BRIEF MENTION.

Leaves from the Notebook of Chronicle Reporters.

Additional local on Second Page. Recorder Dufur, sitting as a justice of the peace, has been trying a civil case today.

Wheat is still coming in in large quantities, and that from Klickitat makes quite an addition to the receipts.

At the last meeting of the literary society the night of meeting was changed from Wednesday to Monday. Quotations this evening from Lowell.

The following gentlemen were selected from the panel to act as grand jurors: J. M. Benson, forman; J. M. Elliot, A. W. McLeod, Jno. Cates, Robt. Rand, J. W. Ingalls, P. Tranna.

The firm of Sichel & Meyer of Portland has assigned. Mr. Sig. Sichel, one of the members of the firm, is well known here, having been in business for a number of years at Goldendale.

The Methodists of Hood River are having a very interesting revival, conducted by Rev. Motor, assisted by Rev. Bryan of Portland. Several conversions have been made and the services are attended by everybody in the community.

The concert tomorrow night promises to be the affair of the season. Signor and Madama Ferrari have a world-wide reputation as vocalists, and it is seldom indeed that our community is given the opportunity to listen to such celebrities. The Orchestra Union are deserving of great praise, and their efforts to furnish so high a grade of entertainments should be rewarded with a generous patronage. Reserved seats can be obtained at Blakeley & Houghton's.

Circuit court opened this morning, present, Hon. W. L. Bradshaw, judge; A. M. Kelsay, clerk, T. J. Driver, sheriff. The court appointed Thomas Hayden and J. Blakeney bailiffs, the latter having charge of the grand jury room. The following attorneys were in attendance: Prosecuting Attorney A. A. Jayne, H. S. Wilson, W. H. Wilson, B. S. Huntington, Hon. E. B. Dufur, Frank Menefee, H. H. Riddell, Bert Phelps, Hon. J. B. Condon, J. W. Condon, Hon. J. L. Story, Ned Gates and W. S. Myers.

Hon. Alexander H. Stephens. I occasionally use, when my condition requires it, Dr. Simmons Liver Regulator, with good effect.

Hon. ALEX. H. STEPHENS.

Wanted. Some good second hand harness. Must be cheap--Cash. Address, W. X. this office.

Commissioners' Court, November Term.

Court met Wednesday morning, Nov. 7th, present County Judge Blakeley, Commissioners Darneille and Blowers and Clerk Kelsay, by A. J. Johnson, deputy.

In the matter of the taxes of Jesse W. Blakeney, it was ordered that on payment of $8 and interest, the sheriff issue receipt.

Wrongful assessment of E. T. Sharp corrected.

Provisions made for holding election on matter of incorporating Hood River, election set for Dec. 4th.

County road petitioned for by W. E. Huskey and others, allowed.

Road petitioned for by L. L. McCartney and others, allowed.

County road petitioned for by L. Davis and others, allowed.

Adjourned to Nov. 15th at 9 o'clock a. m.

DIED.
At her home in this city, Monday morning, Nov. 12th, at 9 o'clock, Mrs. Ann Craig, aged about 78 years.
Her husband died here seventeen years ago to a day and almost to a minute. Mrs. Craig was a remarkable woman, whose life covered a long and eventful period. She was a nurse in the Mexican war, and drew a pension for her services there. She came to Oregon in an early day with her husband, and has seen The Dalles grow from a hamlet to thriving city, and Oregon from a wilderness to a great commonwealth. She had been confined to her bed for two or three months, growing gradually weaker until the end came this morning. She leaves four children, Richard Munroe, at present residing at Lewiston, Idaho, Charles, Frank and Katie Craig, all of this city.
