BRIEF MENTION.

Leaves From the Notebook of Chronicle Reporters.

Walter Rowe was returned to Salem this afternoon.

Owing to the theater on Wednesday evening, the Union Dancing Club will hold their party next Tuesday evening, Dec. 4th.

Sixteen hogs and some other personal property were sold this afternoon by Constable Urquhart to satisfy a judgment of Perry Watkins against O. E. Jones.

A farmer from over near Goldendale left his team in one of the feed yards last night, and some heartless wretch stole everything that was loose in the wagon.

Hawthorne gave his testimony this morning in the Savage case and was taken back to Portland on the afternoon train. It was expected yesterday that the case would be finished today but that does not now seem possible.

The courthouse was crowded this afternoon, many ladies being present and taking a deep interest in the proceedings. There were several pretty lively conflicts between the attorneys concerning the admissibility of testimony. The attorneys for the defense are fighting every point, and laying the foundations, or trying to, for a new trial in case of conviction. At the literary society Monday evening election of officers will be had. Subject for debate, "Resolved, That men are governed more by imagination than reason." Leader of affirmative, Miss Newman; negative, Miss Evelyn Newman. Quotations from Scott. All who are interested are invited to be present, and so decide whether or not it would benefit them to become members.

Frank Klein was placed on the witness stand this afternoon, and at 3:20 his examination had not been completed. His testimony varies from that given in the preliminary examination by being more full and giving some entirely new evidence. He testified, among other things, that in conversation with his father the Monday morning after the robbery, he told him he had committed the robbery.

The Union Savings and Loan Association bank in the Marquam building, Portland, was looted by burglars last night. The burglar-proof safe was blown open, the bold burglar having drilled a hole into it and with a nitro-glycerine fuse knocked the burglar proof theory as well as the safe to pieces. A census of the bold youths of The Dalles, we might mention for the benefit of the Oregonian, discloses the fact that our talent were not in it.

Maier & Benton now propose to give away a Ramona cook stove with reservoir, one copper teakettle and one Columbia Garland Junior stove, all now on exhibition in their window. The prizes will be awarded New Years eve. Do you want to know how you can get one of these prizes? If so, call at the store. You will find there everything in the hardware line, stoves, ranges, tin, granite and aluminum ware, cutlery and everything else.

While the K. of P. boys were holding forth in the hall over Cates & Leavin's store at the Cascades Thursday night, someone broke into the store. Two individuals giving their names as Thomas Moore and James Williams were arrested by Constable Trana, and after a preliminary examination before Justice Williams were bound over to the grand jury and brought here last night. It looks suspicious but we hardly believe the K. of P. boys would put up that job.

The Universal exposition at Portland will be formally opened tonight. The newspaper men of Oregon have been invited to be present at the opening ceremonies, and no doubt many of them will be there to enjoy the pyrotechnical display, and the something-to-eat afterwards. We have always had a kindly feeling towards the exposition, a feeling that began way back in the old "mechanics fair" times, and we sincerely hope the exposition commencing tonight will be profitable to its backers, as it undoubtedly will to the state.

Real Estate Transactions.

Deeds were filed today as follows: Maggie Fournelle to Peter Fournelle, the nw 1/4, ne 1/4, sec 1, tp 1 n, r 12 e; $1. Peter Fournelle to Joseph T. Peters, same property as the above; $600.

PERSONAL MENTION.

Mr. Ben Snipes of Seattle is in the city.

Mr. S. W. Mason of Boyd was in town today.

Mr. Geo. Lindsay is over from Hartland today.

Hon. T. R. Coon of Hood River was in the city today.

Mrs. Belle Rinehart is up from Portland visiting for a few days.

Mrs. Geo. C. Blakeley went to Portland on the afternoon train.

Mr. L. Rice of Endersby called at THE CHRONICLE office this morning.

Mr. Chas. Dietzel left for Portland Thursday, where he expected to meet Mrs. Dietzel, and they were to leave for Pasadena, Calif., to spend the winter.

United States Marshal Grady came up from Portland last night bringing young Hawthorne with him. The latter will be used as a witness against Otis Savage.

Hon. Charles Fulton of Astoria was in the city yesterday, going further east on the passenger train last night. His ambition to occupy Senator Dolph's position is laudable, and Mr. Fulton has the ability but the senatorial election is already practically settled.

When Baby was sick, we gave her Castoria.

When she was a Child, she cried for Castoria.

When she became Miss, she clung to Castoria.

When she had Children, she gave them Castoria.
