SHOES FOR MEN.	NOW FOR THE BOYS.	SHOES FOR LADIES.	SHOES FOR MISSES.
Our $6 and $6.50 Men's Cordovan... Shoe, Lace or Congress, all the latest styles, Razor Toe, Enamel Calf, Seal Tops and Cork Soles, the best Shoes on earth for the money... $4.95	Give them a Chance for the Safety. You can afford to make them happy when you can buy Shoes at these prices. Suppose their Shoes are not entirely worn out; be generous, and at the same time consult the best interests of your pocket-book. Buy them a pair now, or two or three if you wish to, and lay them aside until the boys require them, as they will sooner or later, for somehow boys' shoes will wear out.	And now we claim the attention of the Ladies. They can scent a bargain from afar. We expect to be overwhelmed; never mind, come on; we have extra help, and know where we can procure more.	You must not forget that the Safety is a Combination Safety, and just the thing for a girl to ride, and many a doctor's bill it may save you if your daughter has it and enjoys the benefit of the healthful exercise. Anyhow we are going to give the girls a good excuse to get some guesses. Look at these prices and see if we have not.

BRIEF MENTION.

Leaves From the Notebook of Chronicle Reporters.

License to marry was issued today to Wm. H. McAtee and Miss Sarah J. Woodcock.

Jesse La Motte and husband today sold to Geo. W. Rowland the s 1/2 of sec 6 t 1, n of r 13 e; $1.

The alarm of fire last evening was caused by a burning fire at the Umatilla House. No damage was done.

Col. Sinnott and R. Sigman of Dufur, have been drawn on the United States grand jury which meets in Portland Dec. 4th.

Mr. Charles Berger of Hood River showed us a fine chunk of granite obtained from the mountain west of Hood River valley. As that country is covered with basalt to an unknown depth, it is quite probable that there has been an upheaval some time that brought the Syenite up from beneath the foundations of the mountain range.

Tuesday Messrs. Isaac Joles and Wm. Young went up to Sherman county as THE CHRONICLE stated at the time, with the intention of bringing home a wagon load of geese. They arrived home yesterday with sixty of the big birds. This morning Mr. Young brought a fine fat one, as elegantly dressed as any in the city, as a free will offering to ye editor. Thanks gentlemen, do it some more.

The cannery is rapidly approaching completion, but we have heard nothing recently of the scouring mill. We hope this will not be allowed to drop, but that it will be pushed energetically so that next spring's clip may be handled here. It is estimated that the scouring mill at Pendleton saved this year $27,000 in freight, and besides it kept the money for scouring the wool in Oregon where the wool was grown. The Dalles is the best and largest wool shipping point in the Northwest, and here, if anywhere, a scouring mill should be operated.

Pease & Mays have kindly given the ladies of the Good Intent Society the use of their center show window until after Christmas. Beginning tomorrow and lasting until after Thanksgiving the ladies will sell cakes, pies, and most anything in that line, and from that time on may be found all sorts of articles suitable for Christmas gifts, which they will sell very cheap. f-m-d

Their First Night in Wasco County.

Mr. D. J. Cooper, who came in from his farm on 10-Mile this morning, gives us the particulars of an accident that happened at his place last night between 7 and 8 o'clock.

At that time a man and his family with his household goods loaded into two wagons, and on their way from Nebraska to Hood River, drove up to a point in the road near Mr. Cooper's place. The man stopped the teams while he went down to the barn where Mr. Cooper happened to be with a lantern, to see if he could get feed for his teams. Being told he could have anything he wanted, he went back and drove the forward team down to the barn. The road makes a short turn there, and as the second team, driven by a boy of 13 or 14 years, did not follow immediately, the boy raised the road and drove or tried to drive across the point of the hill going straight towards the light. As a result the wagon upset, and the boy, his mother and five or six children, who formed a part of the load went rolling down the hill. The bed came off the running-gears and the horses started to run away but were caught near the barn. Mr. Cooper hurried to the scene of the wreck as fast as possible and found that the wagon bed had rolled down the bank into and across the road and some distance below it. The children were screaming but Mr. Cooper commenced pulling them out from among a badly mixed assortment of bedding, trunks, boxes, grain, and the hundreds of things that go to make up the movable plunder of an emigrant's riches. When a census was taken and all were found to be recovered from the wreck a comparison of notes showed that no one was hurt. When Mr. Cooper left this morning the wagon had been put together and loaded, and nothing was broken. The party will probably reach Hood River tomorrow.

Hon. Alexander H. Stephens. I occasionally use, when my condition requires it, Dr. Simmons Liver Regulator, with good effect. Hon. ALEX. H. STEPHENS."

A New Savings Bank.

We wish to draw your attention to the subject of savings banks.

Here in The Dalles has been established a savings bank, on the mutual order. The security is undoubted as it is in your own house, and the dividends paid are much larger than in the older institutions. We think you thoroughly believe in savings banks as institutions; but then you know there are savings banks and savings banks, and their soundness and returns to investors differ very materially. We do not care to discuss the question of their stability; we merely want to draw your attention to the interest you receive on your deposits with them.

A savings bank of undoubted security and strength will allow you 5 per cent interest, payable at the end of the year. On $6 this amounts to 30 cents or 90 cents for three years.

Now bring $6 and deposit in this Mutual Savings Bank, and what are the results? Your interest for three and a half years, amounting to $1.05, is at once paid to you, and your capital is handed back.

This reads like a fairy story, and you may be disposed to doubt it, but it is true. Investigate and then Deposit. Suppose your idle capital is only $3, and you commence with that investment. What are the results? At this bank the receiving teller hands you back 55 cents as the interest for three and a half years, and also the principal. Show us an institution offering greater returns where the security is undoubted.

DALLES SAVING BANK, MUTUAL. Second and Federal Sts. R. MAYS, Pres. E. E. Gordon, E. C. PEASE, M. LAY, Vice Pres. M. GOSSETT, W. H. HOBSON, F. W. BAILEY, Cashier. CHAS. FRITZ, M. CUSHING, Asst. Cashier. C. COOPER, Tellers. The Contract to Complete.

Since publishing the statement yesterday that the contract concerning the Cascade locks did not provide for their completion, we have received information that forces us to believe that our first informant was wrong, and that the contract does provide for the completion of the work, and that ten per cent of the money earned by the contractors is retained by the government until the work is completed. We had our information from what we considered, and what ought to be reliable authority, not yesterday, but months ago. This rumor has been going the rounds for some time, and while we had doubts as to its correctness, we gave it space yesterday for the purpose of arriving at the truth, knowing that if it was not true it would meet speedy refutation.

Court Notes.

The case of the State against O'Brien, who was charged with stealing a watch, was tried yesterday afternoon, and after an hour or more considering the matter, the jury brought in a verdict of not guilty. The state was represented by Deputy Prosecuting Attorney Phelps, and the defense was very ably conducted by Ned Gates.

Otis Savage this morning entered a plea of not guilty. The district attorney gave notice that Klein would not be tried at this term of court, which caused a short battle of words between Mr. Snow, who is assisting in the prosecution, and Messrs. Bennett and H. S. Wilson, who are defending Savage. The case of Savage was not ready for trial, and defendant's attorneys were given until the coming in of court tomorrow morning to present a motion for continuance, with the grounds therefor. A demurrer to the indictment was overruled.

In the case of Chas. F. V. Berger against the Oregon Lumber Co. a motion for a new trial was filed.

To the Locks Tomorrow.

The army officers from Vancouver, Portland's chamber of commerce, Senator Dolph and a number of other prominent people will visit the Cascade Locks tomorrow, coming up on the steamer Dalles City. The party extend an invitation to the citizens of the Dalles to "meet them half way" and spend one hour or two with them. The Dalles should see that a goodly number of her prominent men accept the invitation. We are more deeply interested than any other place in the completion of the locks, therefore a strong delegation should go down to show the balance of the state that we are alive to our interests. Transportation has been arranged for business and professional men. All who would like to go down will please call at the office in the morning. We understand that Hood River will send down quite a number of visitors, and we cannot afford to be outdone by our neighboring towns.

The Regulator will leave at 7:30.

PORTLAND EXPOSITION. Opens December 1, 1894, and Closes January 15, 1895.

During this time the Dalles, Portland & Astoria Navigation Company will sell tickets from The Dalles to Portland and return, including two meals on the steamer Dalles City at $2.50. Tickets limited to ten days from date of sale. Regulator will leave at 7 a. m. and the Dalles City will arrive at Portland at 5:30 p. m. Quick transfers at the locks. W. C. ALLAWAY, Gen. Agent. nov-22-tf
