BRIEF MENTION.

Leaves From the Notebook of Chronicle Reporters.

Rubber Weather Strips at Maier & Benton's. nov27-31.

License to wed was issued today to Orin Depee and Miss Elmira Rowland.

Seattle outplayed Multnomah in the football game at Portland yesterday, and won by a score of 8 to 0.

There will be a business meeting of the Epworth League, this evening at 7:30, in the lecture room of M. E. church.

A communication received this morning detailing the trip by the Knight to the Locks yesterday, was crowded out on account of its length.

The city marshal and street commissioner were busily engaged this morning in building a woodshed by the side of the city recorder's office.

According to the Oregonian the faro dealers in Portland are putting their gambling tools in soak, and that boxes, cards and cases may be seen in the pawnshop windows.

Hereafter all county warrants will be issued payable to order, and the county treasurer will not stamp or list them until they are endorsed by the party to whom they are payable.

Capt. A. S. Blowers is up from Hood River attending an adjourned meeting of the county court. Hereafter this court will meet about the last of each month to audit the accounts of the officers.

The city recorder had three individuals before him this morning who had taken in a trifle too much liquid celebration yesterday. The recorder got a good grip on his feeling, and fined them the customary amount.

The awarding of the prizes at Pease & Mays', that is to say the presentation of the beautiful bedroom set, and the making of some boy or girl exceedingly happy by becoming the owner of an elegant bicycle, will take place tomorrow evening.

The dance given by the Gesang Verein Wednesday night was well attended, the house being crowded. In fact the only feature about the affair that was not perfect was that the dancers were too numerous, the floor being over-crowded.

After prayer meeting at the M. E. church last evening the question, which was in substance "Shall women be admitted as delegates to the general conference?" was voted upon, and as far as the Methodists of The Dalles are concerned, they shall.

A special feature of the dances given by the Orchestra union, will be a prize for lady and another for gentleman. Coupons will be given each couple as they enter the ballroom and the last Saturday of each month the prizes will be awarded to the holder of the coupon drawn from the box.

The co-partnership heretofore existing between F. N. Jones and H. G. Jordan, under the firm name of Jones & Jordan, has been this day dissolved by mutual consent, F. N. Jones continuing the business and assuming any liabilities of the firm and collecting all amounts due.

Cards were received yesterday announcing the marriage of Cora Lavelle, daughter of Mr. H. H. Allen, and Samuel Starrow, Wednesday, Dec. 12, 1894, at North Yakima. Miss Allen has many friends in The Dalles, which was her former home, who wish her prosperity and happiness.

Yesterday the usual turkey shoot of the day took place on the beach near the depot. Mr. A. Y. Marsh put up the turkeys while the other fellow put up the money. The birds were placed in position as targets at a distance of 230 yards and are said to have brought in a net return of $19 each.

Saturday as Charlie Snipes was attempting to lasso a pony to ride from the Snipes place, about two miles below town, into the city, the horse kicked him twice in the abdomen, and as he attempted to get away crushed him against the barn, injuring him seriously, and hope of his recovery is slight.

Quite a number of our local nimrods indulged in a pigeon shoot on the beach yesterday. Some 300 birds were fired at, and but few escaped. Those taking part in the shooting were Messrs. Bronson, Palmer, Keller, Fain Somers, W. Young, Marsh, Anderson and Tom and Isaac Joles. The shooting was kept up until dark.

The Oregonian today contains a half column article concerning the sale of the Regulator and Dalles City, to the O. R. & N. Co. There is absolutely nothing in the rumor, which is simply one of a hundred others started concerning the D. P. & A. N. Cos. boats. When this boat line is sold it will be time enough for the Portland papers to make a note of the fact. As it is these notices seem to be intended for no other purpose than to injure the business of the boats.

We have been unable to chase down a rumor concerning some new improvements that are to be made, and some new industries to be started here in the near future. We did run them down far enough that one who pretends to know says the arrangements are not yet completed sufficiently to give them publicity, but that there is good foundation for the rumor. The proposed industries are an elevator, with 100-barrel mill, and a scouring mill, all to be built within the next few months.

Through the work of the Lane county court in going over the assessment rolls and bringing to time those who neglected to properly report their possessions in the form of notes and mortgages, the taxable property in the county has been raised $52,682. Over 100 persons were summoned to appear before the court, and of this number the assessment of forty-six were raised. One man's assessment was raised $10,000, and on several a raise of from $1,000 to $2,000 was made.

Much solicitude is felt for James Peters, the veteran roadmaster who now has charge of the track department for the entire Oregon Railway & Navigation system, who is reported ill at his home in Umatilla. Mr. Peters, commonly known as "Young Peters," is between 60 and 65 years of age, and is the oldest employe of the O. R. & N. His years have had no effect on his activity, unless it be that he has each year become more active, and devotes more time to his duties than when he was younger.

There was an amusing feature of the suit of Klamath county against Howe's bondsmen. Charlie Moore was one of the sureties, and consequently a defendant. As county judge, he had the suit instituted against himself, and was, therefore, plaintiff. He was, in fact, a client of counsel on both sides. When a verdict for the county was given, Judge Moore laughingly gave his hand to District Attorney Benson and said: "Well, we knocked 'em out," the judge himself being knocked out to the tune of several thousand dollars.

The trial of Savage, begun Wednesday afternoon, occupies the attention of the circuit court today, and has drawn quite a full house. This morning we noticed a number of ladies in the courthouse. As the trial progresses the interest will become greater, especially when the defense opens its case. The publication of the testimony in the preliminary examination gave pretty full information as to the case for the prosecution. However there will be some additional testimony. Walter Rowe was brought here Tuesday, and his testimony will be taken. The cross-examination of the witnesses is thorough and the case is dragging along slowly.

The K. of P.'s Visit the Locks.

A goodly number of Knights of Pythias went to the Cascade Locks yesterday afternoon in a special car, for the purpose of assisting in conferring the ranks and for a fraternal visit to Pythagoras lodge of that place. An inspection of the government works was made and then everybody went to dinner at the Glass restaurant owned and managed by Dr. Candiana. After dinner the visitors repaired with their hosts to the K. of P. hall where all three ranks were conferred. The boys arrived home about 4 o'clock this morning, highly pleased with their trip and enthusiastic in their praises of Pythagorean hospitality.

Uncle Tom's Cabin.

Runco & Swift's big spectacular Uncle Tom's Cabin Co., will show at the opera house Wednesday night, Dec. 5th. The company carries two sets of scenery, so that they can put their play on any stage. After leaving here they go to Portland to play a five days engagement in the Marquam. This alone should be a sufficient guarantee of the company's standing. The play is an old one, but none the less good.

$100 Reward, $100.

The readers of this paper will be pleased to learn that there is at least one dreaded disease that science has been able to cure in all its stages and that is Catarrh. Hall's Catarrh Cure is the only positive cure now known to the medical fraternity. Catarrh being a constitutional disease, requires a constitutional treatment. Hall's Catarrh Cure is taken internally, acting directly upon the blood and mucous surfaces of the system, thereby destroying the foundation of the disease, and giving the patient strength by building up the constitution and assisting nature to do its work. The proprietors have so much faith in its curative powers, that they offer One Hundred Dollars for any case that it fails to cure. Send for list of Testimonials. Address:
