted of its contents, $1,500, $1,250 of which belonged to Wells, Fargo & Co., and the remainder to Mr. Roberts. No trace, as yet, has been found of the miscreant who committed the deed. Mr. Roberts is agent for Wells, Fargo & Co., and went home about midnight, after the mail had arrived, leaving the combination of the safe off. The burglars effected an entrance by raising a window. A thousand dollars of the money was being consigned to Flanagan & Bennett, bankers here, through Wells, Fargo & Co.

Free Silver in Georgia's Legislature.

ATLANTA, Oct. 27.—A motion to take up a resolution in the house of representatives in Georgia's legislature, declaring it to be the sense of the legislature that congress should enact a law for free and unlimited coinage of silver and condemning the representatives in congress who voted for the repeal of the Sherman law, was defeated by a vote of 94 to 68. Only 24 democrats voted to take up the resolution. The others were populists.

The Oregon's Immense Barrette.

HOMESTEAD, Pa., Oct. 27.—The Carnegie Steel Company has completed the immense barrette for the battleship Or-gon, being built in San Francisco. It is the largest piece of armor plate work ever turned out of Homestead or in America. It weighs 400 tons and will require 14 cars to carry it to the Western coast. Officials of the Carnegie company and of the navy department inspected the work this week. It will be shipped next week.

Small Lenses Combined.

CHICAGO, Oct. 27.—Professor T. S. C. Lowe, of Pasadena, Cal., the inventor and owner of the Mount Lowe railroad, and also an astronomer of note, thinks the invention of a Chicago man has revolutionized the entire scope of telescopic research. Mr. Lowe is making a business trip through the East, and is stopping in Chicago for a few days. He has examined the new telescope invented by L. Gatham, of this city. Mr. Gatham and his new glass have heretofore been pronounced exceedingly visionary, and the inventor is naturally elated over the indorsement of a man of the scientific standing of Professor Lowe. Mr. Gatham's method of construction is diametrically opposed to the old plan. Instead of the large lens, which, owing to the difficulties surrounding manufacture, has always been full of defects, Mr. Gatham has built a telescope composed of a number of small lenses, two inches in diameter. These lenses are set in a stiff glass frame, or sash, and are exceedingly dense and clear. The combined effect of the small lenses causes them to act as a single lens. Telescope builders have denounced this theory as totally impracticable. Professor Lowe says the idea is a success, and is one of the most important discoveries for years in astronomical science, and he adds:

"I confess that when the idea was first presented to me I was not favorably impressed with its practicability. I promised to look at Mr. Gatham's invention, however, at my earliest opportunity, and so Tuesday night I examined it. I can only say I was exceedingly surprised and pleased to see the moon and belts of Jupiter in looking through Mr. Gatham's 7-inch telescope. The oceans and divisions of Mars were also defined in an astonishingly clear manner, notwithstanding all the adverse conditions which surround Chicago for astronomical observations. I have a 16-inch instrument on Mount Lowe, but if Mr. Gatham's telescopes were put upon the market, the Mount Lowe Company would be willing to place one of them. I see no reason why a 50-inch instrument could not be made which would work wonders in astronomical discovery. Such a telescope as the Lick could not, in my opinion, be put in the same class with a telescope built on these lines. It opens the entire question anew, and it looks to me as if no limit can now be put on the possibilities of sidereal research. It is certainly a wonderful discovery."

The Wound Not Powder-Burned.

CHICAGO, Oct. 27.—Charles Povell, whom it was alleged his sister, Mrs. Nellie Sweetman, shot, died this morning. The shooting occurred at the home of Mrs. Sweetman, after she had come in from a drive with a friend, who has been courting her. She alleges her brother shot himself. The police claim this is not true, as the wound was not powder-burned.

The Czar Ate Well.

St. PETERSBURG, Oct. 27.—A bulletin, issued at 7 o'clock this evening, from Livadia, says: "The czar ate well during the day. The action of his heart is rather better. The oedema has not increased. His spirits are better than they were yesterday."

Will They Marry Today?

BERLIN, Oct. 27.—The Lokalanzeiger has a dispatch from Yalta saying that the wedding of the czar's daughter and the Princess Alix will take place tomorrow. The dispatch adds that the czar is decidedly better, being allowed now to take some solid food instead of liquids alone.

No Anxiety for the Czarina.

COPENHAGEN, Oct. 27.—A dispatch from Livadia says, on the best authority, that the condition of the czarina is in no way causing anxiety.

in pastry you cannot have either without a good shortening. Lard has always had very objectionable features, causing indigestion and many other dietetic troubles. Science has come to the assistance of the cook, and of weak stomachs, with the new shortening,

Cottolene

Governor McKinley at Albany.

ALBANY, Oct. 27.—Governor McKinley addressed 3000 people here this afternoon. He suggested a joint debate upon the tariff question between Senators Hill and Murphy. The former had voted against and the latter for the Wilson bill.

There is more Catarrh in this section of the country than all other diseases put together, and until the last few years was supposed to be incurable. For a great many years doctors pronounced it a local disease, and prescribed local remedies, and by constantly failing to cure with local treatment, pronounced it incurable. Science has proven Catarrh to be a constitutional disease and therefore requires constitutional treatment. Hall's Catarrh, manufactured by F. J. Cheney & Co., Toledo, Ohio, is the only constitutional cure in the market. It is taken internally in doses from 10 drops to a teaspoonful. It acts directly on the blood and mucous surfaces of the system. They offer one hundred dollars for any case it fails to cure. Send for circulars and testimonials. Address: F. J.
