BRIEF MENTION.

Leaves From the Notebook of Chronicle Reporters.

Honduras has demonized silver.

Mr. Lyon, father of E. E. Lyon of Hood River died at his son's residence yesterday morning.

A fine lot of hogs were brought over from Klickitat yesterday. They will be sent below today.

The Union Dancing Club will give the second dance of the series tomorrow evening, Nov. 21st.

A flock of sheep belonging to George Runkell were taken across the river to Klickitat this morning.

In the case of Dalles City against Mary L. Booth, the court yesterday ordered confirmation of sale.

In the case of Eugene D. White against C. P. Heald, objection to confirmation of sale was filed.

Saltmarsh & Co. are feeding quite a large number of hogs, which are now ready for the market. They are an extra lot.

The wheat receipts are falling off somewhat but from the amount received it is safe to say the total receipts for the season will amount to about one million bushels.

The dispatches state that the thermometer is ranging from zero to 16 below in Minnesota, which suggests that you don't want to miss the flower show here tonight.

The grand jury this morning brought in a true bill against Wm. O'Brien, charging him with the larceny of a watch. The court appointed J. L. Story to defend him.

Winans Bros. are doing some very substantial work on their fish wheels and think that it will take more than a flood to remove them again. They have six to rebuild and the work will keep them busy until the fishing season next year.

Burglaries are reported from nearly every town in the state. A few doses of lead properly administered would go a long way towards putting a check upon this pursuit.

Eugene and Portland played a game of football at the latter city Saturday, the team from Eugene coming from the State University. Portland won after a very hotly contested game.

The Regulator and Dalles City are now receiving all kinds of freight and in any quantity. It is to be hoped that those idle rumors about the boats tying up will not again get circulated. The boats will tie up when they are compelled to by the ice, and not before.

Myriads of little gnats, each with a little tuft of greasy-looking cotton attached to its body, have been observed on the warm days this fall floating on the breezes about the Rogue river valley. They are said to be the little moth of the woolly aphis—an injurious enemy of the apple tree.

Hood River had a sensation last night culminating in the arrest of a man named Broadbent, on complaint of his wife, who charges him with adultery. He was brought here this afternoon, being bound over to appear before the grand jury. If he has any regard for his personal safety, he will make a strenuous effort to get into the penitentiary.

The flower show tonight on Rose Hill, at Mrs. Phillips' is going to be worth seeing, and it is going to be worth more than it costs by a whole lot. Ten cents is the price of admission, and people back in Minnesota where the thermometer is below zero, would give ten times that much just to think of seeing flowers.

The Oregonian prints a dispatch this morning about a Chinaman being beaten here, and some other matters, and states that parties were arrested by Sheriff Plummer for robbing the till of Gus Bassett, a merchant. It is quite probable that "Dallas" has gotten its work in on us again, as there is no such merchant and our sheriff is not named that way.

If the goose crop of this season is not harvested within the next few days it will not be the fault of Dalles nimrods. Yesterday Ike Joles and Wm. Young went up to Sherman county determined to bring home a wagon load and this morning two other outfits left for the same purpose. John Filloon, Dennis Bunnell and A. C. Stevens were in one wagon and Josh Hardy and another gentleman made the other load.

Mortgage Tax Law.

Valley papers are circulating extensively and urging strongly the re-enactment of the mortgage tax law and an indebtedness exemption law as well. The following is a copy of the petition now being numerously signed:

To the legislative assembly of the state of Oregon:

We, the undersigned, citizens of Douglas county, Oregon, would respectfully represent to your Honorable Body that the present assessment laws bear unjustly upon the masses of the people, and that the only just system of taxation is that method by which each individual is assessed on the net valuation of his property, real and personal, thus everyone bearing the burden of government according to his means. We would therefore pray your Honorable Body to re-enact the law known as the mortgage tax law, and to enact a clause in the assessment laws allowing exemption from taxation for indebtedness.

Literary Society.

The Wilkie Collins literary society met last evening and went through the regular program. The subject for debate was "Resolved, That convict contract labor is inimical to the best interests of the community." Mr. Fred Wilson led the affirmative and Mr. G. D. Snowden the negative. The affirmative won, from which it would appear that it is better for the community to be taxed to support people in idleness than it is to let them earn their living. We are glad, however, that the question is finally settled beyond all controversy. The quotations of the evening were from Lowell. The society is prospering, and deserves to be.

Sayings of Great Men.

Louisville Courier-Journal.

I have a high appreciation of the services of Mr. Reed to the republican party. I think that he should be rewarded with the speakership for the next six years.—William McKinley.

I believe that Mr. McKinley will now have some time to devote his undoubted talents to the business of governing Ohio.—Thomas Brackett Reed.

Mr. McKinley and Mr. Reed are both able republicans, and I do not differ with them on any important question.—Benjamin Harrison.

Special Notice.

There will be a special communication of Wasco Lodge, No. 35, F. & A. M., this evening at 7:30 o'clock. Business, official visit of the grand master. All members and sojourning brethren invited to be present.

I. L. BURGETT, Secy.

Maloney Finds His Indian.

Another complication has arisen in the case of the State against Maloney and Snelling. Saturday an Indian was arrested by some other Indians, charged with stealing a horse, but they fixed the matter up amongst themselves. While the Indian was in the sheriff's office, Maloney saw him and at once said that he was the Indian of whom he purchased the horses he was accused of stealing. The Indian in the presence of several persons admitted that he sold Maloney two horses describing them, the description tallying with that of the horses mentioned in Maloney's trial. When he began to be cross questioned concerning them, and learning that Maloney had been accused of stealing them, he shut up and denied all knowledge of them.
