ALL RELIEVED.

The $14,000 stolen from the express office has been recovered, with the exception of a trifle, and everyone in The Dalles is glad of it. Individually Jones "hove" a sigh of relief, to think that his suspicion of Smith was unfounded; and Smith muttered a hearty "thank God" when his neighbor Jones was cleared of any connection with the robbery. It is to be hoped, now that none of us can be suspected of complicity in the affair, that we will try and cultivate a little better opinion of one another. It is also to be hoped that the express company knowing how it goes to be robbed, will examine their rates, and reduce them enough to make them only petty larceny.

Another big battle is reported to have been fought at Kiuren Castle, between the Japs and Johns. The Chinese opened the fight by sending a regiment armed with cleavers or axes to attack the Japs, who were armed with Winchester. The Chinese were, of course, soon put to flight, and if they had any intelligence at all above a beast, they would have fled when given the order to attack. At the same time the balance of the army, numbering 20,000 in all, and armed with old muskets, were getting their share, and soon "got a plenty." They retreated to their earthworks, two miles distant, many of them throwing away their arms in their flight. The Japs report the Chinese killed and wounded at over 2,000. The Japs captured a number of prisoners, thirty cannon and thirty tons of rice.

The story of the fire at Seattle becomes more horrible as the details are made known. Sixteen persons are known to have perished in the fire, burned like rats in a trap. The fire was caused by the explosion of a coal oil lamp in the kitchen, the night clerk having gone there for a lunch. It seems that the flames spread so quickly that there was not time to notify the inmates, the first intimation some of them had being the smoke and blaze in their rooms. Nine bodies were found in one room and five in another.

All hope of the missing ship Ivanhoe has been given up, as she is now nearly a month out from Seattle without having been heard from. Mr. Fred J. Grant, editor of the Seattle Post-Intelligencer, was the only passenger on the ill-fated ship. It is said that just before he sailed he insured his life for $20,000, saying: "No man can tell what is going to happen to him, and in case of accident this will leave my wife provided for."

Prince von Hohenlohe Schillingfurst has accepted the appointment as chancellor of Prussia, in place of Caprivi, resigned. This ought to insure peace with France, since a casus belli would have been forgotten, while the French diplomats were trying to spell his name.

When Jack calls on Miss Eleanor, He always brings her plenty Of flowers and chocolate bonbons, which Most charm the maid of twenty.

And though Sir Jack has skinny arms, And legs as thin as thimbles, How could one blame Miss Eleanor, Who much admires his presents? No woman has any real admiration for a man's presence unless the man has a good physique—legs and arms well filled out. You can't be "well-looking" if you suffer from any of the diseases caused by a disordered liver or impure blood—dyspepsia, biliousness, and scrofulous affections. Dr. Pierce's Golden Medical Discovery is a medicine that cures these cases. It's the only remedy that's guaranteed to benefit or cure, in every case, or the money refunded. Medical science stamps it "absolutely potent" as a blood-cleaner, strength-restorer and flesh-builder.

The worst Nasal Catarrh, no matter of how long standing, is permanently cured by Dr. Sege's Catarrh Remedy.

"I am glad to be able to say, children," remarked the benignant old gentleman, who was addressing the Waifs' Mission Sunday school, "that I never swore an oath in my life. I never drank a drop of any kind of intoxicating liquor. I never took a chew of tobacco, never had a cigar in my mouth, never smoked a pipe, never went to a theater, and never saw the inside of a circus tent." He stopped a moment to take a breath, and a boy in a front seat spoke up: "I guess you must 'a' come to town on the last load, didn't ye?"

The success that has attended the use of Dr. J. H. McLean's Volcanic Oil Liniment in the relief of pain and in curing diseases which seemed beyond the reach of medicine, has been truly remarkable. Hundreds supposed to be crippled for life with arms and legs drawn up crooked or distorted, their muscles withered or contracted by disease have been cured through the use of this remedy. Price 25c, 50c and $1.00 per bottle. For sale by the Snipes-Kinersly Drug Co.

For the many accidents that occur about the farm or household, such as burns, scalds, bruises, cuts, ragged wounds, bites of animals, mosquitoes or other insects, galls or chafed spots, frost bites, aches or pains in any part of the body, or the ailments resulting from exposure, as neuralgia, rheumatism, etc. Dr. J. H. McLean's Volcanic Oil Liniment has proved itself a sovereign remedy. Price 25c, 50c and $1.00 per bottle. For sale by the Snipes-Kinersly Drug Co.

Mrs. Kuitshow (in the book store)—You ought to have Homer's works, Mr. Nurich. Every good library has Homer, you know. Mrs. Nurich (to the book clerk)—Young man, wrap up Homer's latest book and have it sent to my carriage.

We have made arrangements with the San Francisco Examiner to furnish it in connection with THE CHRONICLE. Having a clubbing rate with the Oregonian and N. Y. Tribune for our republican patrons, we have made this arrangement for the accommodation of the democratic members of THE CHRONICLE family. Both papers, the Weekly Examiner and Semi-Weekly CHRONICLE will be furnished for one year for $2.25, cash in advance.

The reed bird, delicate and delicious, lay supine on a bit of toast, when Uncle Caleb, from New Jersey, eat down. "Are you fond of the little fowl?" asked the hostess. "Well," he replied, "ez fur taste, they're fine. But ez fur 'pearance, I must say they 'mind me of a mosquiter growed up."

When persons are weak and languid, from sickness or overwork, feel debilitated and depressed, it is an indication that the blood is out of order, and they need help to throw off the miserable feeling. The best remedy for this purpose is Dr. J. H. McLean's Strengthening Cordial and Blood Purifier. It restores lost strength, gives vigor to circulation, promotes good appetite and a flow of cheerful spirits. Price $1.00 per bottle. For sale by the Snipes-Kinersly Drug Co.

"I thought I had me man," said the New York detective. "But it didn't take him long to convince me that he had never been here before." "How did he do it?" "Unconsciously. He asked me where you could get a drink on Sunday."

Every mother should know that croup can be prevented. The first symptom of true croup is hoarseness. This is followed by a peculiar rough cough. If Chamberlain's Cough Remedy is given freely as soon as the child becomes hoarse or even after the cough has developed it will prevent the attack. 50 cent bottles for sale by Blakeley & Houghton, druggists.

Some rude speeches merit rude answers. "Are you the waiter?" asked an over-dressed woman of a guest at an evening party recently. "No," replied the man, "I'm not; are you the chambermaid?"

Gustavus Korn and Miss Mollie Wheat were married at Sedgewick City, Kan., last week, and the church choir sang, "Oh, What Shall the Harvest Be?"—Chicago Times.

AYER'S SARSAPARILLA

S. P. SMITH, of Towanda, Pa., whose constitution was completely broken down, is cured by Ayer's Sarsaparilla. He writes:

"For eight years, I was, most of the time, a great sufferer from constipation, kidney trouble, and indigestion, so that my constitution seemed to be completely broken down. I was induced to try Ayer's Sarsaparilla, and took nearly seven bottles, with such excellent results that my stomach, bowels, and kidneys are in perfect condition, and, in all their functions, as regular as clock-work. At the time I began taking Ayer's Sarsaparilla, my weight was only 129 pounds; I now can brag of 169 pounds, and was never in so good health. If you could see me before and after using, you would want me for a travelling advertisement. I believe this preparation of Sarsaparilla to be the best in the market to-day."
