NO. 268

A GRAND OVATION

Senator Hill's Reception at His Old Home.

COLORADO'S GOVERNOR FOR WAR

Cleveland Puts Up a Small Sum for the New York Campaign, But Rather Late.

The Funeral Cortège Will Pass Through a Wall of Cossacks.

LIVADIA, Nov. 3.—Arrangements have been completed for the removal of the remains of Alexander III to St. Petersburg. They are unusual and extraordinary. The minister of war will have the Russian army guarding the cortège the entire distance.

As the minister of war states, these large bodies of troops are to form guards of honor along the route. Every bridge over which the train carrying the imperial remains is to pass, will be absolutely in control of the military. At all large stations regiments of infantry will patrol. All demonstrations of affection will be made in the rear of the living walls of troops.

From here to Odessa the train will pass through a continuous line of Cossacks. Trains will pick up these men and leave them at unprotected points, while the remains lie in state in Odessa. Movements of the forces began last night. By Sunday night the roads will be controlled by the war office.

These precautions are the result of nihilist threats and a plot that was unearthed at St. Petersburg. That some of the plotters would blow up the imperial trail with its dead and attendant living members of the czar's family, if the opportunity presented, there is no doubt.

Since the embalming of the czar's remains yesterday, the palace has been completely surrounded by palace dragoons. No strangers are permitted to approach the palace.

The czarina is completely prostrated. It was observed during the latter part of the czar's illness that the czarina's hair had become streaked with white.

Tonight it is said that Princess Alix, after the funeral, will go to Moscow on a visit to her sister, the Grand Duchess Sergius.

Claims of the Leaders.

WASHINGTON, Nov. 3.—Little work remains at congressional committee headquarters of either of the great parties before the battle royal Tuesday. Naturally the democratic chairman, Faulkner, and the republican chairman, Babcock, and the populist chairman, Taubeneck, all claim the next house, and are ready to prove their assertions.

It is noticeable, however, that Babcock is the most boastful, and by far the most extravagant in his estimate. He asserts his canvass shows that there will be 252 republican members elected, making a majority of 74.

It is evident that Faulkner believes the democrats will have a majority of seven or eight, although he will not allow himself to be pinned down to the exact number.

Taubeneck thinks Babcock crazy and that Faulkner shows sign of the same disease. Taubeneck is more certain than ever of the populists obtaining the balance of power and have already buried both of the old political parties.

Princess Alix Will Not Have to Anathematize Her Own Faith.

BERLIN, Nov. 3.—A dispatch to the Tagblatt from St. Petersburg says rings were exchanged yesterday between czar Nicholas and Princess Alix. The funeral of the late czar has been fixed for between November 16 and 20, and the wedding of the czar and Princess Alix will take place a few days later. It is expected the czar will, upon this occasion, grant an extensive political amnesty.

A short time before the death of the czar he decided that the required anathema could be omitted from the document attesting the Princess Alix' abjuration of her former faith, after which the princess signed. The imperial proclamation was publicly read at Livadia today. People are swearing allegiance to the new emperor. The body of Alexandria will be embalmed.

Messages of sympathy and condolence continue to pour into the Russian embassy here and at Paris, Berlin and Vienna.

Special services to celebrate the accession of Nicholas II to the throne of Russia was held today in the palace church. It was attended by the czar, czarina, queen of Greece, Duchess of Saxe-Coburg-Gotha, Princess Alix of Hesse-Darmstadt and the grand dukes and grand duchesses now at Livadia.

Waite Preparing for War.

DENVER, Nov. 3.—Considerable uneasiness prevails in Denver over the outcome of the elections in this state Tuesday. Governor Waite has absolute control over the police department in this city, and he has not hesitated to intimate that any attempts to make fraudulent count or illegal voting will result in trouble. He has issued, secretly, a notice to the military and artillery companies to be in readiness to respond to his orders.

The sheriff has sworn in a large number of deputies to meet any intimidation by the police.

At Fort Logan, federal troops have been furnished full rounds of ammunition, and all preparations have been made for quick entrance into the city should a riot be started. It is generally rumored on the street that Governor Waite will make some pretext to cause the vote of Denver to be thrown out.

The California Election.

SAN FRANCISCO, Nov. 3.—A special to the Call from Washington, says: "The democratic congressional committee today received letters from every congressional district in California. The tenor of these reports show that the democrats of California have almost a hopeless fight on their hands as regards the state ticket. They concede that English will be defeated in the third district, and that Geary has a hard fight in the first, and will probably lose. Caminette may pull through in the second district, according to these advices, and Judge Maguire will probably be elected in the fifth. Loud and Bowers will both be returned, with a chance for Bowman, populist, in the Los Angeles district."

Hill's Great Ovation.

ELMIRA, Nov. 3.—The ovation given Hill tonight at his old home was never equaled in the history of the state. A special wigwam was built for the speech. There were 8,000 people in it, many hanging on the rafters like monkeys, with 10,000 outside.

The crowd removed the horses and pulled the carriage through the streets to the wigwam. Hill was introduced as the "Pride and hope of the democracy of the nation."

Japanese Strategy.

LONDON, Nov. 3.—A Shanghai dispatch says that the report that the Japanese army is on the eve of taking Port Arthur is regarded as a ruse on the part of the Japanese. It is thought probable the Japanese second army intends forming a junction with the main army and capturing the Chinese who are retreating from Chien-Lin-Chen, after which the combined forces will proceed to Peking.

Princess Alix Joins the Greek Church.

LIVADIA, Nov. 3.—Czar Nicholas has issued this manifesto: "Today occurred the holy anointment of our bride in accordance with the orthodox ritual, to the comfort of ourselves and the whole of Russia, our bride receiving the name Alexandra Foodoroyna, with the title grand duchess and imperial highness."

Cleveland Digs Up.

NEW YORK, Nov. 3.—Chairman Hinkley, of the democratic state committee, this morning confirmed the statement that Cleveland had contributed to the democratic congressional campaign fund. He says the president sent two checks, one of which was for $400.

Resolved to Declare War.

PARIS, Nov. 3.—A cabinet council was held at the palace of Elysee today, at which it was decided to submit to the chamber of deputies resolutions declaring war against Madagascar, and demanding credit to carry it on.

All One Way.

PHILADELPHIA, Nov. 3.—The chairman of the republican state committee says he believes the republican majority in the state will reach 200,000 majority.

The readers of this paper will be pleased to learn that there is at least one dreaded disease that science has been able to cure in all its stages and that is Catarrh. Hall's Catarrh Cure is the only positive cure now known to the medical fraternity. Catarrh being a constitutional disease, requires a constitutional treatment. Hall's Catarrh Cure is taken internally, acting directly upon the blood and mucous surfaces of the system, thereby destroying the foundation of the disease, and giving the patient strength by building up the constitution and assisting nature to do its work. The proprietors have so much faith in its curative powers, that they offer One Hundred Dollars for any case that it fails to cure. Send for list of Testimonials. Address:

"I do hope," said Miss Harvard, "that the coming man will not be bald, as the scientists predict. If he is, what on earth will we do for football-players?"—Harper's Bazar.

When persons are weak and languid, from sickness or overwork, feel debilitated and depressed, it is an indication that the blood is out of order, and they need help to throw off the miserable feeling. The best remedy for this purpose is Dr. J. H. McLean's Strengthening Cordial and Blood Purifier. It restores lost strength, gives vigor to circulation, promotes good appetite and a flow of cheerful spirits. Price $1.00 per bottle. For sale by the Snipes-Kinerly Drug Co.

One little girl in the slums—Wot yer say she died of? The other one—Eatin' a tuppenny ice on the top of 'ot pudden'. The first-mentioned—Lor! what a jolly death.—Tid-Bits.

For a pain in the side or chest there is nothing so good as a piece of flannel dampened with Chamberlain's Pain Balm and bound on over the seat of pain. It affords prompt and permanent relief and if used in time will often prevent a cold from resulting in pneumonia. This same treatment is a sure cure for lame back.
